MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA

As Ohio State begins its 115th season of intercollegiate football, the Department of Athletics would like to take this opportunity to thank those members of the media who over the years have covered Buckeye football. We have enjoyed working with you and look forward to doing so again during the 2004 season. This media guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of the Buckeyes. Every effort has been made to ensure its accurateness and thoroughness. Hopefully, this publication will allow you to glean more information about all aspects of the Ohio State football program and The Ohio State University. This publication also contains important information relative to interviews with Ohio State players and coaches, as well as instructions for applying for single-game and season credentials. Any questions in either area should be directed to Steve Snapp at 614/292-6861 or snapp.1@osu.edu. Again, thank you for your coverage of Ohio State's 36 varsity teams.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must represent the recognized news organization requesting credentials. Please direct all credential requests to Steve Snapp, associate athletics director for communications. Requests should be made in writing and on company letterhead and can be faxed to (614) 292-8547 or e-mailed to snapp.1@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Ohio State football. Every effort will be made to fill each request. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director.

MORE ON CREDENTIALS

Season credentials will be mailed in mid-August, while single-game passes will be mailed 10 days before the game. For those members of the media covering a team visiting Columbus, credentials will be sent to the opposing school's sports information director for distribution at that school's weekly media luncheon. All requests made the week of the game will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Ohio State Athletics Communications Office in Room 124, St. John Arena. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Ohio Stadium Will Call window (Gate 21) Saturday, beginning three hours before kickoff. No parking will be available after 5 p.m. on Friday.

OHIO STADIUM PRESS BOX

The Ohio State Press Box is on the west side of Ohio Stadium. The Press Box elevator is located between Gates 21 and 23. Television photographers shooting from the photo deck should exit the elevator at the "CD" level. Writers and other members of the electronic media, including radio play-by-play crews, should exit at the "PB" level. The Press Box opens three hours before kickoff and remains open as long as necessary following the game.

PHONE LINES

Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone line can do so by calling University Phone Services at (614) 292-8648.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Those persons receiving photo credentials will receive a letter of authorization that must be exchanged at the base of the Press Box elevator for the actual credential. Photo credentials are to be properly displayed at all times and are good for Press Box access both before the game and at halftime, but not during the game. Photographers are required to stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field. Additionally, photographers are not permitted in the team bench areas (that includes the area immediately behind the benches).

RADIO REPORTS

Non-originating stations are restricted to 60-second reports between quarters and at the half. Live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. This policy also applies to Ohio State's away games. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked.

TRESSEL AVAILABILITY

During the season, Coach Jim Tressel will hold a weekly press luncheon each Tuesday at the Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe, located at 1421 Olentangy River Road in Columbus. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m., followed by remarks from Tressel, interviews with the coach and selected Ohio State players. The media luncheons will begin Aug. 31 and run through Nov. 16. Transcripts of the press conference will be available on the athletics web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com) following the luncheon. During the season, Coach Tressel also will meet with the media on Wednesdays following the conclusion of practice. All additional requests for interviews with Tressel should be directed to Steve Snapp.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

In addition to his media luncheon, Coach Tressel is available on the Big Ten Conference's weekly teleconference at noon Tuesdays. Contact Sue Lister of the Big Ten Conference (847-696-1010) for access to the teleconference.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All Ohio State player interviews must be arranged through the Ohio State Athletics Communications Office. Generally speaking, Ohio State players will be available following practice and meetings on Tuesday, then not available again until after the game on Saturday. Players will return calls to out-of-town media Wednesday nights. We ask for the cooperation of the media in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than those designated.

PRACTICES

The Ohio State football team practices at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center on Olentangy River Road. Practices are closed, but photographers may shoot the first half hour on Tuesdays.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Coach Tressel will meet with the media as soon as possible after the game in the interview room, which is located on the third floor of the southeast tower in Ohio Stadium (enter the doors protected by the canopy and take the elevator to the third floor). Following the completion of his remarks, requested Ohio State players will be available in the interview area. The head coaches' postgame interviews take place simultaneously in Ohio Stadium, but typed quotes from both sessions are included in the postgame media packets distributed in the Press Box.

WEEKLY RELEASE

Ohio State's weekly release and stat package, which includes notes and depth charts, is available each Monday on the Ohio State web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com). Releases are not mailed.

RADIO CALL-IN SHOW

Throughout the season, Coach Tressel's weekly radio call-in show can be heard each Thursday at noon on WBNS Radio (1460 AM The Fan) in Columbus. The Tressel show is replayed each Thursday evening at 7 p.m. on the 73-station WBNS statewide network. Paul Keels, the radio voice of the Buckeyes, and Jim Lachey are the hosts.

WEEKLY TV SHOWS

Buckeye Replay (30 minutes of game highlights) and Buckeye Football Weekly (with Coach Tressel) are televised each Sunday morning during the football season. WBNS-TV is the outlet in Columbus, with Buckeye Replay kicking off at 11 a.m., followed by Buckeye Football Weekly 30 minutes later. The shows can be seen, too, in Youngstown (WYTV), Fox Sports Net (statewide) and around the state on the Ohio News Network (ONN). Jeff Hogan is the host.

OHIO STATE WEBSITE

Ohiostatebuckeyes.com is the official web site of the Ohio State Athletics Department. Ohio State football releases as well as a wide variety of athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

PHOTO REQUESTS

OSU ON THE ROAD

The team and traveling party depart Columbus on Friday for road games and return home immediately after the game. In accordance with Big Ten rules, the team will bus to Michigan State and Purdue, then fly home after those two games.

Ohio State Sports Radio Network

WBNS RADIO 1460 THE FAN

All Ohio State football games are broadcast by the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Sports Network with WBNS Radio serving as the flagship station for the 73 statewide network. Paul Keels is the play-by-play announcer. Former Buckeye All-America tackle Jim Lachey serves as color analyst and ex-OSU quarterback Jim Karsatos provides expert commentary from the sideline.

In addition to game coverage, "The Buckeye Roundtable Show" can be heard Monday throughout the season from 6-8 p.m. on the The Ohio State Radio Network. Joining Keels, Lachey and Karsatos are Bruce Hooley, OSU football beat reporter from the Cleveland Plain Dealer and WBNS Radio reporter Mike Ricordati. The show originates from different affiliate sites around the state from week-to-week.

Also, the "Jim Tressel Show" airs every Thursday at noon during the season on the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Network. Keels and Lachey serve as co-hosts.

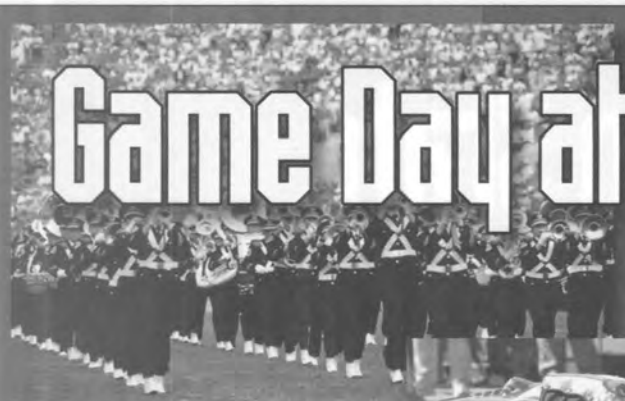
Game Day at Ohio State

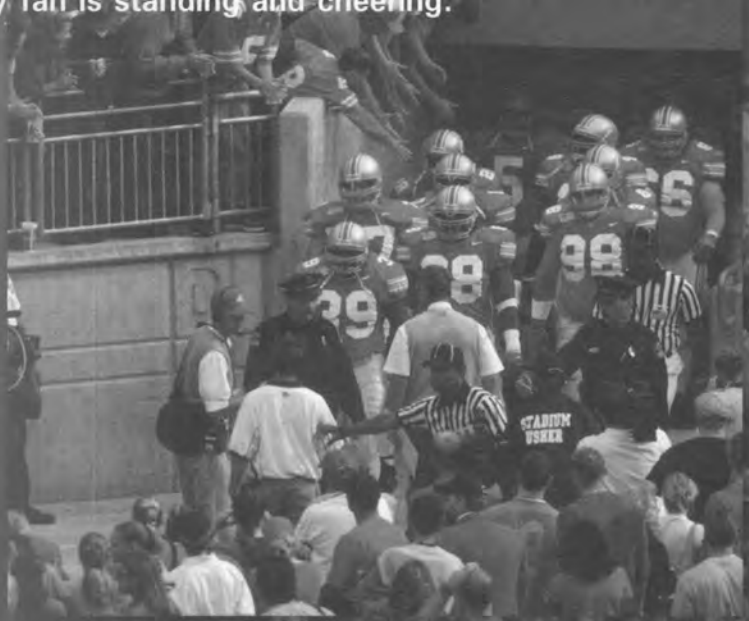
Game Day at Ohio State is a unique experience, both for the players and the many fans that converge on Columbus to see their Buckeyes play.

There's the team walk from the Blackwell Hotel to Ohio Stadium, amidst a sea of scarlet and gray clad fans. Along the way, the Buckeyes stop at St. John Arena, receiving a rousing welcome from the Ohio State Marching Band and a standing room only crowd of more than 10,000.

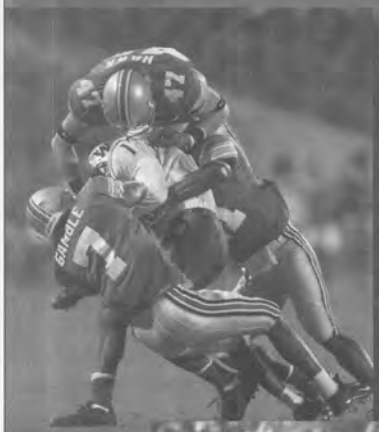
Game Day at Ohio State

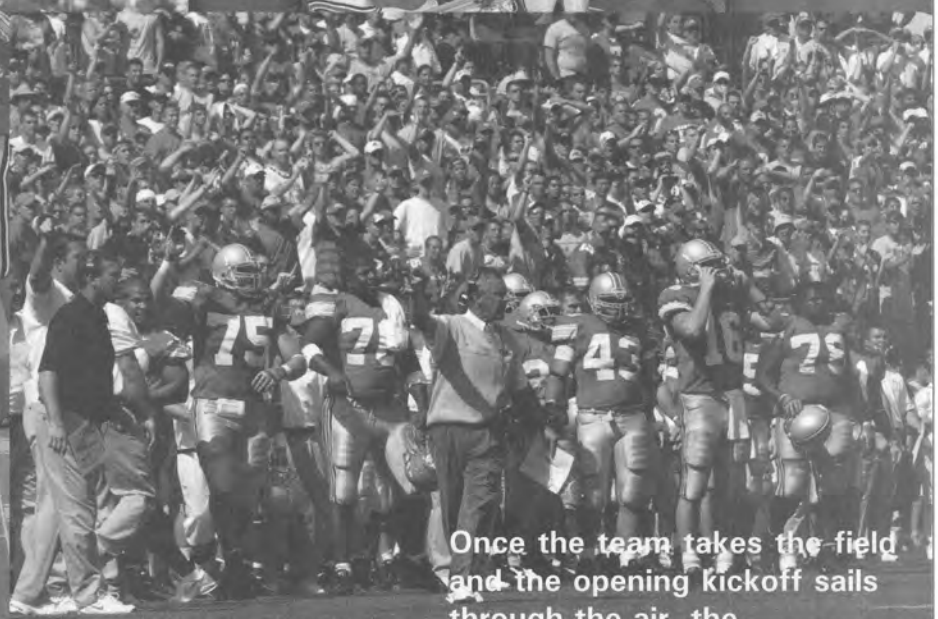


As the game nears, the Buckeye faithful pour through the Ohio Stadium portals in anticipation of the Band's traditional ramp entrance and the ever-popular Script Ohio. When the sousaphone player dots the "I" every fan is standing and cheering.



Game Day at Ohio State





Once the team takes the field and the opening kickoff sails through the air, the excitement only intensifies as the fans cheer the Buckeyes on to yet another thrilling victory.

Game Day at Ohio State

When the game ends, the coaches and players gather in front of the south stands where the band plays Carmen Ohio, the school's alma mater, and the players, coaches and fans sing along.

It is a moving end to an exciting day. A day that makes autumn in Columbus a very special time of the year.

Dustin Fox

Thorpe Award Candidate
6-0, 190, Sr.
Cornerback
Canton, Ohio

Will be in his third year as the starting boundary corner … tested week after week at one of the most difficult defensive positions in football and always responds to the challenge … a terrific athlete, who is mentally tough and very competitive … has the ability to never get rattled and just keep playing in the face of adversity … finished last year with 77 tackles, including a team-high 55 solos … also led the team in interceptions with three and was second in passes broken up with nine … credited, too, with a fumble caused and a recovery … led the defense in playing time (and was second on the team) with 365 total minutes – for an average of 28 minutes a game … enters the 2004 campaign with 28-consecutive starts and 39 games under his belt … has a 40-inch vertical leap … came to Ohio State as a safety, but was forced into the lineup as a freshman at cornerback and has been a fixture there ever since … 10 tackles at Michigan last year was his top effort … 189 career tackles and seven career interceptions.

Simon Fraser

Hendricks Award Candidate
6-6, 280, Sr.
Defensive End
Upper Arlington, Ohio

Will be the cornerstone of the defensive front this year … two-year letterman, who started last year and performed exceptionally well in his first year as a regular … gives the Buckeyes size and speed coming off the corner … difficult to defend because of his quickness and agility … led the defensive line last year with five passes broken up … his size and arm-span make it difficult for quarterbacks to see downfield … finished the 2003 season with a career-high 34 tackles, including seven tackles-for-loss … played behind All-American Will Smith in 2002 and has played in all 39 games the past three years … had seven tackles, including three tackles-for-loss in the 2003 season opener against Washington and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week on the heels of that performance … played in the shadows of Smith, Darrion Scott and Tim Anderson last year, but will be the defensive lineman everyone is talking about in 2004.

2004 Award Candidates

A.J. Hawk

Butkus and Lombardi Awards Candidate
6-1,238, Jr.
Linebacker
Centerville, Ohio

The defensive MVP of the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and one of the top linebackers in college football … coming off a monster year in which he led the Buckeyes in tackles with 106 total participations in his first season as a starter … blessed with size, speed and great instincts … runs to the ball very well and is a punishing tackler … won first-team All-Big Ten honors last year and has been named to several preseason All-America teams for 2004 … has already been named to the 2004 watch list for the Lombardi Award … finished the 2003 campaign with 13 tackles-for-loss (second on the team) and four sacks … also had a pair of interceptions and five passes broken up … had a career-high 13 tackles against Northwestern and was in double figures on three other occasions, including the Fiesta Bowl, where he had 10 stops … led the team in tackles seven times … had a 55-yard interception return against North Carolina State and also had a pick against Bowling Green … tenacious football player who embodies Chris Spielman's intensity with Randy Gradishar's nose for the ball.

Santonio Holmes

Biletnikoff Award Candidate
5-11, 185, So.
Flanker
Belle Glades, Fla.

Has a chance to be really special … started the final five-and-a-half games of the 2003 campaign and was absolutely lethal, hauling in 29 passes for 497 yards and seven touchdowns in that span … was simply unstoppable at Michigan, where he had a career-high eight receptions for 121 yards and a pair of touchdowns … also had two TD grabs against Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl … top game in terms of yardage was at Indiana, where he came off the bench to replace injured starter Drew Carter and then put on a clinic with six receptions for 153 yards and a pair of six pointers … was a starter from that point on, teaming with split end Michael Jenkins to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable receiving tandems in the Big Ten … has speed, hands, runs great routes and can separate from a defender … very dangerous after he catches the ball … OSU's leading returning receiver with 32 catches for 549 yards and seven touchdowns … averaged 17.2 yards per catch and 45.8 yards per game … dynamite with the ball!

2004 Award Candidates

Nick Mangold

Rimington Award and Outland Trophy Candidate

6-4, 290, Jr.
Center
Centerville, Ohio

Will be the wheel horse of the OSU offensive line in 2004 … tough, hard-nosed, in-the-trenches type of player … played extensively as a true freshman in 2002 when the Buckeyes won the national championship … began last season as the backup center behind highly regarded Alex Stepanovich, but took over as the starter in the second half of the North Carolina State game in week three after Stepanovich suffered a high ankle sprain … started the final 10 games of the season and was one of the Buckeyes' most consistent linemen … a bright, physical, intense player who has a great grasp of the game … makes all the calls up front … got better as the year went on, allowing Stepanovich to move to right guard once he returned to the lineup … compares very favorably to Ohio State's 2001 Rimington Award winner LeCharles Bentley … considered one of the top three center prospects in the country as a high school senior and has lived up to – and perhaps exceeded – the expectations of the Ohio State coaching staff.

Mike Nugent

Groza Award Candidate

5-10, 180, Sr.
Kicker
Centerville, Ohio

Now in his third year as the Buckeyes' field goal kicker … won first-team All-America honors in 2002 and was a finalist for the Lou Groza award … should be in the running for similar honors again in 2004 … at his best under pressure … has been a model of consistency the past two years and has rewritten the Ohio State records book … has set 12 OSU kicking records thus far and currently ranks as Ohio State's all-time percentage leader in field goals made at with a fanciful .787 figure (48 of 61) … needs 11 field goals to set the Ohio State record for career three pointers, and 95 points to become the school's all-time scoring leader ahead of Pete Johnson …has led the team in scoring each of the past two seasons, including 120 points in 2002, the most points ever by an Ohio State kicker …. finished the 2003 campaign with 86 points, hitting 16 of 19 field goal attempts and all 28 of his PATs … closed out last year on a strong note, hitting seven of his last eight field goal attempts, including a personal best four against Michigan State … was two-for-two from 50 yards out last year (53 vs. Iowa and 52 vs. Purdue) and four-of-five from 40 yards away … lifetime 17-of-22 from beyond 40 yards … has made 50 consecutive PATs and is 110-of-113 lifetime in that category … also kicks off, repeatedly booming the ball deep into the end zone … a terrific weapon and great young man who is actively involved in numerous community activities.

Ohio State Football Notes

BUCKEYES RETURN 42 LETTERMEN

Ohio State returns 42 lettermen from last year – 20 on offense, 20 on defense and two from the special teams. The Buckeyes have lost 29 letter winners – 17 on defense, 11 on offense and one from special teams.

OHIO STATE ON OPENING DAY

Ohio State kicks off the 2004 season Sept. 4 against visiting Cincinnati. The Buckeyes have an all-time opening day record of 98-12-4 and have won 25-consecutive home openers dating back to 1978.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

Dick Tressel is the Buckeyes' new running backs coach. Tressel, who has served in the football operations department the past three years, takes over for Tim Spencer, now with the Chicago Bears. Tressel, the brother of head coach Jim Tressel and a former head coach at Hamline University in Minnesota, is one of three new faces that will be roaming the OSU sideline this fall. The other two are receivers coach Darrell Hazell and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator John Peterson. Hazell comes to Ohio State from Rutgers, while Peterson, who played for the Buckeyes in the late 1980s, coached at Miami (Ohio) last year and had moved on to the University of Arizona in January before returning to his alma mater.

THE BUCKEYES IN THE POLLS

The Buckeyes have finished in the top five of both national polls each of the past two years, finishing first in 2002 on the heels of their national championship and fourth last year. It is Ohio State's first back-to-back appearance in the top five since 1975 and '76. The Buckeyes were in the top five – in at least one of the two major wire service polls – each year from 1973 to 1976.

OHIO STATE ALL-TIME

The Buckeyes head into the 2004 season with an all-time record of 757-294-53 in 114 seasons. Ohio State first fielded a team in 1890, compiling a 1-3 mark in a season that began May 3 with a 20-14 victory at Ohio Wesleyan. The Buckeyes' first home game was against Wooster the following fall, a 64-0 loss. Ohio State's first home win came in 1891, an 8-4 decision over Denison on Nov. 28. Since 1890, the Buckeyes have had just 11 losing seasons, finishing .500 or better the other 102 years.

OHIO STATE IN THE BIG TEN

Since beginning Big Ten play in the fall of 1913 the Buckeyes (who actually joined the league in 1912) have compiled an all-time conference record of 414-157-24. The Buckeyes have 29 Big Ten titles to their credit – 15 outright and 14 shared. The Buckeyes last outright title was in 1984. Their last shared crown came in 2002.

HOMECOMING GAME

This year's homecoming game will be Oct. 23 against Indiana. Other significant dates on the home schedule include Alumni Band Day (Cincinnati) and Ohio State Hall of Fame Recognition Day (Marshall).

AT HOME ON THE BANKS OF THE OLENTANGY

With an 8-0 record at home in 2003, Ohio State has compiled an all-time mark of 350-101-25 in Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes enter the 2004 campaign with a string of 16 consecutive home victories, last losing to Illinois in the 2001 home finale.

HARLEY'S JERSEY NUMBER TO BE RETIRED

The jersey number of the late Charles "Chic" Harley, Ohio State's first three-time football All-American, will be retired during halftime of this year's Penn State game. Harley, who wore No. 47, starred for the Buckeyes during the 1916-17 and '19 seasons, winning All-America honors each of those years and regularly playing before full houses in old Ohio Field. His spectacular play energized the community and resulted in a campaign to build a new venue to better accommodate the fans. As a result, Ohio Stadium, often referred to as "the house that Harley built," was opened in 1922. Harley will be the sixth Ohio State player to have his number retired, joining Archie Griffin, Vic Janowicz, Les Horvath, Howard "Hopalong" Cassady and Eddie George. Harley's No. 47 currently is being worn by junior linebacker A.J. Hawk, who will wear that number until he exhausts his eligibility.

CAROLINA BOUND BUCKEYES

Ohio State plays at North Carolina State on Sept. 18, marking the first trip ever to the state of North Carolina for the Buckeyes. In fact, this will be Ohio State's initial venture into an Atlantic Coast Conference stadium. The Buckeyes have an all-time record of 8-6 against ACC teams.

BOWL MVPS

Linebackers A.J. Hawk and Anthony Schlegel are both coming off MVP performances. Hawk was the Defensive MVP of last year's Tostitos Fiesta Bowl after recording 10 tackles in the Buckeyes' 35-28 win over Kansas State. Schlegel, meanwhile, was the Defensive MVP of the 2002 Diamond Walnut Bowl in San Francisco, notching 10 tackles in a 20-13 loss to nationally ranked Virginia.

SANDER JOINS AWARD WINNER'S LIST

Punter B. J. Sander was last year's winner of the Ray Guy Award as the best punter in college football. Over the years, the Buckeyes have won 26 major awards, including six Heisman Trophies.

B.J. Sander

SMITH, ALLEN WIN ALL-AMERICA ACCLAIM

Defensive end Will Smith and strong safety Will Allen both won first-team All-America honors last year, giving the Buckeyes 162 first-team honorees. Smith was named to the Football Writers and the Walter Camp teams, while Allen was selected by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp and the Associated Press.

KRENZEL RAKES IN THE HARDWARE

Ohio State quarterback Craig Krenzel, who led the Buckeyes to a 24-3 record during his two years as a starter, also excelled in the classroom. Krenzel, a molecular genetics major, was one of 13 seniors to receive a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship last fall. At the NFFHF banquet in New York City in December, he was further honored as the recipient of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award as the most outstanding of the 13 scholarship winners. Krenzel also was selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America as the Academic All-American of the Year in football. Just to make a clean sweep of things, he also received the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII award.

BUCKEYES SET NFL DRAFT RECORD

Fourteen Ohio State players were taken in last year's NFL Draft, the most players ever selected from one school since the league went to a seven-round draft. Three of those players – defensive end Will Smith, cornerback Chris Gamble and split end Michael Jenkins – were first round picks. Seven Buckeyes were drafted on the first day, which also is an NFL record.

THEY PUT IN THEIR TIME

Senior cornerback Dustin Fox logged 365 minutes of playing time last year to lead all returning players in that category. Center Nick

Craig Krenzel

Will Allen

Mangold is the leader among the offensive returnees with 342 minutes. Other returning players who topped the 300-minute mark last year are linebacker A. J. Hawk (334), safety Nate Salley (333) and defensive end Simon Fraser (301). Fox also is the leader in career playing time with a total of 812 minutes. Fraser is next at 528, followed by Hawk with 434 and Mangold with 414.

ROSTER NOTES

- There are 104 players on this year's Ohio State roster, representing 12 states and Canada. By state, there are 82 players from Ohio, six from Florida, four from Pennsylvania, three from Texas, two from Georgia and one each from the states of Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New York and Virginia.
- There are 14 fifth-year seniors and six fourth-year seniors on the roster.
- At 6-8 and 320, true freshman Steve Rehring is the tallest and heaviest player on the squad. He is one of eight players on the roster to tip the scale in excess of 300 pounds.
- Business, or a related field is the most popular major on this year's team, with 11 players listing business are their major. Communication is next in line with nine, followed by criminology (7) and consumer affairs (6).

2004 Ohio State Outlook

BUCKEYES COMING OFF BACK-TO-BACK TOP 5 FINISHES AND BCS WINS

By all accounts, Jim Tressel and the Ohio State football staff have put together four solid recruiting classes. With the loss of 26 seniors from last year's 11-2 team, those recruits will have every opportunity to strut their stuff this fall.

The Buckeyes, who have posted a combined record of 25-2 the past two years and have won back-to-back BCS games in that span, must replace six starters on offense and seven on defense.

The list of graduates includes quarterback Craig Krenzel (24-3 in his two years as a starter) and Michael Jenkins (the school's career leader in receiving yardage with 2,898 yards) on offense, and end Will Smith and strong safety Will Allen on defense. Both of the latter were first-team All-Americans a year ago. Also gone is B.J. Sander, the 2003 Ray Guy Award winner as the best punter in college football.

But there are also some very talented players returning, including, but not limited to, All-America place-kicker Mike Nugent, center Nick Mangold, offensive tackle Robbie Sims, tailback Lydell Ross, fullback Branden Joe, defensive end Simon Fraser, linebackers A.J. Hawk and Bobby Carpenter and defensive backs Dustin Fox and Nate Salley. All were starters last year and played significant roles in OSU's success.

Additionally, numerous other players saw extensive action in reserve roles last year and picked up valuable game experience. Mix in a talented group of redshirts and a couple of highly regarded transfers and the Buckeyes would seem to have the makings of another very competitive team as Tressel begins his fourth year at the OSU helm.

As always, the key will be how the group gels and comes together as a unit. And judging by his first three years at Ohio State, few people are better than Tressel when it comes to getting a team to mesh.

Lydell Ross topped the 100-yard mark in three of the last five regular-season games.

THE OFFENSE

The offensive line will require the most re-tooling. Offensive coordinator Jim Bollman must come up with three new starters on the interior as well as a new tight end to replace dependable Ben Hartsock.

Sims (6-4, 310) and Mangold (6-4, 290) will be the building blocks inside. Both played extensively as true freshmen in 2002 when the Buckeyes captured the national championship, and both were regulars last year. Mangold is a master of his trade and is being mentioned as a candidate for the Rimington Award.

Sophomores T.J. Downing (6-5, 305) and Tim Schafer (6-5, 290) and redshirt freshman Kirk Barton are the candidates at right tackle. All three are big, physical, intelligent and hard working. Schafer is the only letterman in the group. He saw action, albeit briefly, in eight games last year. Downing made gigantic strides in the spring and has gotten the coaches attention with quick grasp of what is going on. Barton is very green, but very good. But he missed almost all of spring practice, first recovering from shoulder surgery and then, after he was cleared to play, a sprained ankle, so he is still somewhat of an unproven commodity. Look for two of the three to settle in on the right side and the third to backup Sims on the left side. As a whole, it is a very impressive group.

Senior Mike Kne (6-4, 303), junior Andree Tyree (6-3, 290) and sophomore Doug Datish (6-5, 295) are the leading candidates at guard. Kne lettered last year at tackle, but is equally at home inside. He is expected to open the season at right guard. Datish, one of the top young linemen on the squad, will probably get the nod at left guard. Tyree will be the backup on both sides, and can also play center.

R.J. Coleman, John McLaughlin, Steve Winner and true freshman Steve Rehring provide solid depth. The mammoth Rehring (6-8, 320) enrolled in the winter and took part in spring ball.

Hartsock has been a fixture at tight end for the past two years and will not be easy to replace. But the Buckeyes have a standout in 6-5, 250-pound junior Ryan Hamby, who excels both as a receiver and as a blocker. OSU's No. 2 tight end a year ago, he finished the season with 18 receptions for 190 yards and three touchdowns. He is a talented player and is poised for a big year.

Troy Smith

Justin Zwick

The No. 2 spot this year will likely go to either senior Jason Caldwell or versatile sophomore Stan White. Incoming freshmen Chad Hoobler and Rory Nicol will get a look, too.

"This is the most depth we have had on the line in my four years here," said Bollman. "It is an athletic, intelligent and tough group."

will fall to either Justin Zwick or Troy Smith, both of whom are third year sophomores.

On the heels of a record-setting career at Massillon Washington high school in northeast Ohio, the 6-4, 225-pound Zwick was one of the most highly recruited quarterbacks in Ohio State history. Bigger and stronger than he was as a prepster, he has a strong arm, an extremely quick release and a deft, accurate passing touch. After two years of understudying Krenzel, he also has a thorough understanding of what the coaches expect from a quarterback.

The 6-1, 215-pound Smith is blessed with a rifle arm and is an elusive runner who can scramble out of trouble and turn a potential loss into a big play. His stealth-like moves make him especially dangerous in the open-field. Recruited as an athlete, he has worked hard to learn the Ohio State system. In doing so, he has projected himself into the picture for playing time.

Santonio Holmes had a pair of touchdown catches against Kansas State.

The Buckeyes' third quarterback is 6-5, 235-pound Todd Boeckman, a true freshman from St. Henry, Ohio (the home of former OSU signal caller Bobby Hoying). Boeckman took part in fall drills last year but did not enroll until Winter Quarter. The coaches like what they have seen to date.

With Jenkins gone, 5-11 sophomore flanker Santonio Holmes will become the Buckeyes' "go-to" receiver.

Holmes was a joy to behold during the last half of the 2003 season, hauling in 29 passes for 497 yards and seven touchdowns in the Buckeyes' final six games, including a pair of TD grabs against both Michigan and Kansas State. He finished the season with 32 receptions and is the Buckeyes' leading returning receiver. He is quick, elusive, fast, has great hands, runs precise routes, can separate from a defender and has a knack for picking up yards after the catch.

If he stays healthy, Holmes will add his name to the OSU records book before his career comes to a close. And if he plays the entire 2004 season, the way he ended the 2003 campaign, he will be the Buckeyes next All-American wide receiver, joining Cris Carter, Terry Glenn and David Boston in a very select circle.

Roy Hall will take over at split end for Jenkins. The 6-3, 228-pound sophomore played in all 13 games last year and had six catches. He is the Buckeyes most physical receiver and has demonstrated the ability to catch the ball in a crowd. As he acquires experience and learns to use his physical talent, he will become an integral part of the Ohio State aerial arsenal.

Senior Bam Childress also returns. A former Ohio Player of the Year, the 5-10 Childress is coming off his best year and should be the Buckeyes third receiver in 2004. He is the Buckeyes quickest player and is exciting to watch in the open field, unless, of course, you are an opposing defensive player.

Ryan Hamby will take over for Ben Hartsock at tight end.

Other receivers to keep an eye on include senior John Hollins (who is also a valuable member of the special teams) and redshirt freshmen Anthony Gonzalez and Devin Jordan. Hollins has paid his dues and hopes to have his best year as a senior. Gonzalez appears to have a bright future.

Lydell Ross and fellow senior Maurice Hall are expected to shoulder most of the load at tailback. Both were hurt much of last year, but are healthy now as they head into their senior seasons.

Ross was hampered by a sore shoulder and a turf toe early in the year, but still finished the 2003 season with 826 yards and 10 touchdowns. Once he did get back in the lineup, he topped the 100-yard mark in three of the last six games and led all rushers in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl with 82 yards. The 6-0, 225-pound Ross has rushed for 1,864 yards and 22 touchdowns during his career. He also has caught 25 passes.

2004 Ohio State Outlook

Hall started the first four games last year, but saw only limited action the second half of the season because of injuries. The 5-10, 205-pound scatback finished the season with 316 yards and one touchdown, both figures down from his totals of the previous year. But after undergoing surgery on both knees following the season and then recuperating in the spring, he hopes to be back on track in 2004 and give the Buckeyes a deft change-of-pace runner to complement Ross.

Freshmen hopefuls Tony Pittman and Erik Haw round out the running back corps.

Pittman enrolled in March and took part in spring practice. The 5-11, 190-pound yearling impressed the coaches with his quickness and vision. And he impressed the more than 45,000 fans in attendance at the spring game by rushing for 105 yards on 21 carries. In the 6-1, 210-pound Haw, the Buckeyes have an inside presence who has the speed to outrun defenders.

Simon Fraser returns to anchor the defensive front.

The 6-0, 235-pound Branden Joe returns at fullback. After playing a total of just five minutes in the first six games of 2003 because of a torn pectoral muscle, he returned to the lineup and was a catalyst down the stretch for the OSU running game. He wound up the year with 99 yards rushing on 27 carries, with 46 of those yards came in the Fiesta Bowl against a good Kansas State defense. The bruising senior can be very effective in a one-back set, or as a tailback.

Junior Brandon Schnittker, who started when Joe was hurt and is a two-year letterman, also returns at fullback. He, too, is a solid blocker, ball carrier and receiver and will see a lot of playing time.

THE DEFENSE

In addition to Smith (a first-round NFL draft choice) the Buckeyes must also replace tackles Tim Anderson and Darrion Scott (both third round draft picks) on the defensive line. But the 6-6, 280-pound Fraser will not be on an island as he returns for his senior year. In fact, if some of the young players progress as expected under the watchful eye of defensive line coach Jim Heacock, the Buckeyes depth along the defensive front might be even better this year than it was a year ago.

Junior Mike Kudla will take over for Smith at end while junior Marcus Green and sophomore Quinn Pitcock will be the starting defensive tackles. All three are veteran performers who were very much in the thick of things last year, combining for 41 tackles, including 6.5 tackles for loss and four sacks.

Fraser, who can be a dominant player, and Kudla give the Buckeyes two exceptionally quick and intelligent players on the edges. Green and Pitcock are tough, physical players who can fight off blockers and make plays.

Sophomore Jay Richardson, junior Redgie Arden, and redshirt freshmen Marcel Frost and Reggie Smith are four promising young ends. Judging by his play on the scout team last year, the 6-5, 255-pound Frost will be difficult to keep out of the rotation.

Sophomore defensive tackle David Patterson, a healthy 6-3 and 285, is already in that rotation. He played in 12 games last year as a true freshman and was a "regular" by the end of the year. He and Joel Penton, a third-year sophomore, are expected to be the primary backups for Green and Pitcock.

Redshirt freshmen Sian (she-on) Cotton and Brandon Maupin are expected to make their presence felt as well, meaning fans will need a program to keep track of who is in the game.

The Buckeyes have been been able to exert defensive pressure the past two years by keeping their front four fresh. Look for Heacock to employ more of the same strategy this year. The horses are there and he will give them their heads.

After two years as special teams coordinator Luke Fickell takes over as linebackers coach, replacing Mark Snyder who has been promoted to defensive coordinator.

Fickell inherits a star-studded cast that includes Hawk (a unanimous All-Big Ten selection last year), Bobby Carpenter and Mike D'Andrea – the top-rated group of linebackers in the country coming out of high school three years ago. In addition to those three, who are now juniors, transfers Anthony Schlegel (Air Force) and John Kerr (Indiana) will be eligible in the fall, and freshman Marcus Freeman (a winter quarter enrollee) was considered the top linebacker prospect in the Midwest last season.

Given that wealth of talent, it will be interesting to see how Fickell, who can also call on senior Thomas Matthews and redshirt freshman Curt Lukens, chooses to deploy his troops.

Hawk is a lock at one outside spot. He led the Buckeyes in tackles last year with 106 and is a big-play guy who already has been named to the Butkus Award watch list and several preseason All-America teams. He excels in every phase of the game and plays with a fire that infects his teammates.

2004 Ohio State Outlook

A.J. Hawk is a pre-season candidate for the Butkus Award.

Carpenter backed up Robert Reynolds last year at the other outside spot and had a solid season, finishing the year with 37 tackles and giving promise of great things to come. He and Hawk are very similar in their style of play. He is poised for a break-out year.

But while those two spots seem set, there is a potential logjam in the middle, where D'Andrea, Schlegel and Kerr all would like to pencil in their names.

D'Andrea shared time there last year with Fred Pagac Jr. until being sidelined with a shoulder injury that forced him to miss the last three games of the season. He finished the year with 24 tackles.

Schlegel (who led Air Force in tackles in 2002 with 116) and Kerr (who paced the Hoosiers that year with 114) took all the reps in the spring while D'Andrea was recovering from surgery. As a result, the Buckeyes have three solid players in the middle. All will play, making this one of the deepest, and best, linebacking corps in several years at Ohio State.

Fox is the acknowledged leader of the secondary. Now in his fourth year at the boundary corner, he is a veteran of 39 games and 28 starts at one of the toughest positions in football. An exceptional athlete, he led the team in solo tackles (55) and interceptions (3) last year and was second in passes broken up (9). He's a tough, competitive leader who is undaunted in the face of adversity.

Junior E. J. Underwood and sophomore Ashton Youboty are the leading candidates to replace Gamble at the field corner. Both are gifted cover corners who can shut down a receiver. Tressel calls Underwood "the most talented corner I have ever coached." Youboty, who also excels as a return man, isn't far behind. Neither saw a lot of action last year playing behind Gamble, but that will change this year.

Senior Harlen Jacobs will backup Fox at the boundary. It was Jacobs who blocked a Kansas State punt in last year's Fiesta Bowl, resulting in Ohio State's first touchdown on the way to a 35-28 victory.

Incoming freshman Ted Ginn Jr. is another outstanding prospect. He was the nation's top-rated cornerback and the USA Today defensive player of the year last year.

Nate Salley, one of the Buckeyes brightest young stars, returns at free safety. The 6-3, 205-pound junior started the final 11 games of the 2003 season and wound up the year with 77 tackles, the fifth highest total on the team. A fierce hitter with blazing closing speed, he should be even better in 2004 now that he has a year of experience under his belt.

Sophomore Donte Whitner has big shoes to fill at strong safety, where the Buckeyes have produced a first-team All-American in each of the past three years (Mike Doss in 2001 and 2002 and Will Allen last year). But Whitner is an outstanding young player, who made an early impression last year and wound up playing in all 13 games. The leading tackler among the freshmen with 22 stops, he also recorded a pair of interceptions. By year's end, he was firmly entrenched as Allen's backup and was the nickel back. He also scored a touchdown, recovering a blocked punt in the end zone in the Buckeyes' 19-10 win over Iowa.

Junior Tyler Everett (18 tackles last year) and sophomore Brandon Mitchell (19 stops in 2003) are experienced and proven players capable of stepping in and performing at a high level.

In short, this is another talented secondary that will only get better under the tutelage of defensive backfield coach and assistant defensive coordinator Mel Tucker, who is one of the game's best teachers.

THE KICKING GAME

Place-kicker Mike Nugent returns for his senior year. A first-team All-American in 2002, Nugent has been the model of consistency the past two years, setting 12 school records in that span.

In addition to handling all placements, Nugent also kicks off. A nominee for the Lou Groza award each of the past two years, and a finalist in 2002, he will be in the running for that distinction again this year.

2004 Ohio State Outlook

With 254 career points, Nugent is within striking distance of the OSU point record of 348, currently held by Pete Johnson. And with 48 career field goals, he seems a cinch to surpass the school record of 59 held by Dan Stultz.

Nugent has hit 48 of 61 field goal attempts at OSU, including 41 of 47 the past two years. Included in that total is a 53-yard kick against Iowa last year, the second longest field goal in Ohio Stadium history by a Buckeye. And he may be even stronger in 2004. In last spring's kick scrimmage, he was successful from 57 yards out and was just short from 62.

Senior Josh Huston also returns. He has been the No. 1 backup the past two years and has excellent range and accuracy.

Huston is also in the hunt to replace Sander as the Buckeyes' punter. Sander is coming off one of those storybook years in which he averaged 43.3 yards per punt and downed 39 of his 82 punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line. Time-and-again, he bailed the Buckeyes out of a tight spot and pinned the opposition deep in its own territory – a tough place to be against the rugged OSU defense. In addition to becoming the first Ohio State player to win the Ray Guy Award, he also won unanimous first-team All-Big Ten honors.

To say the least – especially given the emphasis that Tressel puts on punting – replacing Sander will not be easy. But Huston punted well in the spring, as did freshman A.J. Trapasso, who entered school at the start of spring quarter and showed a very strong leg in the kick scrimmage. Junior Kyle Turano is also in the hunt.

The long snapper duties will once again be in the capable hands of Kyle Andrews. Andrews, a former walk-on who has since been converted to scholarship, is in his third year as a starter at that all-important spot.

THE SCHEDULE

The Buckeyes open their season Sept. 4 by hosting the University of Cincinnati in Ohio Stadium, where Ohio State has won 16 consecutive games. The Bearcats are coached by former Ohio State defensive coordinator Mark Dantonio.

Marshall, a 27-20 upset winner over Kansas State last year, and North Carolina State complete the non-conference portion of the schedule. It will be the first ever meeting between Ohio State and Marshall, but the second straight against N. C. State. Topping last year's game with the Wolfpack will not be easy. The Buckeyes won a three-overtime shootout in Columbus last fall in the longest game in school history. This year's rematch will be in Raleigh.

The Buckeyes open the eight-game Big Ten card Oct. 2 at Northwestern. OSU returns home the following week to host Wisconsin. It was the Badgers who ended the Buckeyes 19-game winning streak last year with a 17-10 win in Madison.

Indiana, Penn State and Michigan complete the home schedule. The Buckeyes also play at Iowa, Michigan State and Purdue. The games at MSU and Purdue precede the home finale against Michigan.

Ohio State does not play either Illinois or Minnesota this year.

93 Nader Abdallah

6-3, 295, Fr./Fr.
Defensive Line
Archbishop Rummel High School
Metairie, La.
Date of Birth: 10-25-85

At a glance – One of the top interior defensive line prospects in the nation … has the size and strength to stop the run and the quick hands and agility to rush the quarterback … rated as the eighth best defensive tackle in the country by Prep Football Report … Rivals.com rated him as the 30th best defensive tackle in the nation … as a senior, collected 11 quarterback sacks, 76 tackles, two interceptions and five knockdowns in just eight games … ranked as the nation's 44th best defensive tackle by TheInsiders.com … has shown great closing speed and the ability to split double-teams … played in the U.S. Army All-American game in San Antonio … led Archbishop Rummel to the state playoffs in 2003 and collected four sacks, two batted passes, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in a hard-fought 7-5 second round loss to Shreveport Evangel … is the first student-athlete from Louisiana to sign with Ohio State since Jonathan Wells.

Personal: Is the son of Youmes and Izzieh Abdallah.

60 Kyle Andrews

5-11, 245, 5th/Sr.
Long Snapper
Middletown High School
Middletown, Ohio
Major: Criminology
Date of Birth: 9-10-81

At a glance – In his third year as the starting long snapper … does all the centering on punts and placements … is extremely accurate and gets good velocity on the ball … has played a key role in the success of the Buckeyes' kicking game each of the past two years … a former walk-on who was rewarded with a scholarship at the end of last season.

2003 (Junior): Had another stellar season and played an integral part in Buckeye punter B.J. Sander winning the 2003 Ray Guy Award … started all 13 games … OSU coaches named him the special units player of the week following the Northwestern game.

2002 (Sophomore): Took over the long snapping duties on a regular basis and did an exceptional job with NO errant snaps … started all 14 games as the Buckeyes' long snapper … played an instrumental role in the success of All-Americans Andy Groom (fourth nationally in punting) and Mike Nugent (nine school field goal records) … OSU coaches named him the special units player of the week following the Washington State game.

2001 (Freshman): First collegiate action came against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl.

High School: Played defensive tackle as a sophomore and junior and moved to defensive end his senior year … earned second-team all-league and honorable mention All-Southwestern Ohio honors as a senior.

Personal: Is the son of John and Judy Andrews … has one brother, Chris (28) … says his favorite professional sports team is the Columbus Blue Jackets and if he didn't play football at Ohio State he would love to play hockey … the athlete he most admires is Lance Armstrong.

83 Redgie Arden

6-4, 260, Sr./Jr.
Defensive End
Ironton High School
Ironton, Ohio
Major: Criminology
Date of Birth: 10-21-81

At a glance – Has played three different positions for the Buckeyes, taking turns at linebacker and tight end before settling in at his current defensive end spot … saw limited action in seven games in 2003, with most of his playing time coming with the special teams … hard hitter who can run … had two tackles on the year … had shoulder surgery following last spring of 2003.

2003 (Sophomore): Settled into a defensive end spot … played seven minutes in seven total games as a backup on a veteran defensive front for the Buckeyes.

2002 (Freshman): Appeared in 10 games and started the Illinois game in a two-tight end set … had four receptions on the year, good for 50 yards and an average of 12.5 yards per catch … three catches against Indiana, one of which went for 19 yards, was his top game … also had a 14-yard reception against San Jose State … earned his first letter.

2001 (Redshirt): Sat out his first year in Columbus while testing his skills on both sides of the ball in practice.

High School: A first-team SuperPrep All-American ... Division IV Associated Press co-Defensive Player of the Year … three-time first-team All-Ohio at linebacker … 107 tackles, eight sacks and three interceptions as a senior ... first player to verbally commit to OSU in the 2001 class … also played basketball and was a member of the track and field teams.

Personal: Son of Phillip and Sally Arden … one sister, Amber … enjoys hunting, fishing and weightlifting … the 2003 Fiesta Bowl victory is his favorite football memory as a collegian … "Buckeye Grove" is his favorite Ohio State tradition.

74 Kirk Barton

6-6, 305, So./Fr.
Offensive Tackle
Massillon Perry High School
Massillon, Ohio
Major: History
Date of Birth: 11-4-84

At a glance – The X factor in the three-way race at right tackle, where he will be competing with Tim Schafer and T.J. Downing for playing time … probably has the furthest to come after missing most all of spring practice because of injury, but has flashed signs of brilliance from time-to-time and is undeniably an immensely talented young player … redshirted last year and then underwent shoulder surgery following the season … returned for the last two weeks of spring practice and whetted the coaches' appetites with three good days of practice, but then sprained an ankle in the jersey scrimmage and missed the remainder of spring drills … should be ready to go in the fall and will definitely be in the hunt … has all the physical tools to be a standout … does an exceptional job of sustaining his block and giving the play time to develop.

2003 (Redshirt): Did not see any game action … injured his left shoulder in practice during the season and underwent corrective surgery in January.

High School: Considered one of the top linemen in the Midwest and one of the top 100 nationally … played defensive tackle and tight end in high school and simply overpowered opponents … played basketball as a freshman and sophomore, but then concentrated on football his final two years.

Personal: Is the son of Brigette Barton … his father, Kirk Sr., who passed away in 1997, played a year of college football at Ohio University and was a teammate of current Buckeye offensive coordinator Jim Bollman (Bolls was a senior and Barton a freshman) … a sister, Kasondra (Kasey), is a junior at Massillon Perry High School … goes by "Bart."

78 Alex Barrow

6-4, 245, Fr./Fr.
Defensive End
Dublin Coffman High School
Dublin, Ohio
Date of Birth 3-19-86

At a glance – One of the leading defensive line prospects in Central Ohio last season … rated as the nation's 31st best defensive tackle by Rivals.com … could also play defensive end at the collegiate level… Rivals.com also rated him as the 24th best overall prospect in Ohio … as a senior, totaled 95 tackles, including 27 for loss and 14 sacks, in leading Coffman to the regional finals … earned second team All-Ohio honors … as a junior, totaled 44 tackles and four sacks in six and a half games … great speed for a defensive tackle (4.75 40-yard dash time).

Personal: Is the son of Robert and Patrice Barrow … was a freshman at Coffman when current Buckeyes Adam Olds and Steve Winner were seniors.

17 Todd Boeckman

6-5, 235, Fr./Fr.
Quarterback
St. Henry High School
St. Henry, Ohio
Date of Birth: 6-8-84

At a glance – One of three scholarship quarterbacks on the roster … graduated from St. Henry in the spring of 2003 and enrolled at Ohio State on a part-time basis the following fall … was able to take part in fall drills until classes started … also took part in the bowl practices in Arizona before enrolling full-time at the beginning of Winter Quarter 2004 … has clearly benefited from the experience of those practice sessions and has a good grasp of the Ohio State offense … is an intelligent player with excellent size and a strong arm … it is conceivable that he could play some this year …earned All-Midwest Athletic Conference honors and All-Ohio honors as a senior ... four-year starter for the Redskins and led St. Henry to the Division V state title game as a freshman ... threw for 7,021 yards and 64 touchdowns in his varsity career, including his freshman season when he threw for 2,520 yards and 23 touchdowns ... suffered a sprained medial collateral ligament as a senior, but completed 95 of 177 passes for 1,415 yards and 15 TDs ... ranked as the 19th-best quarterback nationally in 2003 by Rivals.com ... ranked as the 33rd-best prospect in the Midwest by SuperPrep and as the 51st-best prospect in the region by ESPN.com's Tom Lemming ... coached by father, Tim Boeckman, who is now the athletics director at St. Henry ... also earned all-state honors in basketball and baseball ... was a four-year letterman in basketball and a three-year letterman in baseball ... averaged 18.6 points per game on the hardcourt as a junior ... attended same high school that sent Bobby Hoying and Jim Lachey, among others, to Ohio State.

Personal: Is the son of Tim and Denise Boeckman.

58 Joe Bradley

6-3, 213, Sr./Jr.
Linebacker
Upper Arlington High School
Upper Arlington, Ohio
Major: Management/Industry
Date of Birth: 12-7-82

At a glance – Saw his first action as a Buckeye a year ago with five games played, mainly on special teams … hard hitter and aggressive player … walk-on who is in his third year on the team … hopes to earn his first letter this year.

2003 (Sophomore): Saw his first career game action against Northwestern … played in consecutive games vs. Michigan State, Purdue, Michigan and Kansas State … did not record any tackles.

2002 (Freshman): Served as a backup linebacker and worked on the scout team during practice.

2001 (Redshirt): Practiced while sitting out as a redshirt.

High School: Two-year starter at linebacker … first-team all-district and second-team all-state as a senior, when Upper Arlington posted a 15-0 record and won the state title .. played lacrosse for two years, helping the Golden Bears to a pair of state championships.

Personal: Son of Walter and Jan Bradley … has a twin brother, Wally, and a sister Jacquelyn ... has been to the Bahamas and would like to see Hawaii someday … would like to dine with historical figures Abraham Lincoln, Julius Irving and Bill Gates if the chance presented itself … enjoys playing cards and the guitar in his spare time … playing little league football is his favorite childhood memory … his favorite Ohio State football tradition is running out of the tunnel just before kickoff … would be playing lacrosse for the Buckeyes if not on the football team.

87 Jason Caldwell

66 R.J. Coleman

6-5, 295, Jr./So.
Offensive Guard
Robert C. Byrd High School
Clarksburg, W. Va.
Major: History
Date of Birth: 12-14-83

At a glance – Hopes to get his first taste of playing time this year ... and while it should be at guard, it could be at tight end ... was recruited at the latter position, but was moved to guard last fall because of his size and power ... suffered a neck and shoulder injury shortly after making the switch and never really had the opportunity to learn the position ... was able to practice in the spring, however, and should be full-go in the fall ... whether or not he stays at guard or moves back to tight end will depend on the play of incoming freshmen Chad Hoobler and Rory Nicols, both of whom are highly regarded tight end prospects ... coaches liked his guard play in the spring, but could be forced to move him back to tight end to get more numbers there ... has good upper body strength.

2003 (Freshman): Made the move from tight end to guard, but suffered a pinched nerve in the neck and shoulder that limited his number of reps ... did not play in any games.

2002 (Redshirt): Did not see any playing time.

High School: Won all-state honors as a senior and was considered the top tight-end prospect in West Virginia ... averaged 28 yards per reception as a senior and was a bruising blocker ... won the state shot put title as a junior and successfully defended his crown as a senior ... also won all-state honors in basketball.

Personal: Is the son of Christopher Coleman and Kathy Bosserdet ... has one brother, Travis Coleman (16), and three sisters, Ashley Bosserdet (7), Caroline Coleman (4) and Charlotte Coleman (born last May 8) ... enjoys all outdoor sports.

59 John Conroy

6-3, 295, Sr./Jr.
Offensive Guard
Cleveland St. Ignatius High School
Bay Village, Ohio
Major: Risk Management
Date of Birth: 10-28-82

At a glance – Fourth-year walk-on who will provide depth at guard … can play either side, but goes into the fall listed on the left side with Doug Datish and Andree Tyree … also plays on the special teams (field goal unit) … has steadily improved in all aspects of the game … has not seen any game action to date and is hoping to make his initial appearance this year … one of three walk-ons on the offensive line who could contribute … recruited by Illinois and Purdue, along with several Mid-American Conference schools, out of high school, but began coming to Ohio State games in 1988 and wanted to follow in the footsteps of his father, a former walk-on for the Buckeyes.

2003 (Sophomore): Played on the scout team, but did not see any playing time.

2002 (Freshman): A member of the scout team, but did not get into any games.

2001 (Redshirt): Walked on, and was redshirted.

High School: Played two years and started at tackle as a senior … also a four-year letter winner as well as a two-year starter – in lacrosse.

Personal: Is the son of Jim and Bonne Conroy … his father was a walk-on with the Buckeyes during the 1968 to 1970 seasons, so both he and his father were members of national championship teams … his older brother, Jim, has his undergraduate and master's degrees from Ohio State and his younger brother, Tim, is on the crew team at George Washington … likes to fish, play golf and snow ski.

95 Sian Cotton

6-4, 295, So./Fr.
Defensive Tackle
St. Vincent-St. Mary High School
Akron, Ohio
Major: Business Management
Date of Birth: 1-5-85

At a glance – First name is pronounced SHE-on … was part of the 2003 freshman class but joined the Buckeyes late and was redshirted … has a bright future … has size and athletic ability (played basketball alongside LeBron James in high school) and should add quality depth to the youthful defensive line in 2004.

High School: Played on both offense and defense in high school … named to the All-Summit County team as both a junior and senior … won first-team all-Ohio honors in Division IV and played in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl … finished his senior season with 84 tackles and 13 sacks, that on the heels of 67 stops and nine sacks as a junior … also a standout basketball player for the nationally-ranked Irish … bench presses 300 pounds.

Personal: Is the son of Lee and Debra Cotton … lists the Cleveland Cavaliers as his favorite professional team … writes music as a hobby … the 2003 Fiesta Bowl is his top football memory from a year ago … would like to be on the OSU rifle team if not playing football for the Buckeyes.

5 Mike D'Andrea

6-3, 248, Jr./Jr.
Linebacker
Avon Lake High School
Avon Lake, Ohio
Major: Consumer Affairs
Date of Birth: 2-7-84

At a glance: Prototype linebacker with size, speed and strength … heads into fall camp as a candidate to start at middle linebacker, but will see extensive action regardless … coaches love his attitude and intensity … one of the Buckeyes' most ferocious hitters and very good on the coverage units … a key component of what many analysts consider the best linebacker corps in the Big Ten … ranks sixth on the team in tackles among returning players.

2003 (Sophomore): Was an integral part of the linebacker rotation through the first 10 games of the season before suffering a separated shoulder against Michigan State and was lost for the remaining three games … totaled 24 tackles, 14 of which were solo … had three tackles behind the line of scrimmage and forced one fumble, that coming on the first play of the fourth quarter vs. San Diego State, setting up a Mike Nugent field goal … saw a season-high 11 minutes of field time vs. San Diego State and played 10 minutes in four other games … had four tackles against Bowling Green, Wisconsin and Iowa … two of his tackles vs. the Hawkeyes were for loss.

2002 (Freshman): Worked his way up the depth chart and by season's end was the backup to All-American Matt Wilhelm … played in 13 games … recorded seven tackles, including four solo tackles … had a season-high three tackles against San Jose State … also forced a fumble in the game that ended a Spartan drive at the OSU 24-yard line just before halftime.

High School: Parade Magazine All-American and rated by Parade as the best prep linebacker in the country … also a first-team USA Today All-America selection … first-team Division II Associated Press All-Ohio selection … SuperPrep rated him as the No. 1 overall linebacker in the country … recorded 140 tackles as a senior and also averaged 15 yards-per-catch as a tight end … also a standout in track, winning the state title in the discus as a junior and in the shot put as both a junior and senior.

50 Doug Datish

6-5, 295, Jr./So.
Offensive Guard
Howland High School
Warren, Ohio
Major: Military History
Date of Birth: 8-1-83

At a glance – Appears to be the successor to three-year starter Adrien Clarke (365 minutes last year) at left guard … redshirted as a freshman and spent last year learning the ropes behind Clarke and right guard Alex Stepanovich … appeared just briefly in four games in 2003 as a member of the field goal unit, but then really established himself this past spring …was considered one of the top high school prospects in the state and has made steady progress the past two years … is "on course" to have an outstanding season in the eyes of offensive coordinator and line coach Jim Bollman … runs well, can pull and has good power … spent the last week of spring practice at center, an experiment that could pay off in the fall in certain situations.

2003 (Freshman): Made his collegiate debut against Washington in the season opener … was a member of the field goal unit from the Penn State game on and played against Indiana, Michigan State and Purdue (the latter a 3-point overtime victory that extended Ohio State's home winning streak to 16) in that capacity.

2002 (Redshirt): Did not see any game action.

High School: One of the top rated linemen in the nation … won first-team All-Ohio honors as a senior … was a standout on both offense and defense and was selected as the Associated Press Division II Co-Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Personal: Is the son of Mike and Susan Datish … his father, who is a fire fighter, played for the Buckeyes in 1975 when OSU posted an 11-1 record and went to a still unprecedented fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl … his mother graduated from Ohio University and is a teacher … has an older sister Kristen … enjoys deer hunting and fishing for walleye … is a World War II buff … favorite president is Franklin Roosevelt.

36 Mike DeMaria

5-9, 200, 5th/Sr.
Tailback
Oregon Cardinal Stritch High School
Oregon, Ohio
Major: Criminology & Sociology
Date of Birth: 7-15-82

At a glance – Walk-on running back who has lettered twice as a member of the special teams … tough, hard-nosed, scrappy competitor … plays a vital role with the scout teams …was making a bid for more playing time last year, but suffered a sprained ankle in fall camp that kept him out of action during the first half of the season … coaches love his attitude and work ethic … is quick and strong and always gives the defense a realistic look … has played in 13 games the past two years … his lifelong dream is to carry the ball in a game for the Buckeyes … is the stuff movies are made of.

2003 (Junior): Ankle sprain in fall camp sidelined him the first half of the season … played in six of the last seven games, logging a total of six minutes with the special teams.

2002 (Sophomore): His first appearance as a Buckeye came against San Jose State in week seven … played in the final seven games of the season, all of his playing time coming with the special teams.

2001 (Freshman): Did not play.

2000 (Redshirted): Made the team as a walk-on, but did not play.

High School: A four-year starter in football … team MVP of his football, wrestling and track squads as a senior … qualified for the state tournament in wrestling as a senior (150-pound weight class) and in track (100-meter dash) as a junior and senior.

Personal: Is the son of James and Karen DeMaria … his father graduated from Ohio State's dental school … has an older brother, Joe, as well as an older sister, Sara … lists Albert Einstein and John Milton as the two people in history he would most like to meet … graduates at the end of winter quarter in 2005 and hopes to go to law school.

72 T.J. (Timothy) Downing

6-5, 305, Jr./So.
Offensive Tackle
GlenOak High School
Canton, Ohio
Major: Family Resource Management
Date of Birth: 3-6-84

At a glance – Threw his hat into the ring in the spring as a possible starter at right tackle, replacing veteran Shane Olivea … will battle Tim Schafer and Kirk Barton for playing time and a starting position in what should be one of the best battles of the fall, all three are talented … the coaches had planned to work him at guard in the spring, but a lack of depth led to a move that now appears to be permanent … played well throughout the spring and was particularly effective in the spring game … a fierce competitor and hard worker … plays quick and has quick hands … is still learning to use his upper body … will be a terrific pass protector once everything comes together … has played a total of two career minutes, but that will change in a hurry this year.

2003 (Freshman): Only appearance of the year came against Washington in the season opener.

2002 (Redshirt): Part of what many considered to be the top freshman class in the country.

High School: A three-year starter at tackle, claiming all-Ohio honors as a senior … was a high school teammate of current Buckeye Dustin Fox.

Personal: Is the son of Walter and Susan Downing … his father was an All-American at Michigan and later played for the San Francisco 49ers and was a member of the team that defeated the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XVI … has one sister, Kristen.

75 Simon Fraser

6-6, 280, Sr./Sr.
Defensive End
Upper Arlington High School
Upper Arlington, Ohio
Major: Criminology
Date of Birth: 3-27-83

At a glance – Anchors the defensive front at the left defensive end position for the 2004 Buckeyes ... is the lone holdover from 2003 on the defensive line and is the most experienced player up front ... a three-year letterman, Fraser is a veteran of 39 games and 14 starts ... has 60 career tackles, 36 of which are solos ... has more sacks (7.5) than any other current Buckeye and is tied for the team lead with linebacker A.J. Hawk with 16.5 career tackles-for-loss ... experience, size, strength and speed make him one of the better all-around ends in the Big Ten ... second only to senior safety Dustin Fox (812) in career minutes played for the returning Buckeyes in 2004 with 528 minutes of field time at OSU ... the top returning offensive player in career minutes played is lineman Robbie Sims with 470 ... is a three-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete selection and a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree.

2003 (Junior): Started 12 of 13 games and recorded 34 tackles in 301 minutes of playing time ... broke up two passes and recorded a pair of tackles in Ohio State's win over Kansas State in Ohio State's second-consecutive appearance in the Fiesta Bowl ... was a stalwart alongside the Buckeyes' dominating defensive front, which included three NFL draftees (Will Smith, Darrion Scott and Tim Anderson) ... recorded a season high with seven tackles in the season-opening win over Washington ... also stopped three plays behind the line of scrimmage and had one sack vs. the Huskies.

2002 (Sophomore): Played behind Will Smith and was the third end ... recorded 20 tackles, including 13 solo tackles ... had seven tackles-for-loss for a total of 32 yards ... also had five sacks, five passes broken up and two fumbles caused ... recorded a key 5-yard sack against Miami in the national championship game ... had a sack – and knocked the ball loose – against Indiana in his first career start ... second forced fumble was the result of a sack of Illinois QB Jon Beutjer late in the fourth quarter in a game that OSU won in overtime ... top effort was three tackles against Kent State, Indiana and Wisconsin.

2001 (Freshman): Played in all 12 games and earned his first varsity letter ... saw action at end and tackle ... finished regular season with six tackles ... had tackles-for-loss against Akron and Penn State and recorded his first collegiate sack against Illinois

High School: First-team Division I Associated Press All-Ohio selection as a junior and senior ... team won the 2000 Division I state championship and posted a perfect 15-0 record ... totaled 130 tackles, 30 sacks, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in 2000 ... 115 tackles and 18 sacks as a junior ... also played basketball and ran track (110 hurdles, shot and discus) ... qualified for the state championship meet as a junior in the shotput.

Personal: Son of Hamish and Marion Fraser ... has two sisters, Ingrid and Kirsten ... his father is a professor at Ohio State and once coached rugby at the University of Illinois ... is an avid hockey fan and has become good friends with Rick Nash of the Columbus Blue Jackets (has occasionally put on skates and skated around with some of the team) ... enjoys playing golf, listening to all types of music and hanging out with his friends ... top visited places are Germany and England ... would like to see Scotland in the future ... highlights in football career are high school state championship in 2000 and NCAA title in 2002 ... favorite Ohio State tradition is all the hype surrounding "Michigan Week" ... would lace up the skates for the OSU hockey team in not playing football.

17 Marcus Freeman

6-2, 230, Fr./Fr.
Linebacker
Wayne High School
Huber Heights, Ohio
Date of Birth: 1-10-86

At a glance – Considered one of the top linebackers in the country coming out of high school ... enrolled at Ohio State at the beginning of Winter Quarter and went through winter conditioning and spring practice ... is a great athlete with outstanding speed ... goes into the fall as the backup to Bobby Carpenter at outside linebacker ... also will play on the special teams ...rated as one of the top three overall prospects in Ohio last year ... a 2004 Parade All-American ... rated as the third best inside linebacker in the country by Prep Football Report ... rated as the 11th best overall linebacker prospect in the nation by TheInsiders.com, which also listed him among their Top 100 overall prospects ... SuperPrep rated him as the 26th best overall prospect in the nation, the fourth best overall prospect in the Midwest (five state region) and the fifth best overall linebacker in the nation ... named second team All-America by USA Today ... credited with 127 tackles, four sacks, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries as a senior ... totaled 152 tackles, including 29 behind the line of scrimmage, and eight sacks as a junior ... a four-year starter and a two-time first-team All-Ohio selection ... also ran track, competing in the 4x100-meter relay and throwing the shot and discus ... current Buckeye wide receiver John Hollins also attended Wayne as did Will Allen, a senior All-American at safety on the 2003 OSU squad.

Personal: Son of Michael and Chong Freeman ... was teammates at Wayne with current Buckeye John Hollins ... would like to have dinner with historical figures Jesus Christ, Malcolm X and Martin Luther King ... favorite Ohio State tradition is the team's locking of arms before the game ... if not on the football, would like to be playing basketball for the Buckeyes.

84 Marcel Frost

6-5, 255, So./Fr.
Defensive End
Lyndhurst Brush High School
South Euclid, Ohio
Undeclared
10/4/84

At a glance – Played both offense and defense in high school but will concentrate on the defensive end position at Ohio State ... heads into fall camp as a contender for playing time at the right defensive end position ... had everyone after him because of his combination of size and speed ... as a prep tight end he was able to stretch a defense with his speed and soft hands ... added size and strength helped him move to the defensive side of the ball ... one of the up-and-coming standouts on the defensive line ... is playing at a very competitive position, but appears to be good enough to contend for playing time.

2003 (Redshirt): Worked out with the scout team at defensive end while sitting out during his first year in Columbus.

High School: Recorded 36 catches for 538 yards and eight touchdowns as a junior ... followed that up with 11 touchdown catches and 62 receptions as a senior ... racked up 1,438 yards on 87 receptions and 232 tackles for his career ... owns school records with 32 career sacks and 43 tackles-for-loss and is tied for the single season record with 12 sacks ... defensive stats include 65 tackles and eight sacks as a junior and 80 tackles and 12 sacks as a senior ... two-time all-conference (2001, 2002), first-team all-district as a senior and a special mention all-state selection ... was a first-team all-conference basketball player as a junior and senior ... he and current Ohio State redshirt sophomore Roy Hall were high school teammates and formed one of the most dangerous receiving tandems in Ohio.

Personal: Son of LaMar and Debbie Frost ... has one younger sister, Jazmyne ... lists winning back-to-back conference championships in basketball as his biggest sports thrill to date.

50 Vernon Gholston

6-4, 250, Fr./Fr.
Defensive Lineman
Cass Technical High School
Detroit, Mich.
Date of Birth: 6-5-86

At a glance – Rated as one of the best defensive prospects in the Midwest as a senior ... a dominant linebacker at Cass Tech but is expected to move to the defensive line at Ohio State in order to take advantage of his size and speed ... rated as the 18th best outside linebacker in the nation by Prep Football Report ... rated as the 38th best overall linebacker in the nation by TheInsiders.com ... Rivals.com rated him as the 11th best weak-side defensive end in the nation ... totaled 75 tackles and six sacks as a senior from his outside linebacker and defensive end positions ... runs a sub-4.5 in the 40 and should be a sensational pass rusher ... currently the only player on the Ohio State roster from "that state up north" ... at a position where the Buckeyes have excellent depth, but in recent years it has not been unusual for freshmen D-linemen to play.

Personal: Is the son of Cheryl Gholston.

7 Ted Ginn Jr.

6-0, 170, Fr./Fr.
Defensive Back
Glenville High School
Cleveland, Ohio
Date of Birth: 4-12-85

At a glance – The latest in a recent line of outstanding student-athletes from Glenville who have decided to wear scarlet and gray … perhaps the most sought after defensive back prospect in the nation last year … is expected to vie immediately for playing time, either at cornerback or with the special teams … has great cover skills and outstanding speed … played for his father, Ted Ginn Sr., in high school and is well schooled in every aspect of the game … was selected as the USA Today Defensive Player of the Year … also a 2004 Parade All-American … SuperPrep named him as their 2004 National Defensive Player of the Year … Prep Football Report rated him as the third best overall prospect in the nation and the top defensive prospect … Rivals.com rated him as the top overall prospect in Ohio and the second best player in the country …was named the Most Valuable Player of the U.S. Army All-America game … also played quarterback, wide receiver and running back for Glenville and returned punts and kickoffs … as a senior, picked off eight passes and returned five of them for touchdowns … one of his interception returns went for a state-record 102-yard touchdown, while another went for a 97-yard score … also passed for 932 yards and 12 touchdowns and rushed for 845 yards and 17 touchdowns … named one of Ohio's three 2003 Division I Offensive Players of the Year … returned four punts and one kickoff for touchdowns … the national champion in the 110 high hurdles as a junior and the best time in the nation as a senior when he won the state title for the second consecutive year … has been timed at 10.5 seconds in the 100 meter dash.

Personal: Is the son of Ted Sr. and Jeanette Ginn … was a teammate at Glenville with current Buckeyes Dareus Hiley, Donte Whitner, Troy Smith and fellow signee Curtis Terry.

11 Anthony Gonzalez

6-0, 200, So./Fr.
Flanker
St. Ignatius High School
Cleveland, Ohio
Major: Undeclared
Date of Birth: 9-18-84

At a glance – Has excellent speed and an exceptional burst off the line of scrimmage … is deceptively quick and catches the ball naturally … could also see action returning kickoffs … looks to make an impact as a redshirt freshman for the Buckeye offense in 2004 … helped lead the Scarlet squad to victory in the 2004 spring game, totaling five catches for 63 yards … slowed by nagging hamstring injuries during 2004 spring practice but is high on the coaches' list of up-and-coming players … an OSU Scholar-Athlete.

2003 (Redshirted): Redshirted and did not see any game action, but was impressive on the offensive scout team … named the offensive scout team player of the week following the Penn State game.

High School: Excelled on both offense and defense … led St. Ignatius to the state championship as a junior, earning MVP honors … totaled 71 catches for 1,873 yards and 21 touchdowns in his high school career and as a senior set a St. Ignatius single-season record for average yards per catch (27.3) … earned first team All-Ohio honors as a senior and was named the Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Personal: Is the son of Eduardo and Jenna Gonzalez … father is a steelworker and mother is a schoolteacher … has a younger sister, Christina (17) and two older brothers who were both collegiate student-athletes—Nick (24) played baseball at UNC-Greensboro and Joe (22) played football at Indiana … favorite pro sports team is the Cleveland Cavaliers … favorite childhood memory is playing summer league baseball … favorite football memory is winning the 2001 Ohio Division I state championship.

94 Marcus Green

6-3, 290, Sr./Jr.
Defensive Tackle
Male High School
Louisville, Ky.
Major: Consumer Affairs
Date of Birth: 9-27-83

At a glance – Vastly improved young player who played behind Darrion Scott in 2003 … always gave great effort … 22-game veteran … moved to the top of the depth chart at left tackle during the spring … has 109 minutes of game experience … stabilizes a young defensive line.

2003 (Sophomore): Finished the season with 15 tackles and had a forced fumble against Northwestern … played in 11 games (all but Washington and Indiana) and started against Northwestern and Wisconsin when Scott was hurt … had a career-high seven tackles against Northwestern … had two tackles against San Diego State and two more against N.C. State… lost 30 pounds between the end of 2002 and the beginning of this 2003.

2002 (Freshman): Played in 11 games … made his collegiate debut in the season opener against Texas Tech … longest stint of the year was five minutes against Kent State the following week … played a total of 25 minutes during his rookie campaign … lone two tackles of the year came against Kent … did not play against Washington State, Cincinnati and Northwestern.

2001 (Redshirt): Joined a veteran, experienced Ohio State defensive line unit and was redshirted while practicing and learning the Buckeye defense.

High School: First-team Division I Associated Press All-Kentucky selection on offense and second-team selection on defense … played both offensive and defensive tackle in high school … first-team All-Louisville Courier-Journal All-Star selection … had 80 tackles and 10 sacks as a senior.

Personal: Is the son of Bill and Linda Green … has four siblings, William, Corey, Justin and Jaysuma … movie favorites include the five Rocky features … favorite professional athlete is Warren Sapp … best memory from 2003 is his first career start vs. Northwestern … the team rendition of Carmen Ohio following games is his top OSU tradition … would be playing basketball at OSU if not on the football team.

Split End
Lyndhurst Brush High School
Cleveland, Ohio
Major: Accounting
Date of Birth: 12-8-83

At a glance – Heads into the fall as the starter at split end, taking over for the graduated Michael Jenkins, who left as Ohio State's career receiving yardage leader with 2,898 yards … spent the 2003 season as Jenkins' understudy, but still played in all 13 games … joins returning starter Santonio Holmes to give Ohio State what many analysts consider one of the top young receiving tandems in the Big Ten … talented special teams player … blocked a punt in the 2004 spring game and returned it 41 yards … is very physical and has tight end size but wide receiver speed ... solid young player with loads of talent ... a two-time OSU Scholar-Athlete.

2003 (Freshman): Saw action in all 13 games ... finished the season with six receptions for 69 yards and an average of 11.5 yards per catch ... against Iowa, blocked a Hawkeye punt inside the 5-yard line that Donte Whitner recovered in the end zone to give the Buckeyes a 17-3 lead in the third quarter ... had one reception in six different games ... season-long catch was 18 yards against both Washington and Michigan State ... also had catches against Bowling Green, Northwestern, Indiana and Michigan ... awarded Ohio State's Jack Tatum Hit of the Week Award by the coaching staff following the San Diego State game thanks to a monster block on a Buckeye kickoff return.

2002 (Redshirted): Redshirted and did not see any game action ... OSU coaches named him the scout team offensive player of the week twice and the scout team special units player of the week twice.

High School: Won first-team all-state honors as a senior after hauling in 62 receptions for 700 yards ... caught 42 passes as a sophomore, but missed much of his junior year with a sprained ankle and had 17 receptions that year ... also played basketball and won first-team all-state honors as a junior and as a senior.

Personal: Is the son of Roy Sr. and Sonya Hall ... has one sister, Sonya (19), who is a sophomore at Ohio State ... favorite pro sports team is the Cleveland Browns ... favorite pro receiver is David Boston ... if he had a million dollars he would buy whatever his mother asked for.

Tight End
Carrollton High School
Carrollton, Ohio
Date of Birth: 1-13-86

At a glance – Excelled at both tight end and linebacker in high school, but is expected to concentrate on the former in college … at a position where the Buckeyes lack depth and overall experience, so will get a long look in the fall … rated as the 19th best tight end in the country by Prep Football Report … Rivals.com rated him as the third best tight end in the country and the 30th best overall prospect in the Midwest (five state area) … rated as the fourth best tight end in the nation by TheInsiders.com … is as tough as he is talented (played with broken fibula senior season) … was selected All-Ohio three times … owned Carrollton's career tackles record by the end of his junior season … as a junior, caught 13 passes for 230 yards and three touchdowns and totaled 101 tackles, three sacks and 10 tackles-for-loss … as a sophomore, caught 27 passes for close to 500 yards … was coached at Carrollton by Ohio State graduates Barry Goettemoeller and Kirk Lowdermilk … ran the 200-meter dash in track and also threw the shot put and discus … also played basketball.

Personal: Is the son of Michele Hoobler.

23 Josh Huston

6-1, 195, 5th/Sr.
Kicker/Punter
Findlay High School
Findlay, Ohio
Major: Marketing
Date of Birth: 2-28-82

At a glance – Heads into the fall as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter and No. 2 place-kicker … coming off an impressive spring effort in which he excelled in both areas … battled incoming freshman A.J. Trapasso in the spring and emerged with a slight edge in the battle to replace Ray Guy Award winner B.J. Sander as the Buckeyes' punter … has a strong leg and gets great height on his punts … also an extremely accurate place-kicker and is an invaluable backup to All-American Mike Nugent … could spell Nugent on kickoffs from time to time … hopes to follow in the footsteps of All-American Andy Groom in 2002 and Sander last year and have his best year as a senior … worked very hard last spring.

2003 (Junior): Was the backup to Nugent for placements, but did not see any game action.

2002 (Sophomore): Expected to handle all the kickoff responsibilities and backup Nugent on field goals and extra points, but wound up missing the season with a hip injury.

2001 (Freshman): Alternated early-on with Nugent and then settled into a backup role … finished the season with 18 points, hitting all nine of his extra point attempts and three of 10 field goal tries … had a 44-yard field goal against Wisconsin and had plenty of leg on a 48-yard attempt against the Badgers that sailed wide to the right … made both field goal attempts in a win over Indiana … kicked off most of the year.

2000 (Redshirt): Redshirted as a true freshman.

High School: Won first-team All-Ohio honors as a junior and was considered one of the top kicking prospects in the Midwest as a senior … 67 of his 79 kickoff went through the end zone … 43-yard field goal as a senior was his top effort.

Personal: Is the son of Denny and Janet Huston … plays the acoustic guitar (he taught himself how to play).

6-0, 235, 5th/Sr.
Fullback
Westerville South High School
Westerville, Ohio
Major: Consumer Affairs
Date of Birth: 10-12-81

At a glance – Bruising runner and blocker who can play either fullback or tailback … will spend most of his time at the former, but could also line up at the latter in short-yardage and goal-line situations, especially in a one-back set … came to Ohio State as a tailback, but was moved to fullback as a freshman … has spent his career there, but did play some tailback late last year … had just one career carry prior to last season, but carried the ball 27 times in 2003 and wound up with 99 yards and an average of 3.7 yards per carry … had his best game against Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl rushing 11 times for 46 yards, both of which represent career highs … tore a pectoral muscle in his chest while lifting weights prior to the start of last season and missed the first four games … returned to action against Northwestern in the fifth week of the season, but did not really return to form until late October … has appeared in 33 games, made nine starts and has rushed 28 times for an even 100 yards.

2003 (Junior): Was expected to start at fullback, but tore his pectoral muscle while lifting weights in the summer and missed most all of the first seven games (playing a total of five minutes in those games) … had 28 yards against Michigan State, the best effort of his career until the Fiesta Bowl.

2002 (Sophomore): Played in 13 games and started six times … shared the fullback duties with Brandon Schnittker … made his first career start against Washington State and had his first career carry against Cincinnati (a 1-yard gain).

2001 (Freshman): Played in 12 games, mostly with the special teams … was one of the backups behind Jamar Martin.

2000 (Redshirt): Switched from tailback to fullback … slowed by a shoulder injury in the fall making it an easy decision to redshirt him.

High School: Standout linebacker and running back … won first-team All-Ohio recognition as a senior … also a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America.

Personal: Is the son of Vicki Joe and Marvin and Ramona Joe … has an older sister, Brandi, and a younger brother, Blake … enjoys rap music and likes to relax by playing basketball and video games … lists Bo Jackson as the athlete he most admires … favorite childhood memory is going fishing with his grandfather.

Personal: Is the son of Bill and Susan Kerr … has four siblings, Bill, Luke (played football at Bowling Green), Josh and Katie … biggest risk he has taken to date was leaving Indiana for Ohio State … if he were not playing football, might be found playing baseball for the Buckeyes … hopes to travel to Cancun someday … favorite president is Ronald Reagan.

52 Mike Kne

6-4, 303, 5th/Sr.
Offensive Guard
St. Ignatius High School
Cleveland, Ohio
Major: Human Development/Family Sciences
Date of Birth: 9-19-81

At a glance – Reserve lineman who has seen extensive action the past two years and is highly regarded because of his versatility … employed primarily as a backup tackle during the 2002 and 2003 seasons (behind Shane Olivea) and recorded most of his playing time in short-yardage and goal-line situations when the Buckeyes used an extra lineman … was moved to guard last spring, however, and is expected to be the starter on the right side in 2004 … was not recruited by Ohio State in high school and originally enrolled at Fordham, where he started as a freshman and led the team in number of plays … transferred to Ohio State (where he had always dreamed of playing) after the 2000 season and sat out the 2001 campaign … quickly made an impact once he became eligible and has played in 21 games the past two years, lettering both of those years … has played guard and tackle since coming to Ohio State and could play both positions again this year if needed … is a hard worker and great competitor.

2003 (Junior): Converted to scholarship in the fall … played in 10 games … was hampered late in the season with an ankle sprain that kept him out of the Michigan State, Michigan and Kansas State games … started the Northwestern game for his first start as a Buckeye.

2002 (Sophomore): Was in the right place at the right time … made a favorable impression early and wound up playing in 11 games … most of his action came when the Buckeyes went to a third tackle in their "jumbo" look … earned his first letter.

2001 (Transfer): Sat out in accordance with NCAA rules, but was permitted to practice.

2000 (Freshman): Enrolled at Fordham and was a starter.

High School: Played defense his first three years before moving to offense as a senior and breaking into the starting lineup … St. Ignatius won the state title his senior year and posted a 13-2 record.

Personal: Is the son of Tom and Joan Kne … his older brother, Tom, played football at Baldwin-Wallace College … a younger sister, Sarah, attends Indiana … enjoys fishing and playing golf (his best round is a 79) … favorite childhood memory is going on vacation with his family to Lake Erie … enjoys history and art and would like to someday visit Paris … career goal is to become a middle school teacher.

5-11, 220, 5th/Sr.
Tailback
Columbus Eastmoor High School
Columbus, Ohio
Major: Communication
Date of Birth: 10-20-81

At a glance – Walk-on running back with power and speed … can play tailback or fullback, but has seen most of his action at the former as a member of the scout team … strong inside runner who will lower his pads and fight for extra yards … always gets high marks from the coaching staff for the realistic look he gives the defense … also helps out as a member of the special teams … has played in two games during his career – one last year and the other in 2002 … did have a rushing attempt in 2002 … coming off a solid spring and hopes to see more playing time this year and earn his first varsity letter … originally enrolled at Ashland and played there as a freshman before transferring to Ohio State … has worked hard to show he can play at this level.

2003 (Junior): Only appearance was against Washington in the season opener.

2002 (Sophomore): Made his collegiate debut against San Jose State and had a 6-yard run from scrimmage.

2001 (Redshirt): Sat out the season after transferring from Ashland College.

2000 (Freshman): Played regularly as a freshman and was a part-time starter at Ashland … transferred to Ohio State at the end of the season.

High School: A three-year starter at defensive back and a two-year regular at tailback … named to the all-city team and was an all-district selection … also ran track and played basketball … from the same high school as Ohio State's two-time All-American Archie Griffin.

Personal: Is the son of Robert and Mattie Parker … has three older siblings, a brother, Robert Jr., and sisters, Yalonda and Yalynda … enjoys reading, particularly sports biographies … plays the trumpet and admires Charlie Parker … calls his first game in Ohio Stadium his greatest thrill.

6-3, 285, So./So.
Defensive Line
Warrensville Heights High School
Warrensville Heights, Ohio
Major: History
Date of Birth: 2-11-85

At a glance – Another of several young defensive linemen who will get their shot at significant playing time in 2004 … made a place for himself as a true freshman at one of the Buckeyes' deepest positions and enjoyed an outstanding rookie campaign … moved up to the No. 2 spot at defensive end behind Simon Fraser prior to the 2003 Fiesta Bowl … remained in great shape after showing up for his rookie camp ready to compete physically … enters fall camp in the No. 2 spot at left tackle.

2003 (Freshman): Played in the season opener against Washington and made an immediate statement by recording his first collegiate sack … played in 11 games and was credited with seven tackles, including a pair of sacks … also had a fumble recovery in the win over San Diego State … saw a career high of six minutes of field time in the win over Northwestern.

High School: Won first-team All-Ohio honors in Division II and was the Associated Press District Defensive Player of the Year … a three-year starter on both sides of the ball … had 98 tackles, including 25 tackles-for-loss and 17 sacks as a senior … also blocked three kicks … 120 tackles and 16 sacks as a junior … ranked as the nation's seventh-best defensive tackle prospect by Rivals.com … rated as the sixth-best overall prospect in the Midwest by SuperPrep.

Personal: Is the son of Leesa Patterson …has one sister, Devin … Miami, Fla., is the most interesting place he has visited to day but would like to travel to Africa someday … grew up playing baseball, which he lists as his top childhood memory … the Fiesta Bowl win in 2003 was top memory of a year ago … "The Hive" where OSU players lock arms during pregame is his favorite OSU tradition … would be on the OSU baseball diamond of not on the gridiron for the Buckeyes.

Offensive Line
Xenia High School
Xenia, Ohio
Date of Birth: 4-14-86

At a glance – Comes to Ohio State amid glowing reviews … considered one of the top offensive linemen in the country coming out of high school … repeatedly rang the bells of defensive linemen with his dominant run blocking … started at left tackle as a junior and senior and did not allow a sack either year … graded out to better than 80 percent as a senior in terms of blocking efficiency … committed early to the Buckeyes and was a drawing card for a number of other players in his class … has all the physical tools and is tough and competitive … expected to play tackle for the Buckeyes, but runs well enough to play guard at the collegiate level … ranked as the third-best prospect in the state by Ohio High and No. 8 by The Ohio Football Recruiting News … also ranked as the 17th-best offensive lineman prospect by TheInsiders.com … Rivals.com ranked him as the 10th-best offensive guard in the nation and as the eighth best prospect in the state of Ohio … listed by SuperPrep as the 25th-best prospect in the Midwest and the 35th-best offensive line prospect … listed as the eighth-best offensive guard by Tom Lemming.

Personal: Is the son of Donald and Cheryl Person.

90 Quinn Pitcock

6-3, 295, Jr./So.
Defensive Tackle
Piqua High School
Piqua, Ohio
Major: Business
Date of Birth: 9-14-83

At a glance – Expected to be the starter at defensive tackle, replacing ironman Tim Anderson on the right side … was a key reserve last year, appearing in all 13 games and recording his first career start … logged a total of 106 minutes in 2003, seeing action at both end and tackle … is a physical player, very much in the stead of Anderson … wound up the 2003 campaign with a very respectable 17 tackles … coming off a very productive spring… expected to carry on the tradition of quality defensive line play after the departure of three NFL draftees a year ago … relentless player who is driven to excel.

2003 (Freshman): Saw time in all 13 games and recorded one start vs. Northwestern at defensive end … season high for minutes played was 16 in the home win over Iowa … also played double-digit minutes against San Diego State (11), Northwestern (12), Wisconsin (11) and Indiana (13) … totaled 106 minutes in first season on the field for the Buckeyes … finished the year with 17 tackles, and led non-starters with five tackles-for-loss (16 yds.) and three sacks (10 yds.) … top game was a six-tackle effort against Iowa, including 2.5 tackles-for-loss and a sack … added depth to the defensive line, allowing the coaches to rotate players in and out without losing any quality.

2002 (Redshirt): Used his first year at Ohio State to develop strength, size and agility while practicing with the Buckeyes.

High School: A first-team All-Ohio pick as a junior and senior … also named to a second-team spot on the USA Today All-America team … led Piqua to a berth in the state playoffs and a 12-3 record as a senior … threw the shot and discus for three years and went to the state finals all three years … from the same high school as Matt Finkes, a starting defensive end on Ohio State's 1996 Rose Bowl team.

Personal: Is the son of Michael and Janey Pitcock … has one brother, Jafe … hobbies include working with computers and riding dirt bikes and motorcycles … enjoys all sports … his grandfather, Phil Edwards, played football at Miami (Ohio) … math and science are two of his favorite subjects … appreciates the way Ohio State fans travel to away games … favorite OSU tradition is singing Carmen Ohio following games … would be with the OSU track team as a thrower if not playing football for the Buckeyes … fondest memory of 2003 is the win over Iowa and favorite road trip to date is the 2003 Fiesta Bowl win over Kansas State.

Lakota West High School
West Chester, Ohio
Date of Birth: 8-6-85

At a glance – Talented and mammoth young offensive lineman, who graduated from high school in December and enrolled at Ohio State at the beginning of Winter Quarter ... took part in winter conditioning and spring practice ... has made a smooth transition from high school to college and clearly benefited from going through spring ball ... is the biggest of Ohio State's offensive linemen, but is surprisingly mobile for his size and has impressed the coaches with his agility and footwork ... very difficult to get around due to his size and quickness ... has noticeably improved his strength and technique in the short time he has been at Ohio State ... could be in the hunt for playing time in the fall ... rated as the 15th-best prospect in Ohio by The Ohio Football Recruiting News ... Rivals.com ranked him as the 29th-best offensive tackle prospect in the nation and as the 15th best overall prospect in the state of Ohio ... SuperPrep listed him as the 48th-best prospect in the Midwest.

Personal: Is the son of Bob and Eileen Rehring ... has one older brother, Joe ... if he didn't play football, he would like to play collegiate hockey.

99 Jay Richardson

6-6, 270, Jr./So.
Defensive End
Dublin Scioto High School
Dublin, Ohio
Major: African American Studies
Date of Birth: 1-27-84

At a glance – Served as a backup to Ohio State's daunted 2003 defensive front at the defensive end position ... improved strength, speed and size as a redshirt freshman in 2002 ... returned to the field a year ago ... played in five games ... in two spring games as a Buckeye, Richardson has 7.5 tackles, which includes a sack and three tackles-for-loss ... demonstrated big-play potential and should get an opportunity to demonstrate those abilities on Saturdays this fall ... fans will see him primarily at the left defensive end position in 2004 along with senior Simon Fraser.

2003 (Freshman): Played a career-high five minutes in the season opener vs. Washington, which he lists as his favorite memory of his freshman campaign ... also saw action vs. Bowling Green, Indiana, Penn State and Michigan State.

2002 (Redshirt): Spent the season following a decorated high school career in the weight room improving his conditioning, strength and knowledge of the OSU defensive schemes.

High School: Selected for first team All-Ohio honors as a senior after leading Dublin Scioto to a 10-2 record ... a total of 43 of his 73 tackles as a senior were for losses ... also played tight end, leading the league in touchdown receptions as a senior ... on the basketball court, Richardson averaged seven blocks a game as a senior ... played three seasons of basketball, earning all-district honors in 2001.

24 Mike Roberts

5-11, 185, Jr./So.
Cornerback
Central Tech High School
Toronto, Ontario
Major: Criminology
Date of Birth: 9-16-83

At a glance – Solid young player in the Buckeye defensive backfield … had three tackles, all solo stops, in the 2004 spring game in helping lead the Scarlet squad to a 13-0 win … has good speed and quickness … has shown the potential to be a valuable special teams contributor in 2004 … has battled several injuries thus far in his OSU career.

2003 (Freshman): Did not see any game action, but was impressive on the scout team … was named the defensive scout team player of the week following the San Diego State game.

2002 (Redshirted): Enrolled in the spring and took part in spring drills … was redshirted in the fall.

High School: Was a standout performer as a junior and considered one of the top prospects in Canada … attended Ohio State's summer camp and was offered a scholarship … did not play high school football as a senior because of a teachers' strike at his high school and instead played for the Toronto Thunder, a club team … had seven interceptions for the Thunder.

Personal: Parents are Raymond and Jacqueline Roberts … has one brother, Clive (24), who ran track at Central Michigan University … favorite pro athlete is Deion Sanders. … favorite childhood memory is winning the PeeWee football championship … favorite pro sports team is the Chicago Bears.

30 Lydell Ross

6-0, 225, Sr./Sr.
Tailback
Gaither High School
Tampa, Fla.
Major: Communication
Date of Birth: 12-14-83

At a glance – Former Ohio State Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George is his favorite athlete and he would like nothing more than to have a George-like year in his last go-around with the Buckeyes … has the size, speed and vision to be an outstanding back … has been a key reserve and sometimes starter the past two years and now appears to be the No. 1 tailback heading into the 2004 campaign … finished the 2003 season with 826 yards and 10 touchdowns on 193 carries even though he was hampered much of the first half of the season by a turf toe and pulled groin muscle … healthy, or at least healthier, in the second half of the year, he rushed for 585 yards and five touchdowns in the final six games … recorded three 100-yard games in that stretch – including a personal high of 167 at Indiana – and was the leading rusher in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl with 82 yards on 20 carries against a good Kansas State defense … average 20 carries per game in the Buckeyes final six games … his number of carries, total yards, yards per carry and touchdowns have increased each year … has rushed for 1,864 yards and 22 touchdowns during his career … also a fine receiver with 25 career receptions … is bigger, stronger, faster and healthier than he has ever been as heads into the 2004 campaign.

2003 (Junior): Led the Buckeyes in rushing with 826 yards and was second in scoring (10 touchdowns for 60 points) and all-purpose yards (920) … put together a string of three consecutive 100-yard games against Indiana (167), Penn State (110) and Michigan State (125) … longest run of the year was 35 yards against MSU … had three touchdowns against Indiana.

2002 (Sophomore): The No. 2 tailback … played in all 14 games in the Buckeyes run to the national championship … started the Cincinnati, Minnesota and Illinois games when starter Maurice Clarett was out with injuries … had a season-high 130 yards in the win over the Bearcats and scored a pair of touchdowns in the Minnesota contest … sparked the Buckeyes at Northwestern, coming off the bench to net 83 yards on 18 carries against a fired-up Wildcat defense.

2001 (Freshman): Worked his way up to No. 2 on the depth chart behind Jonathan Wells … became the youngest back in Big Ten history to top the 100-yard mark in a game, rushing for 124 yards at Indiana at the tender age of 17 (at the time, he was just the third OSU back to rush for 100 yards in a game along with Archie Griffin and Robert Smith) … had a career-long run of 51 yards against San Diego State, breaking a tackle at the line of scrimmage, sidestepping a linebacker, juking out two more defenders and then racing into the end zone.

High School: First-team All-Florida and a Super Prep All-American … one of the top high school prospects in the country … rushed for 2,676 yards and 28 touchdowns on 355 carries as a senior, in the process becoming the leading rusher in Hillsboro County history … voted Hillsboro County Player of the Year as both a junior and senior.

Personal: Is the son of Melvin and Francine Ross … has two brothers, Derrik and Jason, and a sister, Crystal … his father played football at Indiana … lists his father as the person he most admires … his favorite memory at Ohio State is his first TD in Ohio Stadium (9-yard run against Northwestern).

Offensive Tackle
Upper Arlington High School
Upper Arlington, Ohio
Major: Criminology
Date of Birth: 7-10-83

At a glance – Heads into the fall bracketed with T.J. Downing at right tackle in a three-way competition that also includes Kirk Barton … is the most experienced of the three candidates and the only letter winner in the group … played, albeit briefly, in eight games last year for a total of 10 minutes, but almost all of that time was as a member of the field goal unit … came to Ohio State as a defensive lineman, but was moved to offense in the fall of 2003 … made significant strides last year, especially as a run blocker … an intelligent player who spends a great deal of time in film study.

2003 (Freshman): Moved from defensive tackle (where there was tremendous depth) to the offensive side of the ball (where there was a lack of numbers) …appeared in eight games and was awarded his first varsity letter …only game action in a scrimmage situation was against Washington and Indiana.

2002 (Redshirt): Recruited as a defensive end, but was moved to defensive tackle soon after reporting to fall camp and spent the fall with the scout team.

High School: First-team All-Ohio as a senior … he and current Buckeye Simon Fraser were teammates at Upper Arlington when the Golden Bears won the state title and posted an unblemished 15-0 mark.

Personal: Is the son of Richard and Charlotte Schafer (his father is an Ohio State graduate and his mother graduated from Miami of Ohio) … has an older sister, Jenny, and brother, Brian, and a younger sister, Mindy … ventured into a bull ring on an eighth-grade class trip to Costa Rica – and lived to tell about it … the Friday team meal at the OSU Golf Course is one of his favorite parts of the Ohio State game experience … would like to go to law school and possibly get into law enforcement.

6-4, 310, Jr./Jr.
Offensive Tackle
Nordonia High School
Macedonia, Ohio
Major: Communication
Date of Birth: 12-6-83

At a glance – One of two returning starters on the offensive line and one of five holdovers on the offensive side of the ball ... will be in his second year as a starter on the left side and should be one of the top tackles in the Big Ten in 2004 ... is the Buckeyes most experienced offensive lineman with 24 games and 17 starts under his belt ... logged an iron-man like 317 minutes last year ... quick, strong and smart and understands how to play the position ... effective pass blocker because of his footwork and agility ... gives up very few of sacks ... played a vital role as a true freshman in the Buckeyes run to the 2002 national championship, appearing in 11 games – with five starts, including the championship game – and providing some much-needed depth along the offensive front.

2003 (Sophomore): Figured to share time with incumbent senior Ivan Douglas, but took over as the starter when Douglas was sidelined with health problems ... started 12 of 13 games (all but the Fiesta Bowl, where senior Bryce Bishop got the nod in his final appearance as a Buckeye) ... played well throughout the season and was one of the Buckeyes' most consistent performers ... played at least 23 minutes in 11 of the 13 games and wound up averaging 24 minutes a game.

2002 (Freshman): More than answered the challenge when the Buckeyes were searching for a few good men to fortify the depth on the offensive line ... quickly worked his way into the two-deep as the backup to Douglas on the left side ... made his collegiate debut against Kent State, playing six minutes in the second game of the season ... got his first start three weeks later against Indiana when Douglas was sidelined with an ankle sprain ... played 29 minutes against the Hoosiers ... also started against San Jose State, Illinois and Penn State games ... turned in an impressive 36 minutes in the Penn State game and held his own against the Nittany Lions' Jimmy Kennedy ... did not play against Texas Tech, Washington State and Wisconsin.

High School: A first-team All-Ohio selection at tackle as a senior ... started at guard as a sophomore and junior before moving to tackle his last year ... also earned three letters in basketball and two in track ... finished fourth in the state in the shot put as a senior.

Personal: Is the son of Brenda and Mickey Sims ... his mother, who is a graduate of Hartford, is a teacher, and his father, who graduated from South Carolina State and played for the Cleveland Browns from 1977-to 1979, is a police officer ... has a younger sister, Robyn (14), who is on her school's track team ... lists former Ohio State All-America Orlando Pace as his favorite professional player ... always one of the best-dressed players on the squad and takes great pleasure in his sartorial splendor on game day ... relaxes by going to the movies (Any Given Sunday is his favorite).

The Coaching Staff

Head Coach Jim Tressel

Fourth season, Baldwin Wallace, 1975

Jim Tressel has built Ohio State into a national contender almost overnight. Now in his fourth year with the Buckeyes, his resume in Columbus includes an overall record of 32-7, an unbeaten season, a Big Ten co-championship, a national championship, a 19-game winning streak, two victories in as many tries in BCS games and national coach-of-the-year recognition.

Named as the Buckeyes 22nd head coach on Jan. 18, 2001, Tressel led his first Buckeye squad to a 7-5 record that included a dramatic road win over archrival Michigan in the regular-season finale and a berth in the Outback Bowl. In 2002, Ohio State literally came from out of nowhere to capture the school's, and the Big Ten's, first consensus national title since 1968. The Buckeyes achieved the elusive title by posting a 13-0 regular-season record and then upsetting top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3 in a 31-24 double-overtime thriller.

Tressel was showered with accolades following the 2002 campaign. He was named National Coach of the Year by the America Football Coaches Association (an award he won three times at Division 1-AA Youngstown State), thus becoming the first person in the history of the AFCA to win that honor at two different schools. He also received the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award from the Football Writers Association of America. Additionally, Tressel was selected as the Bobby Dodd and the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year. He also was the choice of the Touchdown Club of Columbus and the Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. as National Coach of the Year.

During the 2003 season, Tressel led the Buckeyes to an 11-2 record and their second consecutive appearance in a BCS bowl game, where OSU defeated Big XII champion Kansas State in a return visit to the desert and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Buckeyes began the 2003 campaign by winning their first five games and stretching their winning streak to 19 games, the second longest streak in school history.

Tressel, who spent 15 seasons as the head coach at Youngstown State prior to coming to Ohio State, owns a lifetime record of 167-64-2 in 18 years. His 32-7 record at Ohio State includes a 19-5 ledger in Big Ten play. With a 35-6 win at Indiana in 2003, Tressel went 100 games over .500 in terms of wins and losses.

Since coming to Ohio State, Tressel has posted an impressive record of 14-4 against Top 25 teams, including a 5-1 mark against Top 10 squads. And if the sign of a good coach is winning the close ones, Tressel – with a 15-5 record in games decided by a touchdown or less while at Ohio State – has few peers.

Tressel originally signed a five-year contract at Ohio State that would have taken him through the 2005 season. Following the 2002 season, he was given a new contract that runs through 2008 and may be extended for an additional three years.

"Ohio State is one of the great institutions of higher learning in this country and I am enormously proud to be the head football coach here," said Tressel upon signing his new contract. "I look forward to spending at least the next six years here and working hard to accomplish the goals that we have set for this team and our student-athletes."

At Youngstown State, Tressel was one of the most respected Division 1-AA coaches in America. His years there were ripe with success, the Penguins winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division 1-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at YSU, he compiled an overall record of 135-57-2 and was a four-time pick as the Division 1-AA National Coach of the Year.

But making the jump to Ohio State was not a difficult decision for Tressel. His Buckeye roots run deep.

His father, the late Lee Tressel, played, albeit briefly, at Ohio State before his promising collegiate career was cut short by World War II. As a youth, Jim grew up shagging balls for Cleveland Browns' great Lou "The Toe" Groza who also attended Ohio State. Both the elder Tressel, who would go on to become a coaching legend at Baldwin Wallace College in northeastern Ohio, and Groza, a family friend and neighbor, were lifelong Ohio State fans, a feeling not lost on the younger Tressel.

That bond grew even stronger in 1983 when Jim, in the infancy of his own coaching career, was named quarterbacks and receivers coach at Ohio State. During a memorable three-year stay in Columbus, the Buckeyes won 27 games, captured the 1984 Big Ten Championship and played in the Fiesta, Rose and Citrus bowls.

Following the 1985 season, Tressel, at age 33, left Ohio State to become head coach at Youngstown State. In addition to capturing four national titles, the Penguins also appeared in two other championship games.

Additionally, five of Tressel's teams won 12 or more games in a season, including his 1994 championship squad, which fashioned a 14-0-1 record. His 1991, '92, '93 and '94 teams all played in the national championship tilt, becoming just the second Division 1-AA school

Led Youngstown State to the 1991, '93, '94 and '97 Division 1-AA National Championships, 6 appearances in the Division I-AA National Championship Game, 10 appearances in the 1-AA playoffs, and a playoff record of 23-6 and 12 winning seasons.

COACHING FAMILY: His father, Lee Tressel, compiled a career record of 155-52-6 at Baldwin Wallace and won the 1978 Division III National Championship. An older brother, Dick Tressel, coached at Hamline University in Minnesota between 1978 and 2000 and compiled a record of 124-102-2 in 23 seasons. That gives the Tressel family an all-time record of 446-218-10, for a winning percentage of .666. Lee and Jim are the only father-and-son combination ever to win national championships.

THE MAN: Away from football, Tressel enjoys reading, spending time with his family and being involved in the community.

The sweatervest has become a Tressel trademark.

to make four-consecutive appearances in the title game.

Tressel was selected as National Coach of the Year in 1991, '93, '94 and '97. When he left Youngstown State, he was the second-most successful coach in school history, trailing only Dwight "Dike" Beede, who amassed 147 wins in a 32-year span.

Equally impressive was the showing of the Youngstown State team in the classroom, where during his last two years a total of 67 players achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or better during the fall semester.

Tressel also was deeply involved in the Youngstown community, taking an active leadership role in a number of key civic issues and working extensively with Ronald McDonald's Children's Charities and the Salvation Army. His genuine concern for the people of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley area made him a community icon.

"Our goal will be to uphold and build upon the great tradition that is Ohio State, and to develop each of our student-athletes to their fullest potential both on and off the field," Tressel said upon accepting the position at Ohio State. "We will stress academics, athletics and community responsibility. The two greatest days in our student-athletes lives should be the day they walk across the stage to receive their diploma and the day they slip a championship ring on their finger."

In his new role with the Buckeyes, Tressel immediately hit the recruiting trail, literally going coast-to-coast in an effort to tie up any loose ends that might have resulted from the Buckeyes not having a head coach for 17 days. The result was a consensus Top 20 class. It is worth noting, that each class since has been ranked highly nationally, a clear testimonial to Tressel's recruiting prowess.

Tressel's coaching staff reflects his personality and shares his beliefs and values. It is a diverse group with a wide range of coaching experience and expertise. More than anything else, however, it is a group dedicated to the well-being of Ohio State's student-athletes.

He was born in Mentor, Ohio, where his father reeled off 34-consecutive wins as a high school coach before becoming the head coach at Massillon High School. But he spent most of his childhood in Berea, more often than not accompanying his father to football practices and games at Baldwin Wallace.

Tressel graduated from Berea High School in 1971. He played for his father at Baldwin Wallace, earning four letters at quarterback and winning all-conference honors as a senior in 1974. He graduated cum laude in 1975 with a degree in education.

Following in his father's footsteps, Jim embarked upon his coaching career in the fall of 1975 as a graduate assistant at Akron. He remained at Akron through the 1978 season, serving in a full-time capacity his last three years as coach of the quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. While at Akron, he earned his master's degree.

Tressel spent the 1979 and '80 seasons as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Miami of Ohio. He left the "Cradle of Coaches" in 1981 to become the quarterbacks coach at Syracuse, where he remained for two years before returning to his home state in 1983 as a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff.

In Tressel's first year at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a 9-3 record and defeated Pittsburgh in the Fiesta Bowl. OSU scored the winning touchdown on a 39-yard pass from quarterback Mike Tomczak to split end Thad Jemison with 39 seconds left in the game. Not a bad way for the Buckeyes' new quarterbacks and receivers coach to begin his stay in Columbus.

In 1984 and '85, Tressel was given the added responsibility of coaching the Buckeyes' running backs. The '84 team won the Big Ten and played in the Rose Bowl, and Tressel protégé, junior tailback Keith Byars, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting. In 1985, the Buckeyes defeated BYU in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Tressel's departure for Youngstown State at the end of the 1985 campaign came as no surprise. Widely regarded as one of the up-and-coming young assistant coaches in college football, he had paid his dues and was ready for the next step.

Still, the transition to head coach was not easy. Tressel's first team lost its first four games and finished with a 2-9 record. His first win as a college coach came against Tennessee Tech, Oct. 11, in Youngstown. The score was 30-6.

But from that humble beginning, Tressel built a powerhouse.

In 1987, the second-year coach guided the Penguins to an 8-4 record and their first appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs. YSU won the Ohio Valley Conference title that year and Tressel was named OVC Coach of the Year.

In 1989, the Penguins began an incredible run of six-consecutive playoff appearances, winning three national championships and playing in four-consecutive title games between 1991 and 1994.

Tressel's first national crown came in 1991, when the Penguins defeated Marshall, 25-17, in the championship game. As a result of that victory, Jim and his dad (who died in 1981) became the only father-and-son combination in college football to win national championships (Lee Tressel won the 1978 Division III crown at Baldwin Wallace).

The Penguins lost a rematch with Marshall the following year, but won the rubber game with the Thundering Herd in 1993 for their second I-AA title in three years. They then made it three-out-of four in 1994 with a 28-14 win over Boise State.

Tressel's fourth national title came in 1997, when the Penguins defeated McNeese State, 10-9, in the championship game. Youngstown State also played for the title in 1999, but lost to Georgia Southern in the finals.

During the decade of the 1990s, Youngstown State had a combined record of 103-27-2, the most wins by any Division I-AA team and the fourth most of any I-A or I-AA program in the country.

In 2000, Tressel kicked off the millennium on a successful note by guiding his team to a 9-3 record and its 10th appearance in the playoffs. As it turned out, that was his last season at Youngstown State. But because of the positive impact he had on the school and the community, his many fans in Youngstown continue to follow his career at Ohio State.

Tressel's list of accolades includes being selected as the Chevrolet National Coach of the Year in 1993, '94 and '97; the American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year in 1991, '94 and 2002; and the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year in 1994 and 2002. He also was the AFCA's Regional Coach of the Year in 1987 and '93 and a six-time pick as Ohio Coach of the Year.

In a career filled with highlights, Tressel recorded his 100th career victory against Indiana State in 1997. He is the third member of his family to reach that plateau, joining his father and his older brother, Dick (currently the OSU running backs coach), who coached at Hamline University in Minnesota. Jim recorded his 150th win when Ohio State defeated Wisconsin in 2002. With the win over Michigan in 2002, he equaled his father's total at Baldwin Wallace. As a family, Lee, Jim and Dick have won 446 games.

Jim is actively involved with the American Football Coaches Association, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Outstanding Young Men of America. He and his wife, Ellen, who is a graduate of Youngstown State, live in nearby Upper Arlington. They are the parents of four children: Zak (7/28/79), Carlee (11/23/82), Eric (9/18/83) and Whitney (8/1/85).

Zak is a 2003 graduate of Ohio State, Carlee is a senior at the University of Chicago, Eric a junior at Youngstown State and Whitney a freshman at the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Jim Bollman

Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line, fourth season

Jim Bollman is in his fourth season at Ohio State. In addition to serving as offensive coordinator, he also coaches the offensive line.

Bollman's offenses pride themselves on the ability to do whatever it takes to get the job done. In 2002 as the Buckeyes were marching toward the school's first consensus national championship since 1968, the Buckeyes averaged 29.3 points and 364 yards per game, including 191 yards per game on the ground. When an assortment of injuries and the loss of a number of key players took its toll on the running game in 2003, the Buckeyes still averaged 24.8 points and 332 yards per game, but relied much more on the pass, averaging 206 yards per outing through the air as OSU rolled to an 11-2 record.

Bollman has helped develop a number of outstanding players while at Ohio State. In 2001, his first year with the Buckeyes, center LeCharles Bentley won the Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football. Bentley, now a starter with the New Orleans Saints and a Pro Bowl selection in 2003, won consensus All-America honors that year. In 2002, first-year starter Alex Stepanovich enjoyed an outstanding year as Bentley's replacement. In 2003, when Stepanovich was injured, sophomore Nick Mangold stepped in and picked up the slack under the watchful eye of Bollman. Mangold should be one of the top centers in college football in 2004 and will be a candidate for this year's Rimington Award.

Additionally, Bollman has played a significant role in the development of several other players, including, but not limited to, guard Adrien Clarke and tackles Shane Olivea and Robbie Sims. Clarke and Olivea were seniors last year. Sims will be a junior in 2004.

A native of Ashtabula, Ohio, Bollman came to Ohio State from the Chicago Bears, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as tight ends coach. He was the tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1998.

Bollman played his college football at Ohio University. He won four letters as an offensive lineman for the Bobcats and was team captain as a senior in 1976. He graduated from Ohio University in 1977 with a degree in education.

Bollman launched his coaching career in June of 1977 as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio). In January of 1978, he was named offensive line coach of the Redskins, a position he held until 1982, when he accompanied head coach Tom Reed to North Carolina State. It was during his stint at Miami that Bollman first met Jim Tressel, who served as quarterbacks coach for the Redskins in 1979 and '80.

During his three years at N.C. State, Bollman was the assistant head coach. He also coached the offensive line in 1983 and '84 and the inside linebackers in 1985.

In 1986, Bollman began a productive five-year association with Tressel at Youngstown State. Bollman was defensive coordinator his first three years at YSU and offensive coordinator his last two. During his stay at Youngstown, the Penguins qualified for the Division I-AA Playoffs three times.

Following the 1990 season, Bollman was named offensive line coach at the University of Virginia. He remained there four years, helping the Cavaliers to three bowl appearances.

In December of 1994, Bollman joined Nick Saban's staff at Michigan State. He spent three seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In 1997, the Spartans allowed a Big Ten-low 16 sacks.

Jim and his wife Terri, a native of Dayton, have two daughters: Courtney (8/29/81) and Stephanie (4/18/84).

Mark Snyder

Defensive Coordinator, fourth season

Mark Snyder, who has spent the past three years as linebackers' coach at Ohio State, is now in his first year as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator. Snyder assumed his new role this past January, taking over for Mark Dantonio after the latter became head coach at the University of Cincinnati.

"I am extremely humbled and honored to be the defensive coordinator," said Snyder. "And I am grateful to Coach (Jim) Tressel for giving me this opportunity."

At the end of the 2003 season, the highly regarded Snyder was courted by several other schools. But the decision to stay at Ohio State was an easy one for the Ironton, Ohio native.

"I am an Ohio guy and this is where I have always wanted to be," he said. "Besides, I am working for a terrific man, so I can't imagine a better situation."

In Snyder's first three years with the Buckeyes, he helped develop a number of outstanding players, including All-American Matt Wilhelm and Cie Grant, both of whom played significant roles in the Buckeyes 2002 national championship. Both players were taken in the NFL draft. In 2003, senior Robert Reynolds and sophomore A.J. Hawk played the best football of their respective careers.

The Buckeyes' defensive philosophy will not change under Snyder's guidance.

"We will continue to be an attacking type of defense that runs to the ball and puts pressure on whatever type of offense we are playing," he says. "We will emphasize speed, sure tackling and playing with emotion."

Snyder came to Ohio State from the University of Minnesota, where he spent four years coaching the Gophers' defensive ends. Prior to Minnesota, he also coached at Marshall, Central Florida and Youngstown State.

An all-state selection at Ironton High School, Snyder played his college football at Marshall, capturing All-America defensive back honors as a senior when the Thundering Herd finished as runners-up at the 1987 Division I-AA National Championships.

Snyder graduated from Marshall in the spring of 1988 and began his coaching career the following fall as a student assistant at his alma mater.

He moved to Central Florida the next year and spent two years there, the first as a graduate assistant and the second as a part-time coach working with the linebackers.

In 1991, Snyder returned to the Buckeye State to coach the outside linebackers on Jim Tressel's Youngstown State staff. In 1994, he was given the added responsibility of special teams coordinator and inside linebacker coach. Tressel promoted him to defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996.

After six successful years at Youngstown State, during which the Penguins won three Division 1-AA national championships and played in four consecutive title games, Snyder left Youngstown State for Minnesota at the conclusion of the 1996 campaign.

During Snyder's stay at Minnesota, the Gophers' defense twice set school records for single-season sacks and averaged 40.7 sacks during a three-year span. While at Minnesota, Snyder helped develop Lamanzer Williams, who led the nation in sacks in 1997 and Karon Riley, the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

Mark and his wife Beth, who is also a native of Ironton and a graduate of the University of Kentucky, have three daughters: Chelsea (6/8/92), Lindsay (10/14/93) and Shaylee (1/22/01).

Jim Heacock

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line, ninth season

Jim Heacock is in his ninth season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Heacock, a native of Alliance, Ohio and a graduate of Muskingum College, coaches the Buckeyes' defensive front and serves as assistant head coach. He is one of the most respected and knowledgeable defensive line coaches in college football,

In 2002, the OSU defensive line recorded 49.5 tackles for loss and 24.5 sacks as the Buckeyes rolled to a 14-0 record and the national championship. In the title game against Miami, the OSU front four recorded seven tackles-for-loss, including four sacks.

Not to be outdone in 2003, the defensive line finished the season with 55 tackles-for-loss and 25 sacks in a stellar 11-2 campaign that included a win over Big XII champion Kansas State in a return visit to the Fiesta Bowl.

Thanks in large part to the defensive front, Ohio State led the nation against the run in 2003, allowing a paltry 62.3 yards per game and 2.0 yards per carry on the ground.

Heacock has helped develop a number of outstanding players at Ohio State, including Ryan Pickett and Rodney Bailey, both of whom are now playing in the NFL, as well as 2003 All-American and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Will Smith, whom also plays in the NFL.

Following his graduation from Muskingum in 1970, Heacock was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He began his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green under Don Nehlen.

Heacock's first full-time coaching opportunity came in 1973, when he returned to Muskingum to coach the defensive secondary. After two years in that role, he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

Heacock left Muskingum in 1978 to return to Bowling Green. He spent five years there and was assistant head coach in 1981 and '82. The 1982 Falcons won the Mid-America Conference title and played in the California Bowl.

Following the 1982 season, Heacock became defensive line coach at the University of Washington. During his five years at the Pac-10 school (1983-87), the Huskies played in five bowl games.

In 1988, Heacock was named head coach at Illinois State University. Playing an ambitious schedule that included a number of Division I teams, he, nonetheless, built the Redbirds into a winner, posting a combined record of 16-14-2 during his last three years.

Heacock joined John Cooper's staff at Ohio State in 1996 as coach of the defensive tackles. In 2000, he also took over the entire defensive front. That same year, the Buckeyes recorded a school-record tying 47 sacks.

When Jim Tressel took over as Ohio State's head coach in January 2001, Heacock was retained from Cooper's staff as defensive line coach. He was given the added responsibility of assistant head coach in February of 2004.

Heacock's brother, Jon, was named to succeed Tressel as head coach at Youngstown State in 2001, and another brother, Jeff, is head coach at Muskingum. A sister, Penny Hesselbart, currently lives in Orlando and is an avid Buckeye fan.

Born June 23, 1948, Jim and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters Stephanie (9/10/81) and Shannon (4/11/83).

The Heacock Family (l-r) - Stephanie, Shannon, Sherry and Jim

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs, fourth season

Mel Tucker is in his fourth season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' defensive backfield and also serves as co-defensive coordinator. He was promoted to the latter position in January of 2004 after three years with the OSU secondary. In his new capacity, he has taken on an expanded role in game preparation and strategy.

Tucker grew up in Cleveland and played his college football at Wisconsin. Prior to coming to Ohio State he spent two years at Miami of Ohio and one year at LSU. He coached the defensive backs at both of those schools.

In his three years at Ohio State, Tucker has developed into an outstanding teacher and motivator and has demonstrated the ability to get the most out of his players. He is regarded as one of the up-and-coming young coaches in college football.

Two of Tucker's Ohio State players – strong safeties Michael Doss and Will Allen – have won first-team All-America honors. Doss was so honored in 2001 and 2002, while Allen was accorded All-America recognition in 2003 in his first year as a starter. Additionally, cornerback Chris Gamble was a second team All-American pick in 2003. Still another Ohio State player, cornerback Dustin Fox, will be a post-season honors candidate in 2004.

Tucker prepped at Cleveland Heights and was a two-time member of the Cleveland Plain Dealer's All-Scholastic team. He won All-Ohio honors in football as a senior and also enjoyed an outstanding basketball career.

At Wisconsin, Tucker earned four letters as a defensive back. He redshirted as a senior in 1993 after breaking his leg in fall camp. But he returned to action in 1994, helping the Badgers to an 8-3-1 record and a bowl appearance.

Tucker graduated in the spring of 1995 and played briefly in the Canadian Football League.

He began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State. After two years in that capacity, he became defensive backfield coach at Miami (Ohio). He spent two years with the RedHawks, leaving after the 1999 season to re-join Saban who had moved on to LSU.

Tucker spent one season at LSU before accepting his current position at Ohio State.

Mel and his wife Jo-Ellyn, an attorney who works in the Attorney General's office in Columbus, were married in June of 1999. They have two sons, Joseph (2/18/02) and Christian (2/18/04).

The Tucker Family (l-r) - Jo-Ellyn and Christian, Mel and Joseph

Passing Game Coordinator/Quarterbacks, fourth season

Joe Daniels is in his fourth season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. After three years as the Buckeyes' quarterbacks and receivers coach, he will serve this year as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks' coach.

During the 2002 and 2003 football seasons, Daniels played a major role in the development of quarterback Craig Krenzel and split end Michael Jenkins, both of whom enjoyed their best years as Buckeyes.

In 2002, the OSU quarterbacks corps completed an impressive 61 percent of its passes. In 2003, that figure was a very respectable 55 percent. The 2003 season also saw the emergence of wide receivers Drew Carter and Santonio Holmes. Carter was a senior last year, but Holmes has established himself as one of the Buckeyes' up-and-coming young stars.

Daniels is a native of Bethel Park, Pa. Prior to coming to Ohio State, he spent four years at the University of Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2000.

Daniels graduated from Slippery Rock College in 1964 with a degree in physical education. He played running back in college and was a four-year letter winner at Slippery Rock.

Daniels launched his coaching career in 1964 as a high school coach in Johnstown, Pa. He became a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg State in 1966 and landed his first full-time position as an assistant at the University of New Hampshire in 1967.

In 1968, Daniels took over as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Boston College. He remained there for 10 years before leaving in 1978 to become quarterbacks coach at West Virginia. He coached the Mountaineers for two years (1978-79), leaving in 1980 to become running backs coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh.

Following the 1982 season, Daniels jumped to the professional ranks as receivers' coach for the Cleveland Browns. He spent three seasons with the Browns (1983-85) before accepting a similar position with the Buffalo Bills.

After two seasons in Buffalo (1986-87) and a year out of coaching (1988), Daniels returned to the college ranks as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Akron.

At the conclusion of the 1989 campaign, Daniels returned to professional football as quarterbacks coach with the New York Jets. He spent two seasons with the Jets (1990-91) before entering private business in 1992.

Daniels resumed his coaching career in 1997 as running backs coach at Cincinnati. He then coached the Bearcats wide receivers for two years (1998-99) before being elevated to offensive coordinator and assistant head coach prior to the 2000 campaign.

During his career, Daniels has tutored a number of outstanding players, including Dan Marino, Ken O'Brien, Andre Reed and Ozzie Newsome.

Joe and his wife, Kathy, have two children, a son Matthew (12/16/85) and a daughter Kaitlin (6/17/87).

Luke Fickell

Linebackers, third season

Luke Fickell is in his third year on the Ohio State coaching staff. After serving as special teams coordinator his first two years and also assisting with the defensive front last year, he moves to linebacker coach in 2004 as the successor to Mark Snyder who has been elevated to defensive coordinator for the Buckeyes.

Fickell is a Columbus native (DeSales High School) and a 1997 graduate of Ohio State, where he was a four-year starter at nose guard. After a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints and a year at Ohio State as a graduate assistant under John Cooper, Fickell officially launched his coaching career at the University of Akron. He spent two years as the Zips' defensive line coach before returning to his alma mater following the 2001 season.

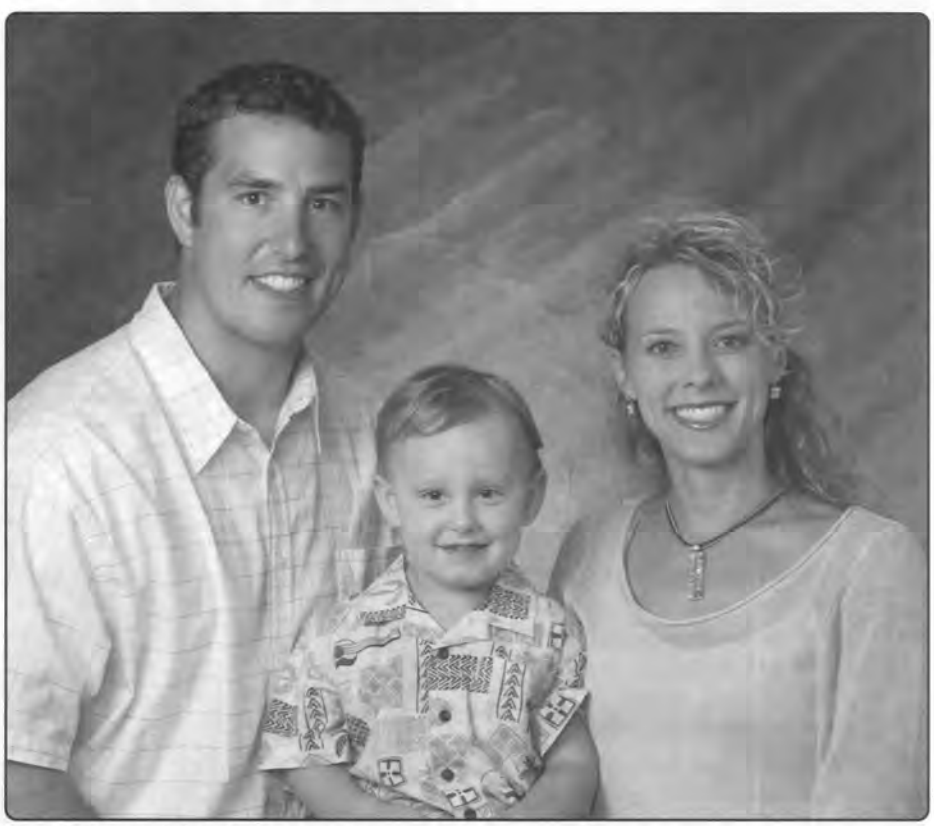
During Fickell's relatively short stay at Ohio State, the Buckeyes' special teams have enjoyed outstanding success, and two of his players – punter Andy Groom and place-kicker Mike Nugent – have captured first-team All-America honors, both doing so in 2002. Nugent was a finalist for the Lou Groza award that year after setting nine school records in a superb sophomore season. This past year, Groom's successor, senior B.J. Sander, led the nation in net punting and became the school's first winner of the Ray Guy Award as the best punter in college football. It is worth noting that prior to the 2002 season, the Buckeyes had never had an All-America punter and an All-America kicker in the same year. In fact, Nugent was the first Ohio State place-kicker ever to win first-team All-America acclaim.

Fickell played for the Buckeyes between 1992 and 1996, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started a school-record 50-consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell's last start was certainly his most memorable. After tearing the pectoral muscle in his chest four days before the Buckeyes were to take on undefeated Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl, Fickell started and played the entire game, in the process helping the Buckeyes capture a thrilling 20-17 win over the second-ranked Sun Devils.

Fickell concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-loss and six sacks.

Luke and his wife, Amy, have an infant son, Landon (3/2/02).



The Fickell Family (l-r) - Luke, Landon and Amy

Darrell Hazell

Wide Receivers, first season

Darrell Hazell is in his first year as a member of the Ohio State coaching staff and his 19th season as a coach on the collegiate level.

Hazell, a native of Cinnaminson, N.J. and a graduate of Muskingum College, coaches the Buckeyes' wide receivers. He was named to his present position in February, ending a three-year stay at Rutgers, where in addition to coaching the receivers he also served as assistant head coach.

One of the most respected young coaches in the game, Hazell has previously coached at Oberlin, The University of Pennsylvania, Western Michigan, The United States Military Academy and West Virginia. All of his experience has been on the offensive side of the ball, the majority of that with the position he played, and excelled at, in college, wide receiver.

After a standout high school career in New Jersey, Hazell enrolled at Muskingum in the fall of 1982. He moved into the starting lineup as a sophomore and was a regular his last three years, winning all-conference honors all three of those seasons. As a senior, he also won All-America honors and was selected by his teammates as team captain.

Hazell graduated from Muskingkum in 1986 and began his coaching career the following fall as running backs coach at Oberlin.

In 1988, Hazell moved to Eastern Illinois as running backs and receivers coach. He remained there just one year before returning to Oberlin as offensive coordinator.

In 1992, Hazell began a three-year stay at Penn as the Quakers' running backs coach. Penn won the Ivy League title in both 1993 and 1994.

Prior to the 1995 season, Hazell accepted an offer to coach the wide receivers at Western Michigan. He remained at the Mid-American Conference school for two years, leaving in 1997 to coach the tight ends and wide receivers at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

He was at Army for two seasons before moving to West Virginia in 1999 to coach the Mountaineers' running backs.

Following the 2000 season, he left Army for Rutgers. He coached the Scarlet Knights' wide receivers in 2001 and 2002 before being named assistant head coach prior to the 2003 season.

Darrell and Annemarie have a three-year-old son, Kyle.

John Peterson

Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends, first season

John Peterson is in his first year as a member of the Ohio State coaching staff. An Ohio State graduate and former starter on the offensive line for the Buckeyes, Peterson returned to his alma mater this past April in the dual role of tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. He replaced Bill Conley, who resigned the position after 18 years. Ironically, Peterson played for Conley at Middletown High School in southwestern Ohio as a prepster.

Peterson has spent the past five football seasons at Miami of Ohio, where he coached the offensive line. For the last three years, he also has served as running game coordinator.

Following the 2003 season in which the RedHawks posted a 13-1 record and closed out the year with 13 consecutive wins, Peterson accepted the position of offensive line coach at the University of Arizona under Mike Stoops. He moved to Arizona in January, but was there only briefly before accepting an offer from Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel. He joined the Buckeyes during the last half of spring practice.

A native of Middletown, Peterson was a four-year letterman for the Buckeyes between 1987 and 1990, starting at guard as a senior.

Following his graduation from Ohio State in 1991, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati.

After two years with the Bearcats (1991-92), he returned to OSU in a graduate assistant's role. He spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as a GA for the Buckeyes, working with future NFL players Rickey Dudley and Orlando Pace and traveling with OSU to the Holiday Bowl in 1993 and the Citrus Bowl in 1994.

Peterson's first full-time position came in 1995 as the offensive line coach at the University of Akron under former OSU assistant Lee Owens. He spent four years in Akron (1995-98). In 1997, the Zips boasted the nation's 11th ranked rushing attack and the offensive line permitted just 10 sacks all year long.

In February of 1999, Peterson moved to Miami (Ohio) as offensive line coach. In March of 2001, he was given the added responsibility of running game coordinator. During their league championship (Mid-America Conference) season in 2003, the RedHawks averaged 502 yards and 43 points per game.

Peterson was a high school All-American at Middletown and was named as the state's big school offensive lineman of the year as a senior in 1986. He also broke the 28-year-old Middletown High School shotput record that had been held by Ohio State's legendary basketball All-American Jerry Lucas. John was inducted into the Middletown High School Hall of Fame in 2001.

Peterson and his wife, Michelle, a native of Middletown and a graduate of Ohio University, have two sons, Austin (8) and Cole (5). Michelle's uncle Jerry Harkrader, played football for the Buckeyes in the mid 1950s.

Dick Tressel

Running Backs, fourth season

Dick Tressel is in his fourth season at Ohio State, but this is his first year as a member of the football coaching staff. The associate director of football operations for the Buckeyes during his first three years in Columbus, Tressel returned to the coaching ranks in March as mentor of the OSU running backs. He replaced long-time Buckeye assistant Tim Spencer, who is now the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears.

Tressel, the older brother of Buckeye head coach Jim Tressel, is certainly no stranger to the coaching profession. Prior to coming to Ohio State, he spent 23 years as the head football coach at Hamline University in St. Paul Minnesota.

During his tenure at Hamline, he posted an overall record of 124-102-2 and was the Division III National Coach of the Year in 1984. His 1984 team won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship. In addition to being selected NCAA Coach of the Year, he was the Sporting News Coach of the Year in 1984.

Tressel also served as director of athletics at Hamline, spending 21 years in that capacity.

Tressel was born in Columbus and grew up in Berea, Ohio, where his father was head coach at Baldwin Wallace College. He played both football and baseball at B-W, earning four letters in each sport. A three-year starter at defensive back, he won second-team all-conference honors as a senior. He still holds the school record in baseball for playing the entire season without a fielding error at second base.

Tressel graduated from Baldwin Wallace in 1970 with a degree in physical education. He received his master's in that field from Florida State in 1976 and his doctorate from the University of Minnesota in 1996.

Tressel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida State in 1970. He returned to Ohio the following year as the head coach at Gibsonburg high school in northeast Ohio. He spent three years in the high school ranks and compiled an overall record of 19-9-2. One of his standouts at Gibsonburg was offensive lineman Ted Smith who would go on to become an All-American guard for the Buckeyes.

In 1974, Tressel jumped to the collegiate ranks as defensive coordinator at Wayne State in Detroit. He remained there through the 1977 season, leaving at the conclusion of that year to become head coach at Hamline. He was at Hamline from 1978 through the 2000 season.

During his first three years at Ohio State, Tressel assisted in the day-to-day operations of the football program and was responsible for monitoring the academic progress of the student-athletes on the football team. He also oversaw community relations.

Dick and his wife, Connie, have three sons, Mike (9/28/73), Ben (7/12/75) and Luke (3/15/79). Ben and Luke played football for their father at Hamline. Mike played at Cornell College in Iowa and is now an assistant at the University of Cincinnati under former Buckeye defensive coordinator Mark Dantonio.

John Hill

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

John Hill is in his 11th season with the Ohio State football program and is in his fourth year as program assistant. His primary duties involve assisting recruiting coordinator John Peterson in all aspects of the recruiting process, including coordinating on-campus visits and tours. Hill, 32, also oversees the Buckeyes' walk-on program and assists in the coordination of Ohio State's summer football camp.

A native of Huber Heights, Ohio and a 1989 graduate of Wayne High School, Hill spent four years as a student assistant coach at Ohio State from 1994 through 1997, working with the defensive ends and right ends. He graduated from OSU in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education and a concentration in social studies. That fall Hill began a three-year stint as a graduate assistant coach for the Buckeyes, working with the recruiting office during the 1998 and 1999 seasons and spending the 2000 season working with the offense, specifically the quarterbacks. In June of 2000, Hill earned a master's degree in sport and exercise science from Ohio State and that summer began his current administrative role as program assistant for the Buckeyes.

Paul Nichols

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Paul Nichols is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State. A former record-setting quarterback at Davidson College in North Carolina, he will work primarily with the Buckeye defense this season after spending last season as a defensive volunteer assistant coach at the University of Florida. At Davidson, Nichols set school records for career passing yards (5,822), completions (465) and touchdown passes (51) and fashioned a 22-6 record as a starter, which stands as the best mark in Davidson history. As a sophomore he led the Wildcats to a 10-0 record and Pioneer Football League championship, marking the school's first undefeated season in 103 years of football.

A native of Dunwoody, Ga. (Marist H.S.), Nichols was named an honorable mention All-American by Don Hansen's Football Gazette as a senior when he ranked among the Top 25 in the nation in both passing efficiency rating (136.49) and yards passing per game (218.9). Nichols graduated in May of 2003 with degrees in history and political science and in July of that year began a one-season stint at Florida working under defensive coordinator Charlie Strong.

Jared Smith

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jared Smith is in his first season as quality control coach, he works with offensive coordinator Jim Bollman in breaking down film and self scouting the Ohio State offense.

A native of Pittsburg, Kansas (Pittsburg H.S.), Smith was a four-year starter at center for the University Kansas from 1993-96. He graduated from Kansas in December of 1996 with a degree in English. In March of 1998 Smith began a two-year stint as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Minnesota, where he served as the special teams coordinator on game days in addition to various other duties. In February of 2000, he was promoted to assistant coach for the Gophers and was responsible for the guards and centers. During the 2000 season Smith coached Minnesota's first two-time All-American center and helped guide the Gophers to the 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl.

In February of 2001 Smith moved on to Fort Scott (Kansas) Community College, where he served as an assistant coach for three seasons. He was the run game coordinator for the 2003 season at Fort Scott.

Joe Rudolph

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Joe Rudolph is in his first season as a graduate assistant on the Ohio State football staff. He works with the offense, assisting offensive coordinator Jim Bollman in all aspects of coaching and game preparation. An outstanding offensive lineman both at the collegiate and professional levels, he will work closely with the Buckeyes' guards and centers.

Rudolph is a native of Belle Vernon, Pa. He attended the University of Wisconsin and played football for the Badgers, serving as team captain as a senior in 1994. An offensive guard, he won first-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior and again as a senior. Following his senior season, in which the Badgers won the Rose Bowl, he played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. A zoology major, he was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Rudolph played four years of professional football, spending the 1995 and 1996 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles and the next two seasons in San Francisco.

Rudolph began his coaching career in 1999 as the offensive and defensive line coach at Belle Vernon Area School. He did graduate work at Duquesne and received a Master's of Business Administration from Carnegie Mellon in May of 2004.

Joe and wife, Dawn, were married this summer.

Todd Goebel

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Todd Goebbel is in his first year on the Ohio State football staff. He is the Buckeyes' quality control coach on defense. In that role, he assists with film breakdown of the opponents as well as scouting and self-evaluation of the Ohio State defense

Goebbel is a native of Delaware, Ohio. He attended Kent State and was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Golden Flashes, winning MVP honors as a sophomore in 1996 and being selected captain as a junior in 1997.

Following the 1997 season, Goebbel transferred to the University of Northern Iowa, where he was the starting quarterback in 1998 and was named as the Gateway Conference Newcomer of the Year.

Following graduation, Goebbel played briefly in the Arena Foot ball League with the Buffalo Destroyers.

In 1999 he coached the tight ends at the College of Wooster. He left Wooster following the 1999 season to become quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at Tiffin University, remaining there two years before moving to Quincy University in 2002 as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

He was at Quincy during the 2002 and 2003 seasons.

Todd's wife, Sara, is a Kent State graduate.

Bob Tucker

Director of Football Operations, fourth season

Bob Tucker is in his fourth year as director of football operations at Ohio State. He accompanied head coach Jim Tressel to Columbus from Youngstown State.

This is Tucker's second stint with the Buckeyes. He was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff from 1979 through 1984, serving first as outside linebackers coach (1979-81) and later as defensive coordinator (1982-84).

Tucker is a native of Sandusky, Ohio. He graduated from the College of Wooster in 1965 with a degree in health and physical education, and received a master's from Penn State, also in health and physical education, in 1967.

Tucker began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Penn State, spending the 1965 and '66 seasons on Joe Paterno's staff while doing graduate work.

After two successful seasons (1967-68) as an assistant at Massillon High School, Tucker jumped to the collegiate ranks in 1969 as linebackers coach at Wichita State. In 1972, his final season at Wichita, he was defensive coordinator for the Shockers who finished eighth nationally in total defense.

In 1973, Tucker joined Bruce's staff at Iowa State. He spent six years as coach of the defensive ends, helping the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl appearances in 1977 and '78.

Tucker accompanied Bruce to Ohio State in 1979. While at Ohio State, the Buckeyes won three Big Ten championships and played in six bowl games, including two Rose Bowls (1979, '84).

Tucker left Ohio State after the 1984 campaign to become head coach at his alma mater, The College of Wooster. He spent 12 seasons in Wooster before joining Tressel's staff at Youngstown State in 1997. Tucker was defensive coordinator his first three years at Youngstown. He coached the Penguins' linebackers and coordinated the special teams during the 2000 campaign. The Penguins won the national championship in 1997.

Bob and his wife, Lynn, have three children: Diana (5/2/73), Michelle (9/22/75) and Scott (7/11/79). Scott, a 2002 graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, was deployed to Iraq this past February.

The Tucker Family (l-r) - Lynn, Bob, Michelle, Diana and Scott.

Stan Jefferson

Associate Director of Football Operations, first season

Stan Jefferson is in his first year as Associate Director of Football Operations at Ohio State. He officially joined the Buckeye staff in July of 2004.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Jefferson spent nearly 30 years as a high school coach and administrator in Mansfield, Ohio and was one of the most respected educators in the state.

Born in Dayton, Ohio, Jefferson attended Ohio State and graduated in 1974. He was a walk-on member of the football team in 1971 and earned a freshman numeral that year in his only year on the squad.

Jefferson, who earned his master's degree from Bowling Green in 1984, began his coaching career in 1976 as an assistant coach at Mansfield Malabar.

In 1982, Jefferson joined the football staff at Ashland College as coach of the wide receivers. While at Ashland, he continued to teach and coach the track team at Malabar.

In 1993, Jefferson was named head coach at Mansfield Senior High School. Between 1993 and 2002 his teams posted a combined record of 73-44 and captured three league titles.

The highly respected Jefferson was named principal at Mansfield in 2003.

At Ohio State, Jefferson will work with Bob Tucker in the day-to-day operations of the football program. Some of his specific duties include serving as academic liaison with the Student-Athlete Support Services Office and community involvement.

Stan's wife, Shirley, is a graduate of Ashland College.

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Fourndation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.

Allan Johnson

Director of Football Strength and Conditioning, fourth season

Allan Johnson is in his fourth year as Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Ohio State football team. He joined the Buckeye staff in the summer of 2001.

Johnson was named National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2002. A year later, he was inducted into the National Strength and Conditioning Hall of Fame. Awarded the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by his peers in 2001, he is one of the most respected and well-known names in his profession.

Al Johnson was the 2002 National Strength Coach of the Year.

Johnson came to Ohio State from West Virginia University where, in two separate stints, he spent a total of 13 years as strength and conditioning coach. At WVU, he oversaw the in-season and off-season conditioning programs for all 21 of the Mountaineers' varsity sports.

Johnson also spent four seasons with the Baltimore Orioles and was one of the first full-time strength and conditioning coaches in major league baseball. During that time, Johnson worked with Orioles' ironman Cal Ripken.

A native of Parkersburg, W.Va., Johnson graduated from Glenville State College in 1979 with a degree in exercise science. He was an all-conference pick in both football (offensive guard) and track (discus).

Johnson spent the next two years as an assistant high school coach (football and basketball) at Federal Hocking in southeastern Ohio before going to West Virginia University to work on his master's degree.

He was a graduate assistant strength coach at WVU in 1982 and '83. Shortly after receiving his master's in sports management in 1983, he became the Mountaineers' head strength and conditioning coach.

Johnson left West Virginia following the 1988 season to join the staff of the Baltimore Orioles. He remained with the Orioles through the 1992 season, returning to West Virginia in November of that year.

Johnson was selected as the Big East Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1997, '98 and 2000. He was Region II Strength Coach of the Year in 1988.

In 1986, Johnson was selected to serve on the National Strength and Conditioning Association's Special Olympics Advisory Board.

Johnson has had several articles published in various fitness magazines, including The American Fitness Quarterly and The National Strength and Conditioning Association Journal.

He and his wife, Jan, have one son, Adam (16).

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Mike Cochran is in his fourth year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at Ohio State.

Cochran came to Ohio State from Youngstown State, where for six years, he was the director of the Penguins' strength and conditioning program. He oversaw all 18 varsity sports at Youngstown State, including the football program.

Cochran is from Girard, Ohio. He attended Youngstown State and played football for the Penguins, serving as team captain as a senior in 1989. He played both fullback and linebacker and finished his career with 214 total tackles.

Cochran received his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Youngstown State in 1992. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, working with the defense from 1993 to 1995.

In 1995, Cochran was named assistant strength and conditioning coach at YSU. He was named head strength coach in 1996.

Cochran was named to the Youngstown State Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Traci, have two daughters, Mikayla and Raegan.

Bernardo Amerson

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Bernardo Amerson is in his third season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Ohio State football program. He was formerly the head strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball team at West Virginia University.

Amerson, a native of Hattiesburg, Miss, has a master's degree (2001) in special education-early intervention from West Virginia and a bachelor of science degree (1999) in sports behavior from WVU.

Amerson, a former linebacker, was a member of the Mountaineers from 1993-96, earning a scholarship and three letters his final three seasons after walking on in 1992. He participated on three bowl teams as a Mountaineer.

Amerson, born Jan. 11, 1974, spent one season with the CFL'S Calgary Stanpeders before returning to West Virginia in 1998 to work as a student assistant in the Mountaineer strength program.

As a coach, he has trained more than 30 student-athletes who were drafted or signed as free agents by the NFL, NBA and MLB.

Mark Quisenberry

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Now in his third season with the Buckeyes, Mark Quisenberry serves as the director of football video for Ohio State. Quisenberry coordinates all aspects of the Buckeye video detail, including practices, games, opponent film exchange, coaches' cut-ups and team highlight films.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Quisenberry is a graduate of Male High School, where he was a four-year letterwinner in soccer and also earned one letter in track.

He attended Western Kentucky University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1995 and a master's degree in physical education in 1999. While at WKU, he was a four-year football manager and received the WKU Football Extra Effort Award presented annually by head football coach Jack Harbaugh. As a graduate student, Quisenberry served as an assistant to Harbaugh as the Hilltoppers fashioned a 10-2 record and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals in 1997.

Quisenberry and his wife Belinda married in July. She is the assistant softball coach at Ohio State.

Rob Lachey

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rob Lachey began his first season as the head athletics equipment manager at Ohio State in the summer of 2004 after serving as an assistant with the Buckeyes since 1994.

Lachey, a 1991 Ohio State graduate with a bachelor of science degree in human ecology, began his training in the equipment operation as a student assistant in 1986.

He will manage the equipment needs of all Ohio State athletics teams.

Lachey will oversee purchasing, stocking, transporting and maintenance of all athletics equipment while supervising full-time and student staff operating at several other athletics facilities on the Ohio State campus.

In addition to his experience with the Buckeyes' equipment operation, he also served as the head equipment manager for the Ohio Glory of the World Football League during the 1992 season.

Chris Kaeding

Head Team Physician, 13th season

Longtime Ohio State orthopedic consultant Dr. Christopher Kaeding steps into a new role this fall, succeeding Dr. John Lombardo as the Buckeyes' head team physician.

Kaeding, a member of the OSU sports medicine team since 1991, also serves as medical director of the OSU Sports Medicine Center.

In that dual role, the highly respected Kaeding will oversee a program that will combine clinical care of the student-athlete with much broader research and educational programs designed to benefit the University and the entire community. In addition to the classic application of sports medicine, there will now be an increased emphasis on a wide range of other areas, including injury prevention and recovery, psychology, nutrition and athletic performance and physiology, giving Ohio State one of the most comprehensive programs of its type in the country.

"Our intent is to establish a sports medicine institute that will quickly attract national recognition for its breadth and high quality," said Kaeding.

Kaeding, a native of Decatur, Illinois, is a 1981 graduate of Northwestern University. He received his medical doctorate from the Big Ten school in 1983 and completed his residency in 1988, also at Northwestern.

Following his residency, Kaeding spent two years as a fellow at the Cleveland Clinic. During his time at the Clinic, he worked as an orthopedic consultant with the Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Cavaliers.

After a year in private practice, Kaeding moved to Columbus in January of 1991 and joined the sports medicine staff as an orthopedic consultant. He was named chief orthopedic consultant in 1993.

As head team physician at Ohio State, he oversees a staff of seven physicians, including three surgeons, and has primary responsibility for football and women's basketball.

Kaeding and his wife, Christine, have two children, a daughter, Emily, and a son, John.

Doug Calland

Athletic Trainer, 10th season

A member of the Ohio State staff since 1995, Doug Calland serves as the head athletic trainer for football, overseeing all aspects of the athletic training program for the football team and supervising the Woody Hayes Athletic Center Training Room.

Calland's responsibilities include working closely with head athletic trainer Bill Davis, as well as with head team physician Chris Kaeding. Calland also oversees a graduate assistant and 12 student trainers.

Calland is from Columbus and is a graduate of Whetstone High School. In 1981, he graduated from Ohio State with a bachelor's degree in physical education. As an undergraduate, he spent four years on the training staff working with a variety of sports, including football.

Prior to his graduation from OSU, Calland served as the head trainer for the Pittsburgh Pirates Rookie League team in Bradenton, Fla.

Following his graduation from Ohio State, Calland was a graduate assistant trainer for two years at Oklahoma State University. While there, he worked with the wrestling program and assisted with football. He earned his master's degree in educational administration from Oklahoma State in 1983.

Immediately after graduation, Calland went to work at the University of Washington as an assistant trainer, working primarily with football and men's basketball. In 1994, he was promoted to assistant head trainer.While he was at Washington, the Huskies played in three Rose Bowls and captured the 1991 national championship. He also was the executive director of the Washington State Athletic Trainers Association.

Calland returned to Ohio State in 1995 to accept his present position.

Calland is a member National Athletic Trainers Association and the Ohio Athletic Trainers Association

Doug and his wife, Natalie have two sons, Brandon and Ryan, and a daughter, Alyssa.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Playing on national television and led by heady quarterback Craig Krenzel and an unrelenting defense that proved mature beyond its youth at linebacker and safety, the Buckeyes easily dispatched visiting Washington 28-9 in their season opener.

Krenzel, who took control of the game from the outset, was only slightly short of sensational in running his record to 16-1 as a starter. His 37-yard strike to flanker Drew Carter set up Ohio State's first touchdown, a 2-yard run by junior tailback Maurice Hall with 8:31 to play in the first quarter.

The senior signal caller made it 14-0 with a 23-yard scramble around left end with 2:51 to play in the first stanza and 21-0 with an 11-yard scramble, this time to the right side, with 11 seconds left in the half. The latter play came on third down and took the bark out of the Huskies. Krenzel threw for 203 yards and ran for 27 more in what has become typical of his stellar play.

Simon Fraser led Ohio State with seven tackles, including three TFL and one sack and was named the Big Ten's Co-Defensive Player of the Week.

Six of his 15 completions went to senior split end and fellow co-captain Michael Jenkins. Junior tailback Lydell Ross accounted for OSU's other score, a 15-yard power burst off tackle with 6:06 remaining in the third quarter. In addition to their two touchdowns, Hall and Ross combined for 101 yards rushing.

The Ohio State defense, meanwhile, picked up where it left off a year ago, limiting the Huskies to nine points and 262 total yards, including just seven on the ground. Washington quarterback Cody Pickett completed 26-of-49 passes for 255 yards, but no touchdowns, and most of that yardage came in the second half after the outcome had been decided. Pickett had just 77 yards at halftime.

Junior Simon Fraser, starting his third game but first as a regular at defensive end, led the defense with seven tackles, including three for losses and a sack and was named Big Ten co-defensive player of the week. Sophomore linebacker A.J. Hawk also had seven tackles in his first start.

Junior Chris Gamble had four tackles and a pass broken up and effectively took Husky receiver Reggie Williams – who like Pickett was being mentioned as a Heisman Trophy candidate – out of the game.

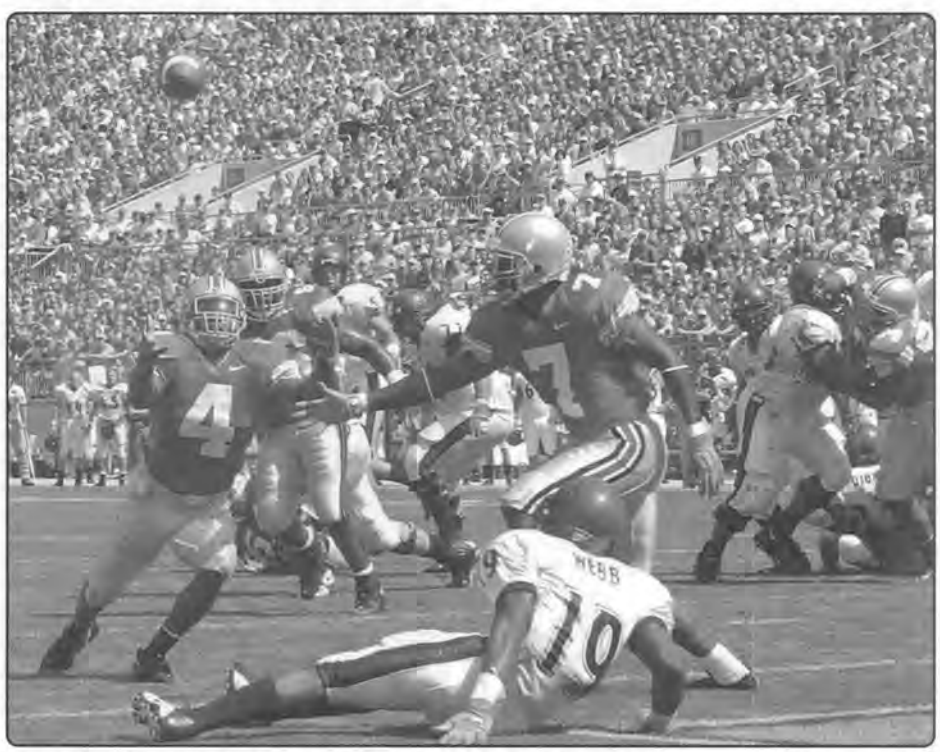
COLUMBUS, Ohio—As was the case so many times in the Buckeyes' championship run of 2002, the Ohio State defense was the difference in Ohio State's three-point win over San Diego State. On a day when the OSU offense could muster but 196 total yards and was held without a touchdown, the defense got the job done by coming up with four turnovers (two interceptions and two fumble recoveries) and holding the Aztecs to 216 total yards, including just 28 on the ground.

Will Allen's 100-yard interception return for a touchdown midway through the first quarter was the play of the day and turned out to be Ohio State's only touchdown. Allen's tally, the Buckeyes' first defensive touchdown of the year, and three field goals by All-American Mike Nugent, were enough for the OSU defense, which allowed only a pair of field goals over the last three quarters. Allen's interception, which was tipped by cornerback Chris Gamble, and subsequent coast-to-coast runback, was the longest interception return in Ohio Stadium history, breaking the old mark of 88 yards, set by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady against Wisconsin in 1954.

San Diego State led 7-3 before Allen gave the Buckeyes the lead for good. In addition to his interception, Allen, a senior from Dayton, also forced a fumble and had six tackles.

Cornerback Dustin Fox led the defense with nine tackles, equaling his career high. Sophomore linebacker A.J. Hawk was in on seven tackles and had three tackles-for-loss and two sacks.

Junior tailback Maurice Hall led all rushers with 91 yards, including a career-long 33-yard jaunt. Hall had a career-high 19 carries and picked up crucial yardage late in the game when the Buckeyes were trying to maintain possession. Nugent made his first two field goals on the day, extending his record for consecutive field goals made in Ohio Stadium to 17, before missing a 28-yard attempt. Following that miss, he began a new streak by hitting from 35 yards out.



Will Allen's 100-yard interception return broke Howard "Hopalong" Cassady's stadium record of 88 yards in 1954 against Wisconsin.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Ohio State prevailed over North Carolina State, 44-38 in triple overtime, running its record to 3-0 and extending its unbeaten string to 17 games in a row. The game was every bit as exciting as the final score would indicate.

The Buckeyes jumped out to a 24-7 lead and seemed in control until turning the ball over with 9:26 to play. That started the ball rolling for N.C. State, which scored 17-unanswered points to tie the score at 24 with 21 seconds left to play.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the first two overtime periods, setting up a dramatic third extra session in which the Buckeyes scored a touchdown, missed the mandatory try for the two-point conversion, and then held on by stopping N.C. State on the half-yard line on fourth down.

In addition to being the first overtime game ever in Ohio Stadium, it was the longest game in Ohio State history, going four hours and 17 minutes from kickoff to the dramatic final play.

Craig Krenzel completed 26-of-36 passes for a career high 273 yards and four passing touchdowns against NC State. He also ran for a touchdown.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel again turned in a stellar performance, hitting 26-of-36 passes for 273 yards and four touchdowns, all career highs. Three of those TD passes came in the overtime periods. Krenzel also ran for a touchdown and was the Buckeyes' leading rusher with 37 yards on 13 carries. Krenzel completed 10 of his 12 aerials in the three overtime periods.

Split end Michael Jenkins and tight end Ben Hartsock each caught seven passes and flanker Drew Carter had six receptions. Jenkins had TD grabs of 44 and 7 yards, the latter in the third overtime on third-and-3. Hartsock had a career high in receptions and grabbed his first touchdown catch of the season in the first OT. Carter also had a career-best day as the OSU offense totaled 317 yards.

Linebacker A.J. Hawk led the OSU defense with a career-high 12 tackles, including two for losses, and had a 55-yard interception return that set up Mike Nugent's 22-yard field goal. Will Allen added nine tackles and recovered a fumble to set up a touchdown by Lydell Ross, giving Ohio State a 14-0 lead with 2:47 to play in the first quarter.

It was Hawk and Allen who teamed up on the final play of the game to preserve the Ohio State victory. With the Wolfpack knocking at the door on fourth-and-goal in the third overtime, Hawk banged heads with T.A. McClendon at the half-yard line. As the two dueled for position like a couple of sumo wrestlers, Allen rushed in and lowered the boom, sending McClendon to the turf just short of the goal line, allowing the 104,890 fans on hand to breathe a collective sigh of relief.

The OSU defense recorded four sacks, two each by tackles Tim Anderson and Darrion Scott.

The Buckeyes also received an outstanding effort from punter B.J. Sander, who averaged 49.4 yards per kick on five punts. Sander dropped four of those punts inside the N.C. State 20.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—On a day when the Mid-American Conference was pulling off upset-after-upset, senior quarterback Scott McMullen filled in for injured regular Craig Krenzel and piloted Ohio State to a hard-fought 24-17 win over visiting Bowling Green.

McMullen got the Buckeyes on the board in the first quarter with a 7-yard touchdown strike to Drew Carter. McMullen, who was making just his second collegiate start and his first since 2001, completed 10 of his 16 pass attempts for 118 yards. One of those tosses, a 46-yarder over the middle to superstar split end Michael Jenkins, set up the Buckeyes' final touchdown, a 3-yard run by Lydell Ross. It was the second TD of the day for Ross, who earlier scored on a 33-yard jaunt on fourth-and-1.

Maurice Hall topped the century mark for the first time in his career with a 107-yard effort against Bowling Green.

The Ohio State offensive line turned in its best performance since the season opener with Washington and, as a result, starting tailback Maurice Hall and Ross combined for 201 yards rushing, including a career-high 107 yards by Hall. Ross carried the ball 22 times and Hall 19.

The Buckeyes led 17-7 at the half and 24-7 in the fourth quarter before Bowling Green mounted a comeback and narrowed the deficit to 24-17. Suddenly the 104,358 fans in Ohio Stadium had visions of the triple-overtime win over North Carolina State in which the Wolfpack battled back from a 24-7 deficit to tie the score with 21 seconds left in the game. Senior safety Will Allen ended the comeback with an interception on the final play of the game.

Linebackers A.J. Hawk and Robert Reynolds and free safety Nate Salley led the Buckeyes in tackles with eight each, a career high for Salley. Hawk, Allen and cornerback Dustin Fox had interceptions for the Buckeyes, who also recorded five tackles-for-loss and four sacks.

The Falcons were held to 50 yards rushing.

Nate Salley had eight tackles against the Falcons.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—After forcing Northwestern to punt on its first possession, Ohio State marched 59 yards in 10 plays to take a quick 7-0 lead. It marked the first time in the 2003 season that the Buckeyes had scored on their opening possession.

Junior tailback Lydell Ross put OSU on the board with a 12-yard run on which he was bottled up inside but bounced outside and raced untouched into the left corner of the north end zone. Quarterback Scott McMullen, making his second consecutive start in place of injured regular Craig Krenzel, completed all four of his passes on the drive.

The Buckeyes also scored on their next possession, taking a 10-0 lead with 4:24 to play in the first quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Mike Nugent. Linebacker Robert Reynolds' fumble recovery gave OSU the ball on the Northwestern 46-yard line.

McMullen made it 17-0 on the opening possession of the second half by flipping a 1-yard scoring strike to tight end Ryan Hamby on third-and-goal. The Wildcats were bunched up in the middle in expectation of an inside power play and Hamby was all alone. The 80-yard march was the longest of the year to date for the Buckeyes.

Nugent completed the scoring with a 42-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter. McMullen and Drew Carter hooked up on a 19-yard pass on the five-play drive.

McMullen completed 16 of his 25 passes for a career-high 166 yards and the one touchdown. Jenkins finished with five catches and moved into fourth place on the all-time Ohio State receiving list. Tight end Ben Hartsock also had five receptions and turned in another impressive game from a blocking standpoint.

Lydell Ross rushed for 43 yards for the Buckeyes who outgained Northwestern 311 to 185 in total yards.

Led by sophomore linebacker A.J. Hawk's career-high 13 tackles, the Buckeyes recorded eight tackles-for-loss and three sacks, never allowing the Wildcats, who crossed midfield on just two occasions, to mount a serious threat.

B.J. Sander averaged 44.6 yards per punt on five kicks and dropped three punts inside the 20.

A.J. Hawk registered a career-high 13 tackles, including two for loss, in the 20-0 shutout against Northwestern.

MADISON, Wis.—The host Badgers reversed a recent trend of visiting teams winning by upsetting the third-ranked Buckeyes, 17-10, in Camp Randall Stadium. Wisconsin scored first on a 2-yard run by Booker Stanley on the first play of the second quarter. Stanley's run capped off a 13-play, 63-yard drive. Ohio State got on the board with 4:02 left in the half on a 24-yard field goal by Mike Nugent.

Wisconsin increased the lead to 10-3 on a 38-yard field goal by Mike Allen with 5:09 to play in the third period.

The Buckeyes tied the game with 6:09 to play on a 6-yard pass from Craig Krenzel to Michael Jenkins. Krenzel, back in action for the first time in three weeks after suffering an elbow injury against North Carolina State, marched the Buckeyes 75 yards in seven plays for the score. The drive included a 46-yard pass to flanker Drew Carter. Two plays later the Buckeyes scored and seemed to recapture the momentum.

But the Badgers yanked the rug out from under the Buckeyes on their next possession with a 79-yard scoring pass from Matt Schabert to Lee Evans. Evans' only catch of the night gave the Badgers the win and ended the Buckeyes' 19-game winning streak.

The Buckeyes wound up with 271 yards in total offense, while Wisconsin had 299. Krenzel completed 14 of his 26 passes for 202 yards, but the Buckeyes were held to 69 yards rushing.

Punter B.J. Sander enjoyed another outstanding game, averaging 44.3 yards on seven punts. Linebacker A.J. Hawk continued his torrid play with 11 tackles, giving him 36 in the last three games.

The game was played in a driving rain storm.

Drew Carter had three catches for 90 yards in Madison.

Craig Krenzel returned to action after missing two games with a sore elbow.

MISSED FIELD GOALS
Ohio State: None. Iowa: None.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—In a classic defensive struggle between two of the Big Ten's top defenses, Ohio State prevailed 19-10. Neither team scored an offensive touchdown. The Buckeyes, who were trying to get back on the winning track after a disappointing loss at Wisconsin, did so by scoring on a 53-yard field goal, a 54-yard punt return, a blocked punt and a safety. Iowa scored on a 36-yard field goal and a 5-yard run on a fake field goal.

The Buckeye defense, which came into the game leading the nation in rushing defense, held the Hawkeyes to 66 yards on the ground, including just 42 by talented tailback Fred Russell.

Iowa was equally stingy, limiting Ohio State to 56 yards rushing and 185 yards of total offense.

The difference in the game was the special teams, OSU scoring for the first time on either a punt return or a blocked punt. Michael Jenkins had the former, fielding the ball near midfield, slipping a tackle and racing into the end zone to give OSU a 10-0 lead. Ohio State had led 3-0 on a 53-yard field goal by Mike Nugent.

Redshirt freshman Roy Hall blocked the punt for the Buckeyes, giving OSU a 17-3 lead midway through the third period. Hall came clean up the middle and blocked the ball at the goal line. Freshman Donte Whitner then fell on the loose ball in the end zone.

The Buckeyes picked up two more points on an errant shotgun snap that sailed through the end zone with 3:03 to play in the game.

Iowa got the ball back one more time, but Chris Gamble assured the Buckeyes of a win with an interception at the OSU 26-yard line.

In a game where offensive yards were hard to come by, senior receiver Drew Carter caught six passes for 95 yards to spark the Buckeyes' aerial game. Carter led both teams in receptions.

The OSU defense was sparked by the play of end Will Smith and tackle Tim Anderson who combined for 4.5 tackles-for-loss and generally wreaked havoc all day long in the Iowa offensive backfield. Safety Will Allen and linebacker A.J. Hawk paced the Buckeyes with seven tackles each.

Punter B.J. Sander again turned in an exceptional performance, averaging 44.8 yards per kick and nailing a 62-yarder in the fourth quarter when the Buckeyes needed to pin the Hawkeyes deep in their own territory.

Nugent's 53-yard field goal was the second longest in Ohio Stadium history by an OSU kicker and the fourth longest ever by a Buckeye.

On his first punt return of the season, Michael Jenkins scampered 54 yards for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-0 lead.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—The Buckeyes lit up the scoreboard in Memorial Stadium, amassing season highs in rushing yards (216), passing yards (387), total offense (603) and first downs (26). The OSU defense, meanwhile, allowed Indiana 131 total yards and completely shut down the Hoosiers' running game, limiting them to a minus 12 yards. The result was a decisive 35-6 Ohio State victory in front of 51,240 fans, many of which were clad in scarlet and gray.

Ohio State took control early, marching 78-yards with the opening drive that was capped off by an 11-yard scoring jaunt by junior tailback Lydell Ross. It was the first of three touchdowns on the day for Ross, who rushed for a career-high 167 yards on 23 carries and was over the 100-yard mark in the first quarter.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel completed 19-of-26 passes for 272 yards and one touchdown and redshirt freshman Santonio Holmes had a breakout game with six receptions for 153 yards a pair of touchdowns. Holmes first TD came with eight seconds left in the first half and gave the Buckeyes a 21-0 lead at intermission. Nickel back Donte Whitner, a true frosh, set up the score with his first career interception.

Holmes closed out the scoring on a 47-yard strike from back-up quarterback Scott McMullen, who completed all five of his pass attempts for 111 yards.

The OSU defense was again led by menacing end Will Smith who recorded two of the Buckeyes' six sacks, resulting in a loss of 18 yards. Sophomore linebacker A.J. Hawk had a team-high five tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Freshman cornerback Ashton Youboty had his best day as a Buckeye with four tackles.

The Buckeyes led 35-0 before the Hoosiers scored.

Lydell Ross rushed for a career high 167 yards and scored three touchdowns at Indiana.

Santonio Holmes had six receptions for 153 yards and two touchdowns against the Hoosiers.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—The Buckeyes jumped off to a quick 7-0 start, scoring on their first drive behind the running of junior tailback Lydell Ross. Ross set the tone early by bolting 31 yards up the left sideline on the Buckeyes' second play from scrimmage. He capped off the 14-play, 74-yard drive with a 1-yard run.

But the Nittany Lions took a 17-7 lead with just over four minutes to play in the first half and appeared to have momentum on their side heading into the locker room. Additionally, OSU quarterback Craig Krenzel suffered a mild concussion just before the half and would be ruled out for the rest of the game.

Enter quarterback Scott McMullen, like Krenzel, a fifth-year senior.

With the Buckeyes' Big Ten title hopes resting squarely on his shoulders, the 6-3 McMullen directed the Buckeyes on a masterful 80-yard scoring drive to open the second half. A 4-yard McMullen to Michael Jenkins TD pass capped off the 12-play drive, which also included a 38-yard completion to flanker Santonio Holmes. The Buckeyes were back in the game at 17-14.

Penn State upped its lead to 20-14 early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard field goal by David Kimball that cleared the cross bar with room to spare.

That's where it stood with 5:55 to play when the Buckeyes took over for the last time at their own 28-yard line. McMullen again answered the challenge, moving the Buckeyes to the Penn State 5-yard line with 1:39 to play. On the next play, the 11th play of the drive, he hit Jenkins on a fade route in the right corner of the end zone and the game was tied. Kicker Mike Nugent gave the Buckeyes the lead for good.

Penn State had one more chance, but Kimball was short and right from 60 yards away on what would have been the game winner.

The win was the Buckeyes first in State College since 1995, snapping a string of seven-consecutive victories by the home team.

McMullen completed 12-of-17 passes for 111 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He hit all seven of his passes on the winning drive – two to Holmes, Hartsock and Jenkins and one to Ross. Holmes and Hartsock each had five catches.

Ross led the OSU ground attack with 110 yards on a career-high 24 carries, his second-consecutive 100-yard game. The Buckeyes had 301 yards in total offense and had scoring drives of 74, 80 and 72 yards.

The OSU defense recorded a season-best 10 tackles-for-loss, including three by All-America defensive end Will Smith. Cornerback Dustin Fox and safety Nate Salley each had nine tackles to pace the Buckeyes.

Scott McMullen came off the bench to throw two scoring strikes in the Buckeyes' come-from-behind win in State College.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Buoyed by the passing of quarterback Craig Krenzel and the running of tailback Lydell Ross on offense and a defense that almost inexplicably seems to get better each week, the Buckeyes downed visiting Michigan State 33-23 in front of 105,184 fans in Ohio Stadium.

Krenzel, who sat out the second half with a mild concussion, of the Penn State game, was the one dishing out headaches against MSU, completing 12-of-23 passes for 213 yards and three touchdowns in the win over the Spartans. The 6-4 signal caller hooked up with tight end Ben Hartsock and flanker Santonio Holmes on touchdown passes of 17 and 37 yards, respectively, as the Buckeyes built a 17-7 lead at halftime. He then opened the second half by directing an 80-yard march that concluded with a 2-yard scoring toss to tight end Ryan Hamby.

Ross keyed the ground game with 125 yards on 24 carries, all but 11 of those yards coming in the second half. It was the third consecutive 100-yard game for the 6-1, 220-pound junior.

Kicker Mike Nugent had an All-America day, connecting on all four of his field goal attempts, including a pair of three pointers in the fourth quarter to give OSU a little breathing room at 33-17 with 5:18 to play.

Ohio State had 395 yards in total offense against the 14th-ranked Spartans – 213 through the air and 182 on the ground.

The Ohio State defense was again spectacular, limiting the Spartans and quarterback Jeff Smoker to 378 total yards, including just 5 on the ground. Michigan State, which had 174 yards on its first three drives, had just 204 yards the rest of the way. The Spartans managed a scant 99 yards of total offense in the second half.

Linebacker Robert Reynolds had a team-high 10 tackles and A.J. Hawk, the Buckeyes' leading tackler on the season, added seven. Defensive end Darrion Scott, rounding back into form after being sidelined with a sprained ankle, added a pair of sacks to the OSU cause.

Mike Nugent hit all four of his field goal attempts, including two in the fourth quarter that put more distance between the Buckeyes and Spartans.

Darrion Scott had a pair of sacks against the Spartans.

COLUMBUS, Ohio—The Buckeyes closed out the home season with a 16-13 overtime win over Purdue in Ohio Stadium, extending their home-field winning streak to 16 games, including a perfect 8-0 mark in 2003. It was the second overtime victory of the year for Coach Jim Tressel's never-say-die squad.

A spectacular kicking game and a stellar defense fueled the victory.

Punter B.J. Sander was brilliant, punting 10 times and pinning Purdue inside its own 10-yard line on five of those kicks. Place kicker Mike Nugent connected on three field goals, including one of 52 yards at the end of the half and the game winner from 36 yards out in the overtime.

The OSU defense forced a pair of turnovers and scored the Buckeyes' lone touchdown of the day.

B.J. Sander was the Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week after pinning Purdue inside the 5-yard line five times on 10 punts. Two others landed inside the 10.

The two teams were tied at 6-all at the half. Ohio State took its first lead with 11:23 to play in the fourth quarter when defensive aces Will Smith and Tim Anderson stripped Purdue quarterback Kyle Orton of the ball. The Buckeyes' Mike Kudla recovered it in the end zone for a 13-6 OSU lead.

But Purdue tied it at 13-all on an eight-play, 92-yard drive with 4:36 to play and the game went to overtime.

After Nugent calmly split the uprights from 36 yards out, the Boilers missed a game-tying attempt from 37 yards away and the Buckeyes chalked up their 24th win in their last 25 starts.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel completed 15 of his 29 passes for 226 yards, with Michael Jenkins hauling in six receptions for 123 yards. Lydell Ross rushed for 79 yards for the Buckeyes who totaled 355 yards against a veteran Purdue defense.

Cornerback Dustin Fox had 10 tackles, including nine solos, for the Buckeyes and Robert Reynolds added eight stops. Defensive end Will Smith had 2.5 tackles for loss and one of the Buckeyes' two sacks. The Buckeyes were credited with seven tackles-for-loss.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Playing in front of an NCAA record crowd of 112,118 in mega-jammed Michigan Stadium, Michigan jumped out to a 21-0 lead and went on to defeat Ohio State 35-21 in the 100th meeting between the two football giants.

In a surprising display of offense by both teams, Michigan rolled up 448 yards and Ohio State countered with 383 of its own.

Trailing by three touchdowns, the Buckeyes showed their grit by marching 81 yards on 12 plays just before halftime, cutting the deficit to 21-7 on an 8-yard pass from Craig Krenzel to flanker Santonio Holmes.

Michigan came right back on its first possession of the second half and took a 28-7 lead on a 30-yard run by tailback Chris Perry, one of two TDs on the day by the senior standout.

Ohio State then rallied with a pair of touchdowns to shave the lead to 28-21 with 13:53 to play in the game. A second Krenzel-to-Holmes pass and a 2-yard run by Lydell Ross accounted for the OSU scoring. The latter was set up by a 40-yard toss from Scott McMullen to Holmes. McMullen was pressed into action after Krenzel went down with an injury to his left shoulder.

When the Buckeyes' Chris Gamble intercepted a John Navarre pass on Michigan's next possession, momentum appeared to be on Ohio State's side. But the Wolverines' defense forced a punt and the offense then marched 88 yards in eight plays to take a 35-21 lead with 7:55 to play on a 15-yard run by Perry. Neither team scored again and the Wolverines had snapped a two-game losing streak at the hands of the Buckeyes.

Ohio State, held to 118 yards in the first half, rolled up 265 yards after intermission to get back in the game.

Krenzel threw for 221 yards a pair of touchdowns, but missed much of the fourth quarter because of his injury. While Krenzel was out, the always dependable McMullen completed 8-of-13 passes for 108 yards.

OSU split end Michael Jenkins had nine catches for 132 yards and Holmes hauled in eight for 121 yards and the two touchdowns..

The Ohio State defense was paced by senior strong safety Will Allen, who recorded a career-high 14 tackles. Free safety Nate Salley added 11 tackles.

Punter B.J. Sander was again sensational, averging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Santonio Holmes caught eight passes for 121 yards and two touchdowns in the 100th game against Michigan.

Will Allen had 14 tackles at Michigan.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State found itself back in the dessert or more specifically Sun Devil Stadium, the same venue where it won its seventh national championship in a thrilling double-overtime victory against the Miami Hurricanes. This year though, the stakes were not as high in the school's first-ever meeting against Kansas State, the champion of the Big 12 Conference.

Craig Krenzel improved to an amazing 24-3 in his career as a starter for Ohio State as the Buckeyes claimed a 35-28 victory in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl against the Wildcats in front of 73,425 fans. Krenzel overcame two first quarter interceptions to complete 11-of-24 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns, finding both Michael Jenkins and Santonio Holmes for two scoring strikes each. He earned his second straight Fiesta Bowl Offensive MVP honor.

The Buckeyes stormed out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, but could not get into the end zone until a huge play on special teams. The defense forced Kansas State to punt for the third time of the game. Harlen Jacobs blocked Jared Brite's punt and John Hollins scooped it up and ran 7 yards to give the Buckeyes a 7-0 lead with 6:41 to play in the first quarter.

The defense held strong again on the next Wildcat possession, keeping them inside their own 10-yard line. Ohio State took control in Kansas State territory following its fourth punt of the game and marched 43 yards on six plays to take a 14-0 lead when Krenzel hit a streaking Holmes who was running from left to right across the back of the end zone with 2:49 to play in the opening quarter.

The third Buckeye score was set up by the Buckeye defense, which blitzed on the first play of Kansas State's second possession of the second quarter. Chris Gamble picked off Wildcat quarterback El Roberson at the KSU 17-yard line and on the first next play Jenkins caught a touchdown pass from Krenzel to put the Buckeyes up 21-0 with 6:49 to play in the first half. The lead was the first time Ohio State had led 21-0 in a bowl game and tied for the largest lead in a bowl game.

Kansas State moved 70 yards in 11 plays to post its first points of the game. Darren Sproles took the option pitch 6 yards to cap the scoring drive that made the score 21-7. That was the score at the half. Ohio State outgained the Wildcats 168 yards to 96, getting 94 yards through the air and another 74 yards on the ground.

After forcing Ohio State to punt after it first possession staled at the OSU 28, Kansas State put together another 70-yard march that pulled the Wildcats within a 21-14 score with 8:59 to play in the third quarter. Roberson provided the score, faking a handoff up the middle and then running around the left side for a 14-yard scoring run.

With Kansas State right back in the game, Krenzel and Jenkins teamed up to again extend the Buckeye lead. Krenzel hit Jenkins for 64 yards on a 74-yard scoring drive, including a 37-yard reception that moved Jenkins ahead of David Boston to the top of the career passing yardage list at Ohio State. Jenkins hauled in an 8-yard touchdown in the right corner of the end zone to go up 28-14 with 4:53 to play in the third quarter.

The defense held the Wildcats to 3-and-out on its next possession and after a punt gave the ball back to the Buckeyes, which moved the ball down the field rush after rush before surprising Kansas State on 1st-and-10 with a 31-yard touchdown pass down the middle of the field to Holmes, who managed to drag both feet in the back of the end zone to give the Buckeyes a 35-14 lead with 37 seconds to play in the third.

Maurice Mack returned the ensuing kickoff 37 yards to the OSU 46 and then eight plays later, Ayo Saba carried 3 yards for the Kansas State's third score of the game to pull within two touchdowns, 35-21 with 13:25 to play in the game.

The Wildcats drove to the OSU 13-yard line on their next possession, but a 2-yard loss followed by a 15-yard personal foul moved them back to the 28-yard line. Joe Rheem attempted a 45-yard field goal but it hit the left upright and gave the ball back to Ohio State. The Buckeyes though went 3-and-out and punted the ball back to Kansas State.

Roberson led the attack, passing for all but one of the 74 yards of the scoring drive. He held onto the ball himself for a 1-yard score that pulled them within a touchdown, 35-28 with 2:47 to play. Kansas State went for the on-side kick and recovered the ball on the OSU 49-yard line, but the Wildcats were flagged for being off side, forcing them to kick again. This time though, Bobby Carpenter ran up on the ball and smothered it giving possession to Ohio State.

Ohio State took a delay-of-game penalty after reaching the KSU 35-yard line and B.J. Sander's punt pinned the Wildcats at their 10-yard line with 1:12 to play. Roberson connected on passes for 21 and 26 yards to moved down to the OSU 48 and then he picked up another yard on a 1-yard run. He spiked the ball with nine seconds to play and then with five seconds heaved a Hail Mary pass toward Devin Dennis near the end zone, where it was batted down by Buckeye safety Nate Salley.

Michael Jenkins became OSU's all-time leader in receiving yardage in the win over Kansas State.

Ohio Stadium – Home of the Buckeyes

Nestled snugly on the banks of the Olentangy River, stately Ohio Stadium is one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of college athletics.

Built in 1922 at a cost of $1.3 million and renovated in 2001 at a cost of nearly $194 million, the horseshoe-shaped structure is now in its 83rd year as the home of Buckeye football.

With its present seating capacity of 101,568, Ohio Stadium is the fourth largest on-campus facility in the nation. Since the opening game against Ohio Wesleyan on Oct. 7, 1922, more than 36 million fans have streamed through the stadium's portals.

Attending games in Ohio Stadium has become a Saturday afternoon ritual for Ohio State fans, who flock to the parking lots early to enjoy the gala atmosphere and pageantry that surrounds each and every game.

In eight home games last year, the Buckeyes set a single-season attendance record of 838,963, marking the second consecutive year that record has been rewritten.

From 1951 to 1973, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times, including the 14 consecutive years from 1958 to 1971. Since 1949, Ohio State has never been lower than fourth nationally in average home attendance.

Unique in its double-deck horseshoe design, Ohio Stadium is both intimate and intimidating. The closeness of the seating provides a definite home-field advantage for the Buckeyes, at the same time allowing fans to view the game from unobstructed vantage points. As part of the renovation, there are now 81 hospitality suites and 2,625 club seats on the west side of the stadium. All the seats are good, including the 17,000 in the new and permanent south stands.

Prior to the construction of Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes played their games at Ohio Field. The demand for a new stadium came about during the "Harley Years" – 1916, '17 and '19, when Charles "Chic" Harley became the Buckeyes' first three-time All-American.

With the echoes of Harley's legendary feats ringing throughout the state, local businessmen set about the task of raising money for a new stadium. They did so quickly, raising almost all of the $1.3 million through private donations, and construction began in 1920.

Skeptics scoffed at the thought of a 66,000-seat venue, but they were quickly quieted when an overflow crowd of 71,138 showed up for the dedication game against Michigan on Oct. 21, 1922.

Numerous upgrades have been made over the years, including the installation of artificial turf in 1970. The latter was made possible through the generous donation of Lou Fischer, who played for the Buckeyes and Coach Woody Hayes in 1950 and '51.

A new scoreboard with state-of-the-art graphics and statistical information was added in 1984 at a cost of $2.4 million, or nearly twice that of the original stadium.

The artificial surface was replaced with natural grass in 1990. The Buckeyes currently play on P.A.T. a natural grass surface with a state-of-the-art draining system that keeps the field playable even under the worst conditions.

In 1999, the stadium underwent a three-year face-lift that was completed in time for the season opener against Akron in 2001. Thanks to a creative financing plan, no university or student monies were used during the renovation process. Instead the sale of the hospitality suites and club seats, covered 80 percent of the cost, with the remainder being covered by naming-rights gifts, monies from additional ticket availability, increased concessions and merchandise revenues and bonds.

As a result of that renovation, the Stadium is completely up to code in terms of disability seating. Additionally, aisles have been widened, rails have been added and lighting has been installed in the concourses. There are also many more restrooms and concession stands on all levels.

The stadium also has been the site of several summer concerts, including performances by Pink Floyd and the Rolling Stones.

Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Places. Anyone who has seen a game in the giant horseshoe understands why. There are few experiences in athletics that are more enjoyable!

Ohio State heads into the 2004 campaign with a string of 14 consecutive crowds of at least 100,000.

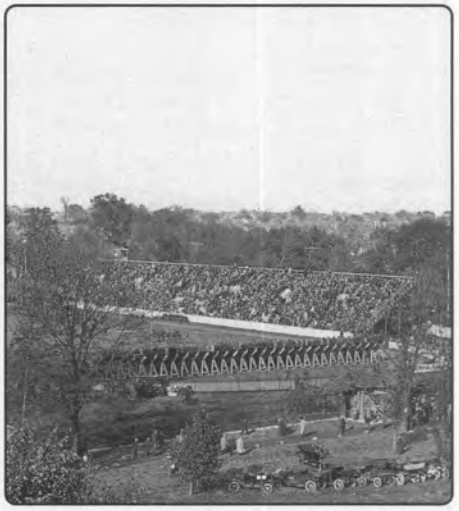
Prior to 1984, the OSU scoreboards were located in the southeast (shown here) and southwest corners of the stadium. There also was a third scoreboard at the north end of the Horseshoe.

The wrought iron entrance gates feature a block O pattern.

Ohio Stadium — Home of the Buckeyes

The rotunda entrance, one of the preserved areas of the stadium, was modeled after the classical architecture of the Pantheon in Rome. It features three stained glass windows, installed prior to the 2001 season.

Personalized bricks are a new addition to the stadium.



Prior to Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes played their games at Ohio Field.

The 2,625 club seats on the West side of the stadium were a key to financing the massive project.

History and Tradition

The History of Ohio State Football

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football:"
"Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history." Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football."

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

1899

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

In 1890, Alexander S. Lilley was named Ohio State's first head football coach.

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reigns.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for "deluxe" games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song "Across the Field." The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

1922

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenent Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kickoffs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 38-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenent Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

1955

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassady becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1966

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

The History of Ohio State Football

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

Archie Griffin became the first two-time Hesiman Trophy winner in 1975.

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

1987

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

The History of Ohio State Football

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath and Eddie George, Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987. The three-year, $194 million stadium renovation is completed.

2002

Ohio State captures the school's seventh national championship and the Big Ten's first unanimous crown since 1968 by compiling a 14-0 record and defeating Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3. The 14 victories set an NCAA Division I-A record. The Buckeyes begin the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, but gradually work their way up to the No. 2 spot prior to their showdown with the previously unbeaten and top-ranked Hurricanes. Their double-overtime victory over Miami is typical of a heart-pounding season in which they win five games by six points or less. Quarterback Craig Krenzel and two-way star Chris Gamble, who starts at both flanker and cornerback for the Buckeyes, share team MVP honors. Additionally, Krenzel is selected as the offensive MVP of the bowl game, while teammate Mike Doss is the defensive honoree.

The Buckeyes began the season by winning their first five games and extending their winning streak to 19 games – the second longest in school history. A 17-10 setback at Wisconsin ended that streak. The Buckeyes also played the first ever overtime game in Ohio Stadium, a 44-38 triple overtime victory over visiting North Carolina State. It was the longest game in OSU history, lasting 4 hours and 17 minutes from kickoff to final gun. OSU won its second consecutive BCS game with a 35-28 win over Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl.

Ohio State wins the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the National Championship.

Ohio State's quest for the 2002 national championship literally began on the first day of the year. Trailing South Carolina, 28-0, midway through the third quarter of the Outback Bowl on New Year's Day 2002, the Buckeyes rallied with 28 unanswered points to tie the stunned Gamecocks with just over two minutes left in the game. South Carolina would go on to win, 31-28, on a last-second field goal, but it was the Buckeyes who walked off the field feeling good about the game.

"The second half of that game taught us we could compete with anybody if we believed in each other and just did our jobs," said All-America strong safety Mike Doss. "Afterwards, in the locker room, we didn't talk about the loss, we talked about how good we could be next year."

Shortly thereafter, Doss bolstered OSU's chances for the future by announcing he would return for his senior year rather than opt for early entry into the NFL draft.

"I thought we had the makings of something special and I wanted to be part of it," he said. "We believed in ourselves, we believed in Coach (Jim) Tressel and we believed, with hard work, we could be national champions."

In true Hollywood fashion, the Buckeyes did just that, literally coming from out of nowhere to post an improbable – at least in the eyes of many — 14-0 record and capture the Big Ten's first undisputed national championship since 1968.

They did so thanks to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime victory over top-ranked and heavily favored Miami on Jan. 3 in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The win over the Hurricanes, who entered the championship fray with a 34-game winning streak, followed a 14-9 nail-biter over Michigan in the regular-season finale. That game also went down to the wire, the Buckeyes locking up a bid to Tempe when nickel back Will Allen intercepted a Michigan pass at the two-yard line as time expired.

But it was that kind of a season, filled with close games and come-from-behind victories. And even though there were times when victory seemed impossible, the 2002 team, led by a group of 13 gritty seniors, always, always found a way to win.

Not once did they give up on themselves. Not at Cincinnati when the Bearcats were driving late for what looked like the winning touchdown. Not at Purdue, when they faced fourth-and-one on the Following the season, the Buckeyes were invited to the White House for Champions Day. After having their picture taken with President George W. Bush, OSU punter Andy Groom presented the President with a Buckeye helmet.

37 with 1:42 to play. Not against Penn State, when they just didn't seem to be able to get anything going offensively. Not at Illinois, when the Illini scored on the final play of the game to force overtime. Not against Michigan, when they trailed 9-7 late in the fourth quarter. Not even against Miami in the face of a seemingly impossible fourth-and-14 in the first overtime.

The win over Michigan sent Ohio State to the Tostitos Fiesta bowl.

This was a group that believed in itself and understood the importance of teamwork and chemistry. It was a team in every sense of the word. And because it was, Tressel's squad won a remarkable seven games by seven or fewer points.

There were, of course, numerous standouts.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel, for example, performed better than anyone had a right to expect in his first year as a starter. Time-and-again the 6-4 redhead came up with a key play to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat. A molecular genetics major, Krenzel could beat you with his arm or his legs, but more often than not he won games with his head and an amazing coolness under fire.

Then, there was sophomore sensation Chris Gamble, who started the final six games of the season at both flanker and cornerback, becoming the first two-way starter in nearly 30 years at Ohio State. Gamble, who played 100 or more plays in each of the last four games, was second on the team in receptions and first in interceptions. In his spare time, he also returned punts and kickoffs.

Krenzel and Gamble were picked by their teammates as Co-MVPs of the 2002 Buckeyes and Krenzel was the Offensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl.

Banged up much of the year, especially up front, the Ohio State offense somehow always found a way to score when it had to.

In addition to Doss at strong safety and Matt Wilhelm at middle linebacker, the stout-hearted Buckeye defense also boasted the finest front-four in all of college football in ends Will Smith and Darrion Scott and tackles Tim Anderson and Kenny Peterson.

Thanks to the defense, which finished second nationally in scoring defense and third nationally in rushing defense, the Buckeyes were in every game.

Doss, the Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, earned first team All-America honors, becoming the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State history. So did Wilhelm after leading the team in tackles (121) and tackles for loss (19.5).

Additionally, punter Andy Groom and kicker Mike Nugent were first team All-Americans and gave the Buckeyes a tremendous boost in the kicking game. Nugent, only a sophomore, set eight school records and tied another.

Led by All-Americans John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon, Jack Tatum and Mike Sensibaugh, the Ohio State Buckeyes claimed the Big Ten title and their most recent national championship, the National Football Foundation crown, with a 9-1 record.

The national championship was Woody Hayes' fifth with the Buckeyes and the Big Ten championship was the third in a string of nine championships in 10 years. Some say the senior class of 1970 may have been the school's greatest ever. In three years, the team won 27 of 29 games, three Big Ten championships and a pair of national championships.

OSU rolled through the regular season 9-0 with a 7-0 Big Ten mark, but stumbled in a 27-17 loss to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Still, the NFF selected the Buckeyes No. 1, while UPI had OSU No. 2 and the Associated Press had the Buckeyes No. 5.

Brockington led the OSU offense with 1,142 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. Quarterback Rex Kern passed for 470 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 597 yards and seven touchdowns. Jan White was the team leader with 17 catches for 171 yards.

Tatum, Stillwagon and Sensibaugh led a defense that allowed only 263.2 yards per game and forced 32 turnovers. Stan White led the team with 106 tackles.

Ohio State opened the season with a 56-13 romp over the Texas A&M Aggies in front of 85,657 fans in Columbus. OSU totaled 513 yards of offense to only 321 for the Aggies. Seven different players found paydirt for the Scarlet and Gray.

In week two, the Buckeyes dropped their second non-conference opponent with a 34-10 win over the visiting Duke Blue Devils. Ohio State once again dominated the statistics with 481 yards to 249 for the Blue Devils. Leo Hayden rushed for 165 yards while Brockington and Kern added 117 and 113 each.

The Hayes-led Buckeyes rolled through the Big Ten schedule. OSU opened with a 29-0 win over Michigan State in East Lansing followed by a 28-8 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers. In the Minnesota game, Brockington rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns.

One week later, the Buckeyes' offense rolled up the big numbers in a 48-29 win at Illinois. Brockington scored three times in the game and Ohio State totaled 475 yards of total offense.

Ohio State continued with wins over Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue. In the Northwestern game, Brockington rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown, while Kern rushed for a pair of scores. Brockington added three more scores a week later against the Badgers and he scored the Buckeyes' only touchdown in the Purdue game.

In an emotional Michigan game, Ohio State, much to the delight of a delerious Ohio Stadium crowd, avenged their only loss of 1969, downing the Wolverines 20-9. OSU limited the Wolverines to 155 yards and 10 first downs.

In the Rose Bowl, Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett led Stanford to 14 fourth-quarter points to clinch a victory. Plunkett was 20-of-30 for 265 yards and a touchdown. It was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect season.

1968 National Champions

Led by an amazing class of sophomores that included quarterback Rex Kern, defensive back Jack Tatum and defensive lineman Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State rolled to a 10-0 record and the 1968 National Championship when it defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 27-16.

The team compiled numbers that boggle the mind and beat teams it wasn't supposed to beat. The Woody Hayes-led squad averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game, impressive numbers for that time, and the defense was stingy, allowing 15 points and 292 yards.

Eleven players from the team earned All-America honors during their careers and six were drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in either 1969 or 1971.

Jim Otis led the Buckeyes' rushing attack with 985 yards and 17 touchdowns, while Kern was the passing leader with 972 yards and seven touchdowns. Sensibaugh led the defense with five interceptions and Mark Stier recorded 87 tackles.

The unknown and young Buckeyes opened the season at home with a 35-14 victory over Southern Methodist. Despite an NCAA record performance from SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson, the Buckeye defense forced six turnovers and allowed only 50 yards on the ground.

OSU then rolled past Oregon 21-6 before playing perhaps the most important game of the season. With a 2-0 record, but still a questionable reputation, the Buckeyes hosted the No. 1-ranked Purdue Boilermakers. It was this game that probably made the biggest difference in the season.

The Ohio State defense throttled a Purdue offense led by All-America candidates Mike Phipps and Leroy Keyes, allowing only 186 yards and no points. The defense also scored the Buckeyes' first touchdown as Ted Provost picked off a Phipps pass and cruised 35 yards into the end zone. Quarterback Bill Long added a 14-yard run in the third quarter giving the Buckeyes a 13-0 victory and a piece of the national limelight.

From that point on, the momentum snowballed. The next week Hayes' squad drilled Northwestern 45-21 in Columbus on the strength of 565 yards of total offense. On Oct. 26 it was the Fighting Illini that took it on the chin when Kern and Otis combined for 129 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as OSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa before hosting the Michigan Wolverines Nov. 23 in Ohio Stadium. In a game that clinched the Big Ten championship and a Rose Bowl berth, the Buckeyes scored 29 second-half points for a 50-14 win. Otis had 143 yards on the ground and four touchdowns and Kern added 96 yards and two scores as OSU tallied 421 yards and seven TDs on the ground.

The win over Michigan set up a showdown between No. 1 OSU and No. 2 Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

In one of the great games of all time in Pasadena, OSU overcame a 10-0 deficit and rolled to a 27-16 win. Though he scored on an 80-yard run, Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson was held to 91 yards on 27 carries the rest of the way.

1961 National Champions

National Champions — Football Writers; Won 8, Lost 0, Tied 1

Led by an explosive offense that averaged nearly 30 points per Big Ten game, the Buckeyes won their 10th undisputed Big Ten championship and were awarded the Football Writers' Association national championship.

The Buckeyes scored 40 or more points two times and passed the 30-point plateau one other time. Just as they had in 1957 with an 18-14 win in Columbus, Texas Christian's Horned Frogs denied the Buckeyes a perfect season with a 7-all tie, but it was the only time all season an opponent was within one touchdown of the mighty Scarlet and Gray.

The offense was led by three outstanding running backs (Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson and Paul Warfield). Ferguson led the Big Ten in rushing with 671 yards in conference games, while Warfield was fourth with 307 in Big Ten contests. Ferguson finished his career ranked second on the OSU all-time rushing list with 2,162 yards and was runner up to Ernie Davis for the Heisman Trophy that year.

Still, the Buckeyes did not play in the Rose Bowl when the OSU Faculty Council voted to reject the bid. The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 2 in both the UPI and AP polls, one slot behind Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide.

After the TCU tie, the Buckeyes defeated the eventual Pac-8 Champions, UCLA, 13-3 in Columbus. OSU scored all 13 points in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns by Snell and Warfield. While the offense took its time getting warmed up, the defense was smoking, holding the high-powered Bruin offense to 166 yards and a field goal.

One week later, the Buckeyes destroyed Illinois 44-0, outgaining the Illini 424-180 and forcing four turnovers. Eight Buckeyes rushed for 10 or more yards in the game, including quarterback John Mummey (63) and Warfield (62). Ferguson totaled only 45 yards on the ground, but had four scores.

The Buckeyes beat Northwestern and Wisconsin before hosting a homecoming thriller against the Iowa Hawkeyes. Holding a slim 12-7 lead at the end of the third period, the Buckeyes scored on each of their first three possessions in the final stanza to tally a 29-13 win and keep their undefeated season intact. Ferguson rushed for 144 yards and a score and Joe Sparma passed for 88 yards and two scores, both to Charles Bryant, who caught four passes for 94 yards.

Hayes' squad posted wins over Indiana and Oregon for wins six and seven before traveling to Ann Arbor for the annual battle with arch-rival Michigan.

OSU led 21-12 entering the fourth quarter. The Buckeye offense then exploded for 29 points and a 50-20 win. Ferguson rushed for 152 yards and four touchdowns and Warfield added 122 yards and a score as OSU totaled 512 yards of offense in chalking up all-time win No. 400.

After being stunned in the season opener by Texas Christian (18-14), Ohio State rolled to a 9-1 record and the UPI and Football Writers' national championships.

This edition of the Buckeyes had everything, including an offense ranked 11th nationally and a defense that allowed only 9.2 points per game. Don Clark led the rushing attack with 655 yards and eight touchdowns, but seven players had at least 195 yards rushing and nine Buckeyes scored touchdowns. Ohio State was particularly tough late in the game as it allowed only six points in the fourth quarter all season.

Clark, Aurealius Thomas and Leo Brown earned All-Big Ten recognition and Thomas was an All-American for Woody Hayes' second national championship team. Jim Parker was drafted in the first round by the Baltimore Colts after the season.

Following the loss to the Horned Frogs, the Buckeyes went on the road to battle the Washington Huskies and came away with a 35-7 victory. A week later, the Buckeyes opened the Big Ten season with a 21-7 win over Illinois and followed that win with a 56-0 pasting of the Indiana Hoosiers.

OSU faced a stern test the next week at Wisconsin, but came out on top, 16-13. Don Sutherin's third-quarter field goal provided the margin of victory.

After relatively easier wins over Northwestern and Purdue, the Buckeyes had their hands full in week eight against Iowa. Trailing 13-10 in the fourth quarter, OSU put together a patented Hayes march that culminated with a 5-yard touchdown plunge by Bob White and a 17-13 triumph.

The next week OSU headed north to Ann Arbor to battle Michigan. The Buckeyes trailed 14-10 entering the second half, but took control after intermission and downed the Wolverines 31-14 to earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After the win over the vaunted Wolverines, the Buckeyes met Pac-8 Champion Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes scored first, when Frank Kremblas scored on a 1-yard dive over the center, but the Ducks tied the score with a 5-yard run in the second quarter. The game remained tied through the third quarter and into the fourth, but the quarter that was so kind to the Buckeyes all season was good once again.

On a drive that started with more than five minutes remaining in the third period, the Buckeyes drove 56 yards in 14 plays to take a 10-7 lead on a 34-yard field goal by the sure-footed Sutherin.

From then on, it was the defense as the Ducks were unable to get an offensive attack going and the Buckeyes grabbed their third national championship.

Williams, Dillman, Thomas, Nussbaum, Quinn, Howley, Humbert, Ebiner, Frank, Sommers, Blazeff, Robson, Kriss, Ellwood, Theis, Ramser.

It didn't take Woody Hayes long to put his mark on the Ohio State Buckeyes. In his fourth season at the OSU helm, Hayes pushed his team to the limit and came away with the ultimate prize, his first national championship.

It would be the first of five for Hayes, who won 205 games at OSU. His 1954 team was the first in Ohio State history to win 10 games and had one of the Buckeyes' best players in Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Cassady, who won the Heisman trophy the next season, accounted for 849 yards and earned first-team All-America honors in 1954. He led the team with 609 rushing yards and 12 receptions. End Dean Dugger also earned All-America honors and four other players earned All-Big Ten recognition, as the Buckeyes ran roughshod over their opponents that season, outscoring the opposition 249-75.

The defense was led by Jim Parker, who became an All-America guard the next two years, won the Outland Trophy as a senior and was a first round NFL draft pick of the Baltimore Colts. On the year, Ohio State held its foes to 7.5 points and 110 rushing yards per game, recovered 17 fumbles and had 18 interceptions and did not give up more than two touchdowns in a game.

OSU opened the season with a 28-0 victory over Indiana in Columbus. Quarterback Will Leggett rushed for 45 yards and passed for another 64 to lead the way.

The Buckeyes defeated western powerhouse Cal 21-13 the next week in Columbus as Cassady rushed for 104 yards and had touchdown runs of 29 and 26 yards. He also led the squad with four catches for 50 yards.

OSU drilled Illinois 40-7 the next week and then beat Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern in its next three outings. Robert Watkins had a pair of big games in that span, rushing for 112 and 105 against Illinois and Iowa, respectively.

Wins over the Pitt Panthers, 26-0, and the Purdue Boilermakers, 28-6, preceeded the annual Michigan finale.

The Buckeyes and the Wolverines battled to a 7-all tie through the first three quarters and neither team could gain an edge. But, led by the running of Cassady and the passing of Leggett, Ohio State scored 14 fourth-quarter points for a 21-7 victory. Cassady ended the day with 94 rushing yards while Leggett had 42 and 58 yards passing. Leggett accounted for the first two Buckeye scores with passes to Frederick Kriss and Richard Brubaker, and Cassady iced the game with a 1-yard dive late in the game. Ohio State was 9-0 and headed to Pasadena.

The Rose Bowl was a titanic battle between the Scarlet and Gray and the Southern California Trojans. The Buckeyes played flawless football with 22 first downs, 370 yards and no fumbles lost, and they rolled to a 20-7 victory over the Trojans who had seven fumbles and just six first downs.

National Champions — Associated Press; Won 9, Lost 1

It was an amazing squad that grabbed the national title with an overwhelming offense and a smothering defense.

Coached by hall of famer Paul Brown, the offense averaged 33.7 points while piling up 281.2 rushing yards per game and 5.2 yards per carry. The defense, on the other hand, allowed only 114 points and held its opponents to seven or fewer points four times in the 10-game season.

End Robert Shaw, tackle Chuck Csuri and guard Lindell Houston earned All-America honors, and seven players earned All-Big Ten accolades. It was truly a team of stars. Fullbacks Gene Fekete and Paul Sarringhaus were among the conference leaders in rushing with 916 and 672 yards, respectively. Fekete led the Big Ten in scoring with 92 points, while Sarringhaus was second with 72. On defense, George James and Tom Lynn each ranked among the Top 10 in the Big Ten with five interceptions.

The amazingly talented team rolled through the regular season with only a single blemish (a 17-7 loss to Wisconsin) and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

OSU opened the 1942 season with a 59-0 pasting of Fort Knox. Fekete and Dick Palmer scored two touchdowns each as the Buckeyes rolled up 440 yards rushing to minus-14 for the service squad. The Buckeyes had 19 first downs to only one for Fort Knox. OSU poured it on in the second half with 20 points in both the third and fourth quarters.

Ohio State battled Big Ten rival Indiana the next week, grabbing a 32-21 win in front of the home crowd. Fekete rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes back from a 21-19 third-period deficit to victory.

OSU rolled to easy wins over USC, Purdue and Northwestern before making the trip to Madison for the battle with the Badgers. In that game, Wisconsin All-Americans Elroy Hirsch, Marlin Harder and Dave Schreiner dominated the Buckeyes, with Hirsch and Harder combining for 212 yards and 11 points. OSU narrowly avoided a shutout with a fourth-quarter touchdown run by Sarringhaus.

The Buckeyes rebounded from the loss with a 59-19 dismantling of the Pittsburgh Panthers. A week later, they pounded Illinois to set up a showdown with the Michigan Wolverines. The Wolverines, who had beaten Notre Dame a week earlier, were heavy favorites, but the Buckeyes dazzled the Maize and Blue with three passing touchdowns and prevailed 21-7. The win gave them the Big Ten title.

One week later, the Buckeyes clinched the national championship with a 41-12 win over the Iowa Seahawks.

Woody Hayes

Head Coach, 1951-1978

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice the Buckeyes won a conference record 17-consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America honors. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six-consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

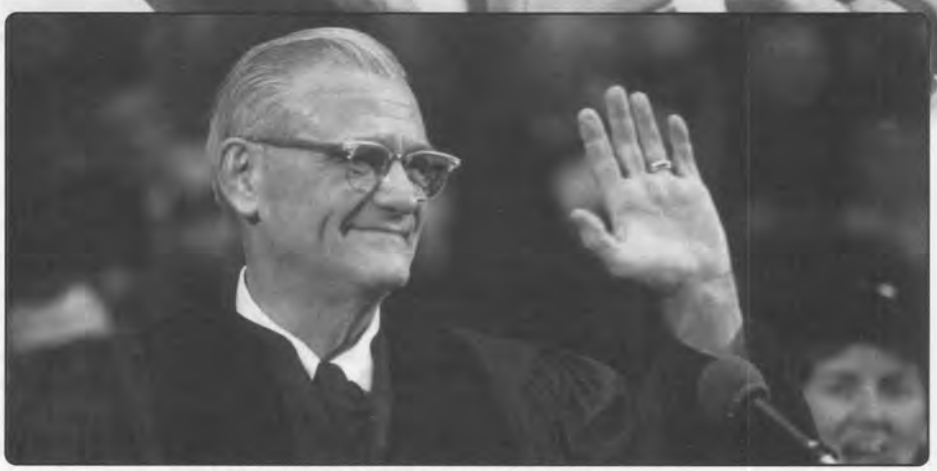
The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the offseason. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.



Hayes gave a stirring Winter Quarter commencement address in 1986.

For 28 years he was the heart and soul of Ohio State Football. A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched more than a few lives along the way.

Won 205 overall and 152 conference games

Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls)

Took Ohio State to four-consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75)

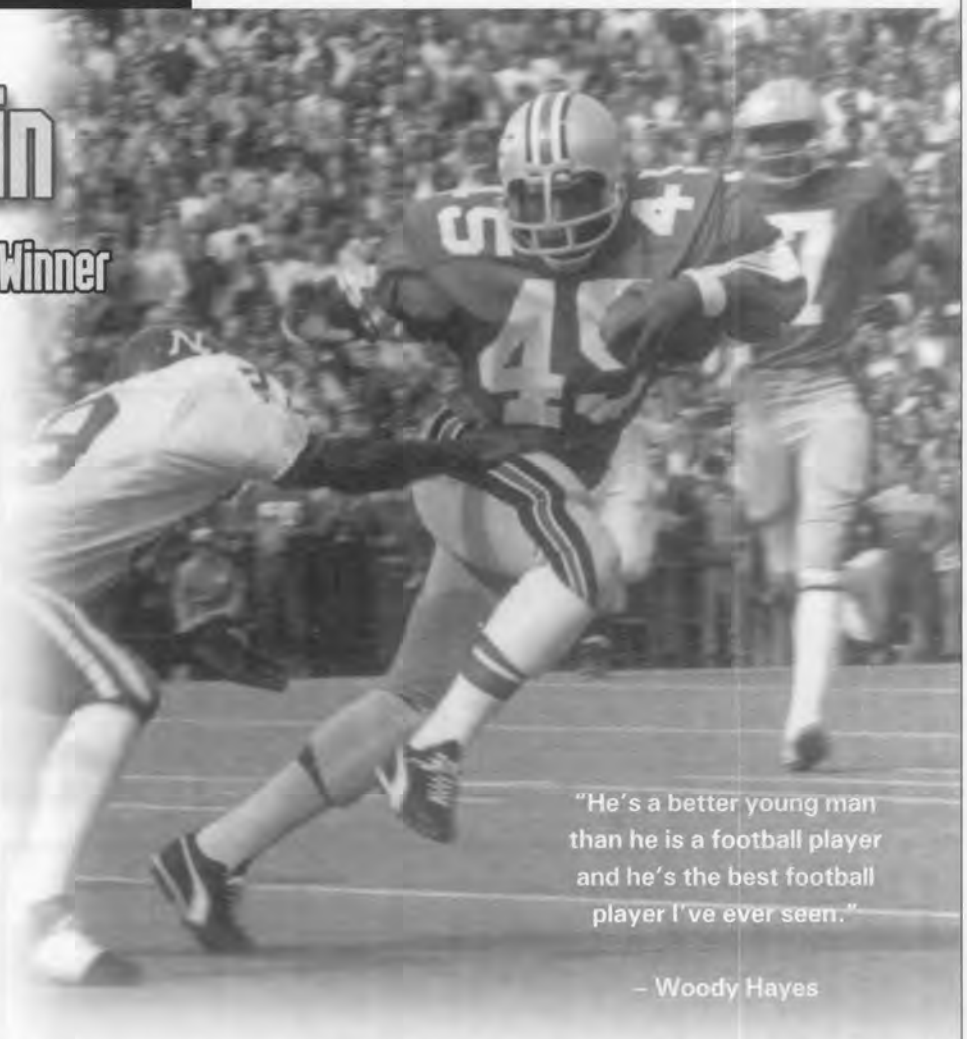
Produced 56 first team All-Americans

Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners

Coached two Lombardi Award winners

Archie Griffin

1974, 1975 Heisman Trophy Winner



In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. Twenty-eight years later he is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But even though more than two decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin now the President of the Ohio State Alumni Association.

Most recently, Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame. He was inducted into that organization in the fall of 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5 feet 9 inches and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive regular-season games. That, too, is still an NCAA record, as is his 33 career 100-yard games.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs. The latter award is presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football, before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number "45" was retired Sept. 30, 1999.

Archie Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner.

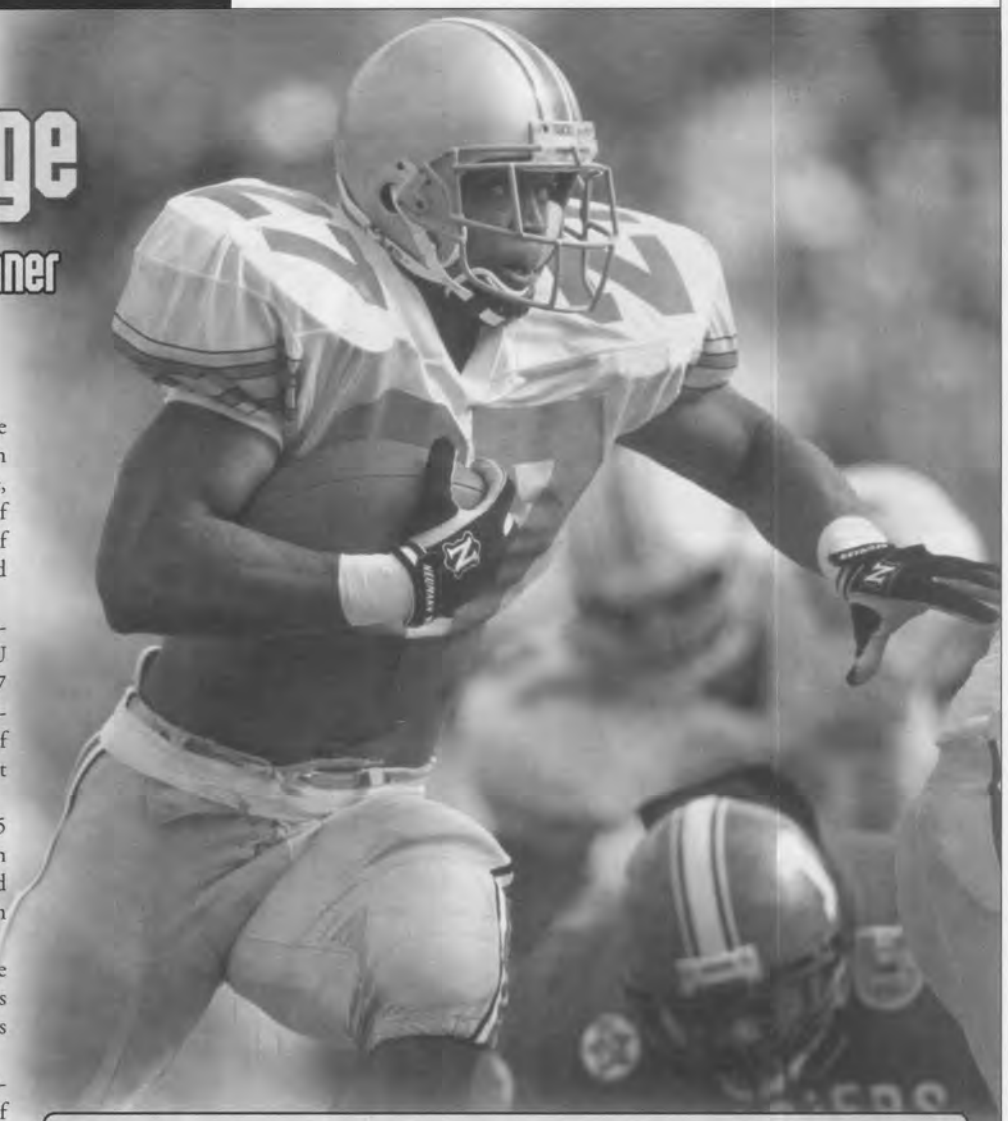
Eddie George

1995 Heisman Trophy Winner



At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a longshot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runnerup Tommy Frazier of Nebraska and third-place finisher Troy Davis of Iowa State for college football's most coveted award.

In becoming Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George etched his name into the OSU record book by rushing for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

The 6-3, 227-pound George ended the 1995 campaign leading the country in scoring with an average of 12.1 points per game. He also finished fourth in all-purpose running (185.4) and fifth in rushing (152.1).

A native of Philadelphia, George carried the ball 328 times in 1995, an average of 5.9 yards per try. He also set a school record for receptions by a running back with 47 catches.

George burst onto the national scene by rushing for 219 yards against Washington, the first of 12-consecutive 100-yard games for the big tailback. When he stunned Notre Dame with 207 yards, the national press started talking "Heisman." His record-setting performance against Illinois was the icing on the cake.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year.

In June of 2001, he earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State.

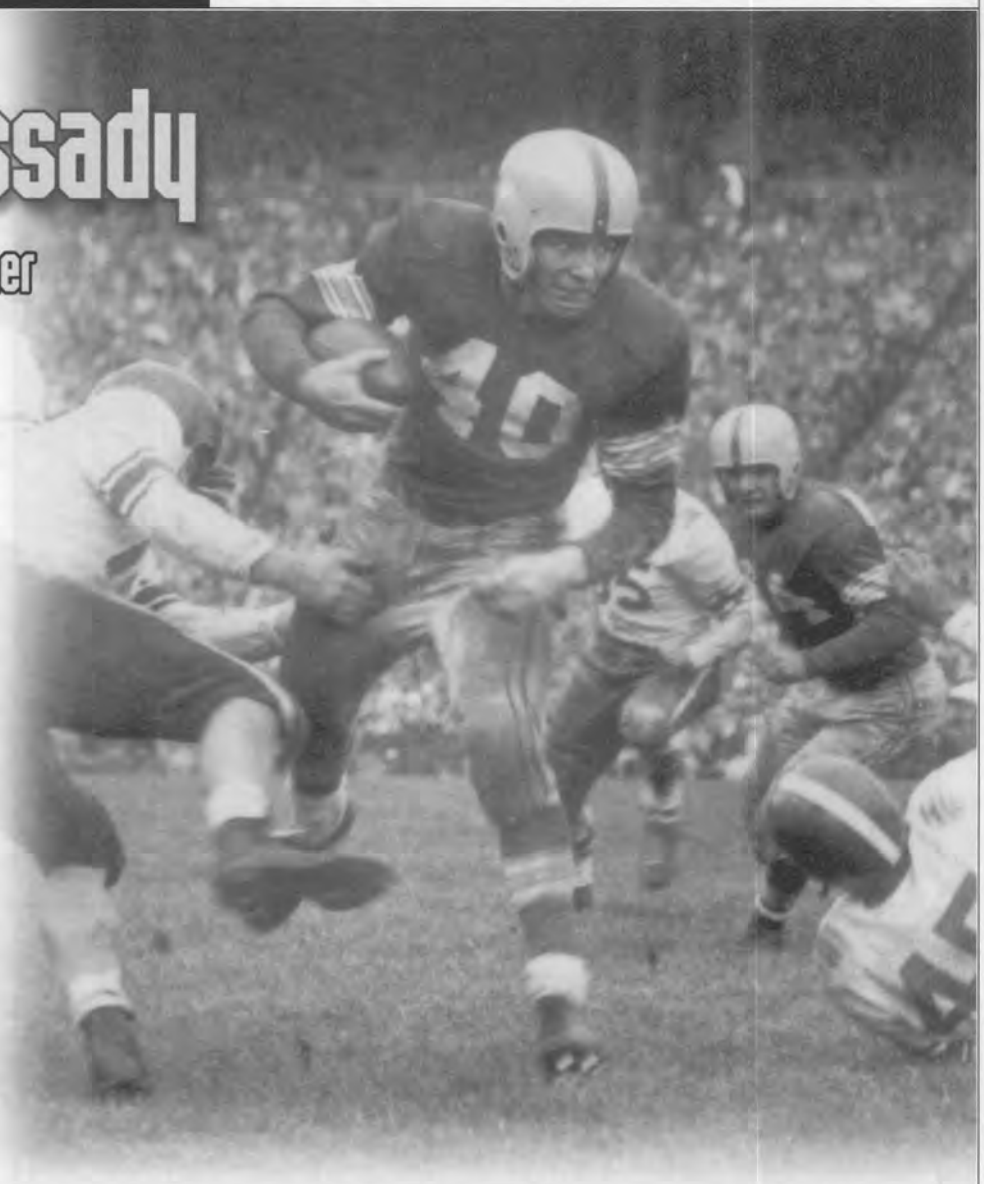
Howard Cassady

1955 Heisman Trophy Winner



It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors, rushing for 701 yards and six touchdowns and averaging 5.7 yards per carry. He also caught 13 passes for 148 yards in helping the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The 1954 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 10th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years.

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, presently, but spends his summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club.

His jersey number "40" was retired Nov. 18, 2000.

Hopalong Cassady appeared on the nationally televised Ed Sullivan show as part of the Look Magazine All-American team in 1955.

Vic Janowicz

1950 Heisman Trophy Winner

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. He also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconcious for 30 days.

A member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

Janowicz gets his Heisman as a junior in 1950. He is regarded by most football historians as the greatest athlete in Ohio State football history.

Les Horvath

1944 Heisman Trophy Winner

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship.

Horvath enjoyed a brilliant senior campaign in 1944. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio native also accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944. Shortly after being accorded that honor, he became the first of six Buckeye Heisman recipients.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, belonged to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

As Ohio State's first Heisman winner, he will always hold a special place in the hearts of Buckeye fans.

Les Horvath somehow managed to balance football and dental school in 1944, when he became Ohio State's first Heisman Trophy winner.

Orlando Pace

1996 Outland Trophy Winner

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the Maxwell Award in 1996. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team.

John Hicks

1973 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy Winner

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back appearances in the Rose Bowl. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks is the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Hicks was selected in April 2001 to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Jim Stillwagon

1970 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points and five were held to under 10 points.

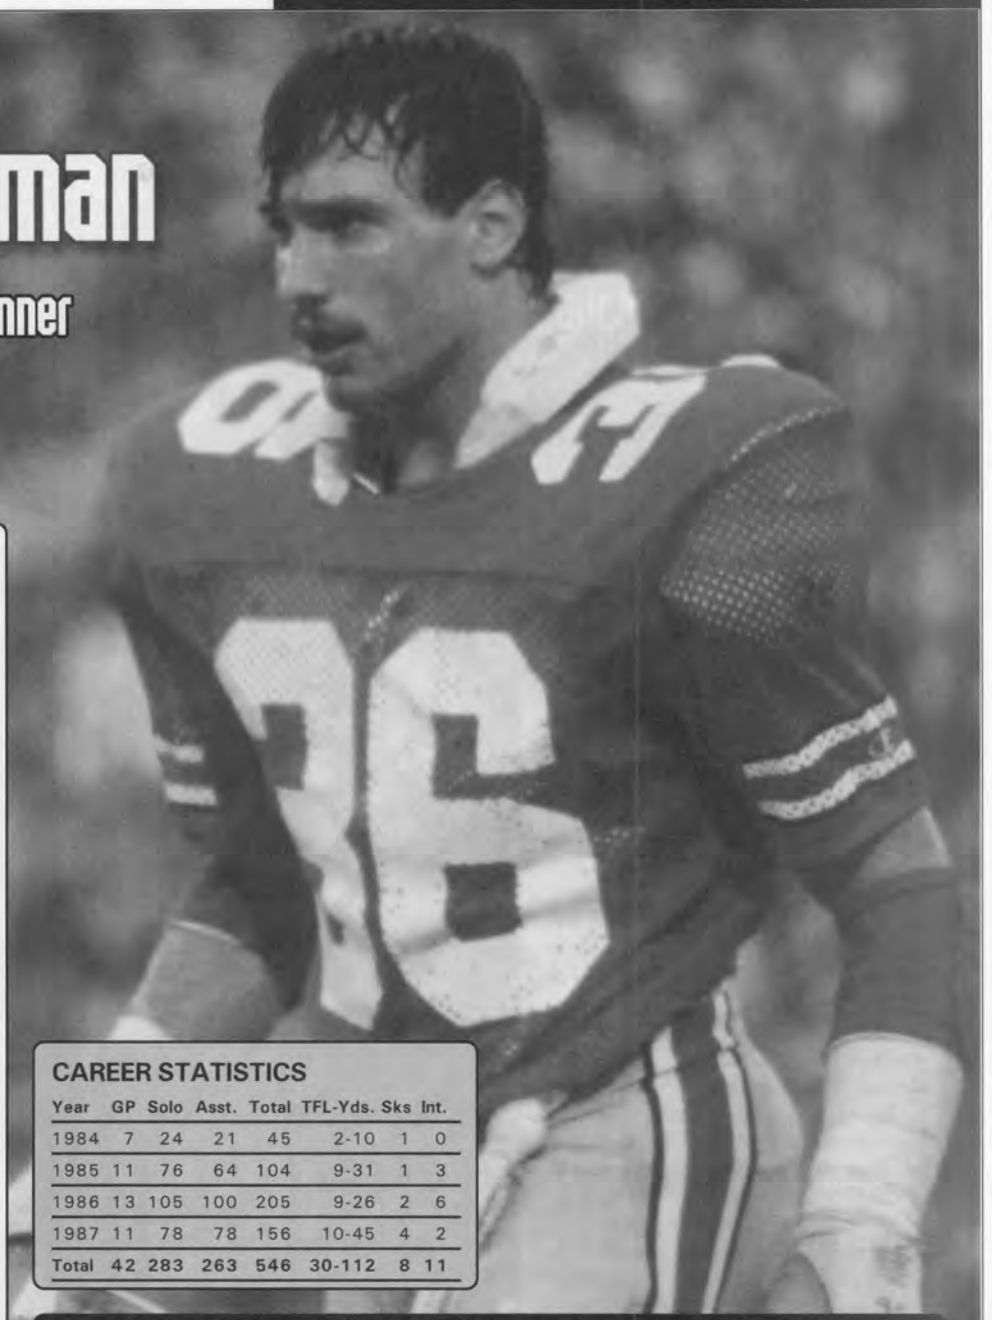
Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless. All are adjectives that can be used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football and Ohio State halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

Chris Spielman

1987 Lombardi Award Winner



Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and he is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time All-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused when they stepped onto the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players after finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns.

Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play.

Jim Parker

1956 Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the player by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 National Championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football and the Professional Football halls of fame.

His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen.

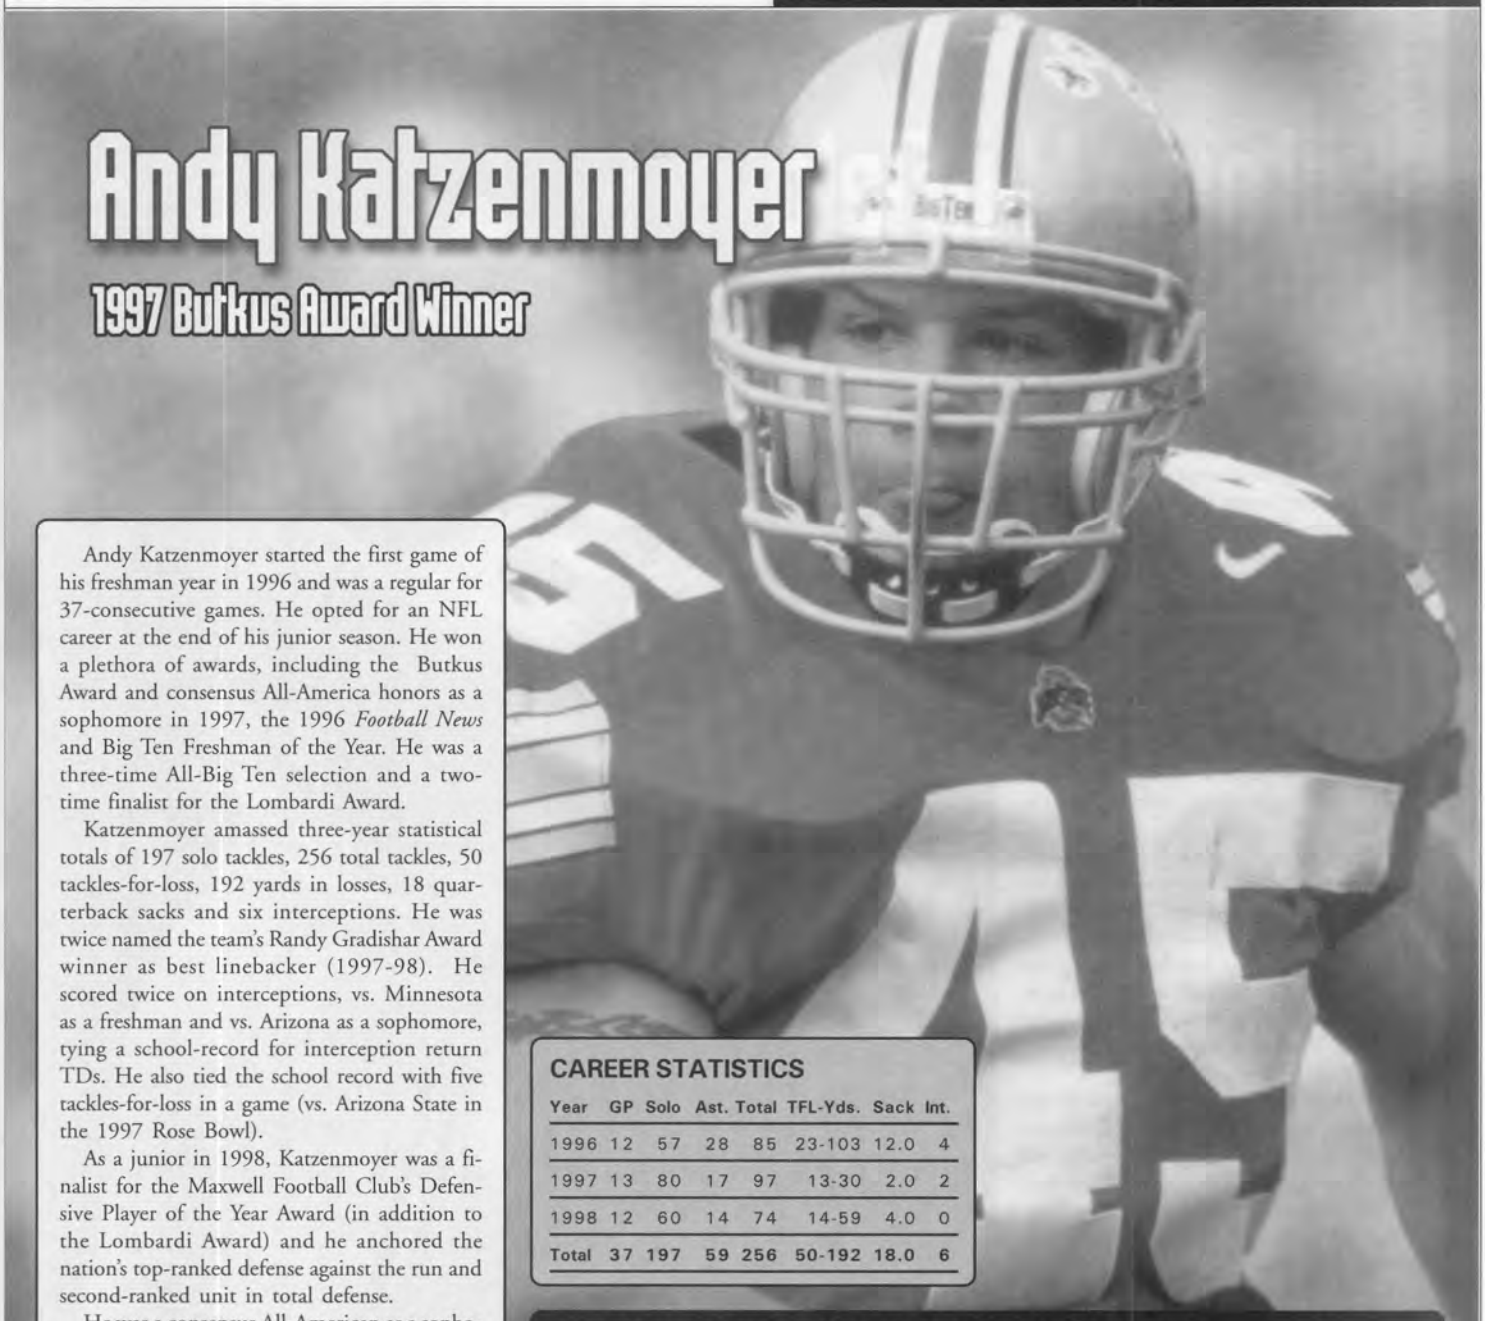
Andy Katzenmoyer

1997 Butkus Award Winner



Andy Katzenmoyer started the first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37-consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore in 1997, the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school-record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked unit in total defense.

He was a consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997 and became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes and finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

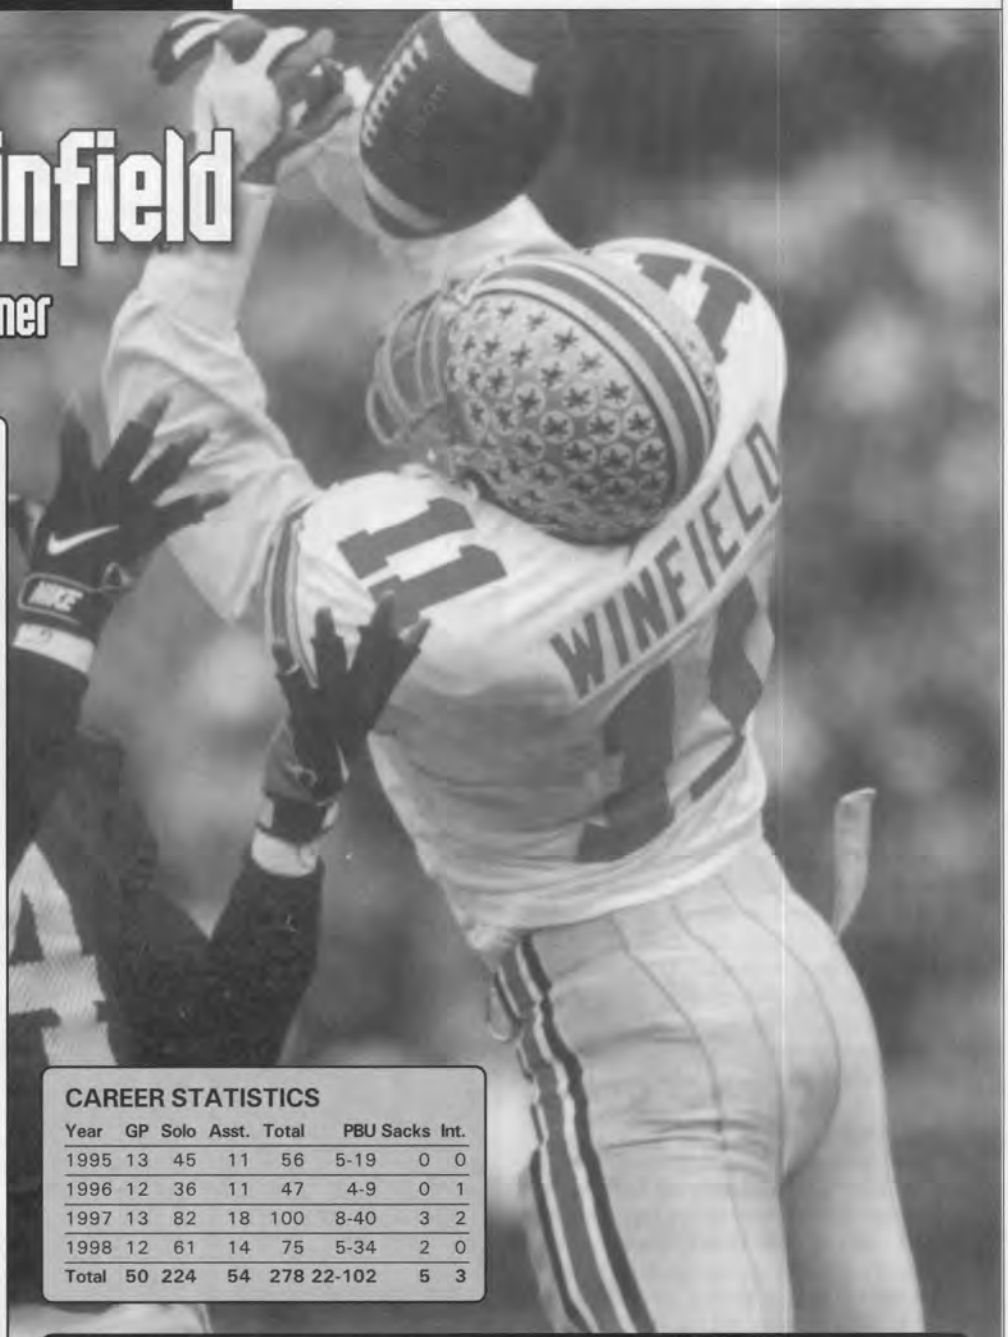
Antoine Winfield

1998 Thorpe Award Winner



Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, is one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998, Winfield's career was peppered with firsts. He was the first Buckeye to win the coveted Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass break-ups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 games during his career and he started 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News' Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News. He was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totalled 75 tackles, third-best on the team, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior in 1997, Antoine was voted by his teammates as the team MVP after a season in which he totalled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

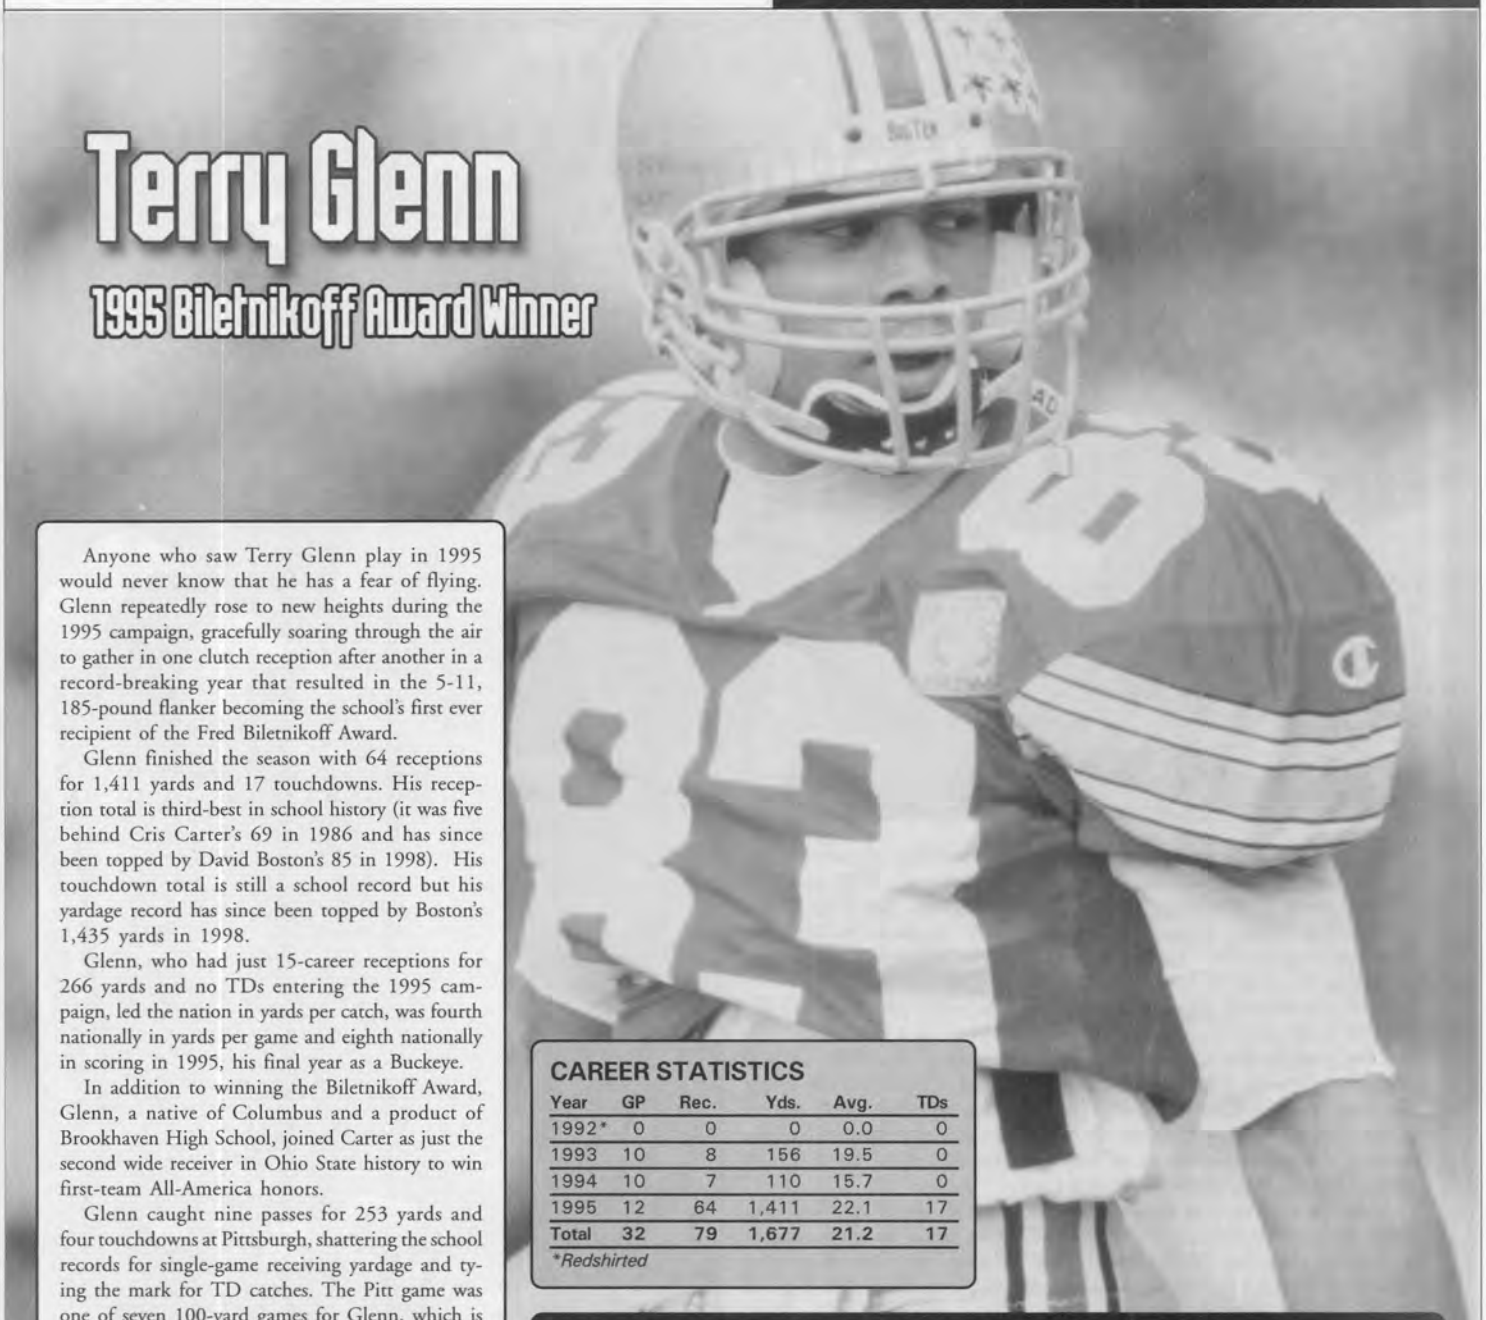
Terry Glenn

1995 Biletnikoff Award Winner



Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play in 1995 would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns. His reception total is third-best in school history (it was five behind Cris Carter's 69 in 1986 and has since been topped by David Boston's 85 in 1998). His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record has since been topped by Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15-career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, joined Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pittsburgh, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, which is yet another OSU record. He also had nine receptions, all of the acrobatic and clutch variety, in the Buckeyes' 28-25 win at Penn State.

A big-play athlete, Glenn had eight catches of 45 or more yards, including a memorable 82-yard catch-and-run TD grab against Notre Dame. He had touchdown receptions in nine of the 12 games he played in, and his numbers might have been even better had he not played the last three games of the season with a badly bruised shoulder.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school early and was taken in the first round of the NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year.

LeCharles Bentley

2001 Rimington Award winner

LeCharles Bentley is the latest in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen who have played at Ohio State. He proved that during the 2001 season by winning consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors. The icing on the cake came at the end of the season when Bentley, chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year, was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping off a brilliant career by starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded out to 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played in and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

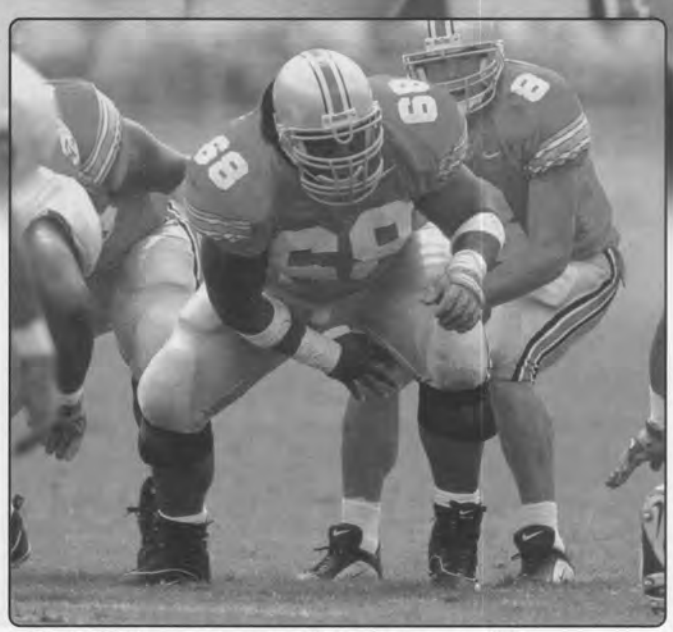
Healthy in 2001, he played brilliantly all year long and led the team in playing time during the regular season before missing the Outback Bowl because of a shoulder injury suffered in the win over Michigan. Prior to the Outback Bowl, he had played in 47-consecutive games for the Buckeyes.

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. His selection as the Rimington Award was a mere formality.

As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

"LeCharles Bentley is one of the finest centers I have ever been around," said 2001 offensive coordinator Jim Bollman. "He has a lot of natural talent, but more than that he works hard every day to get better at the little things. That is a trait that will serve him well throughout the rest of his life. I am proud to have had the opportunity to coach him."

Bentley is the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.



LeCharles Bentley won consensus All-America honors in 2001.

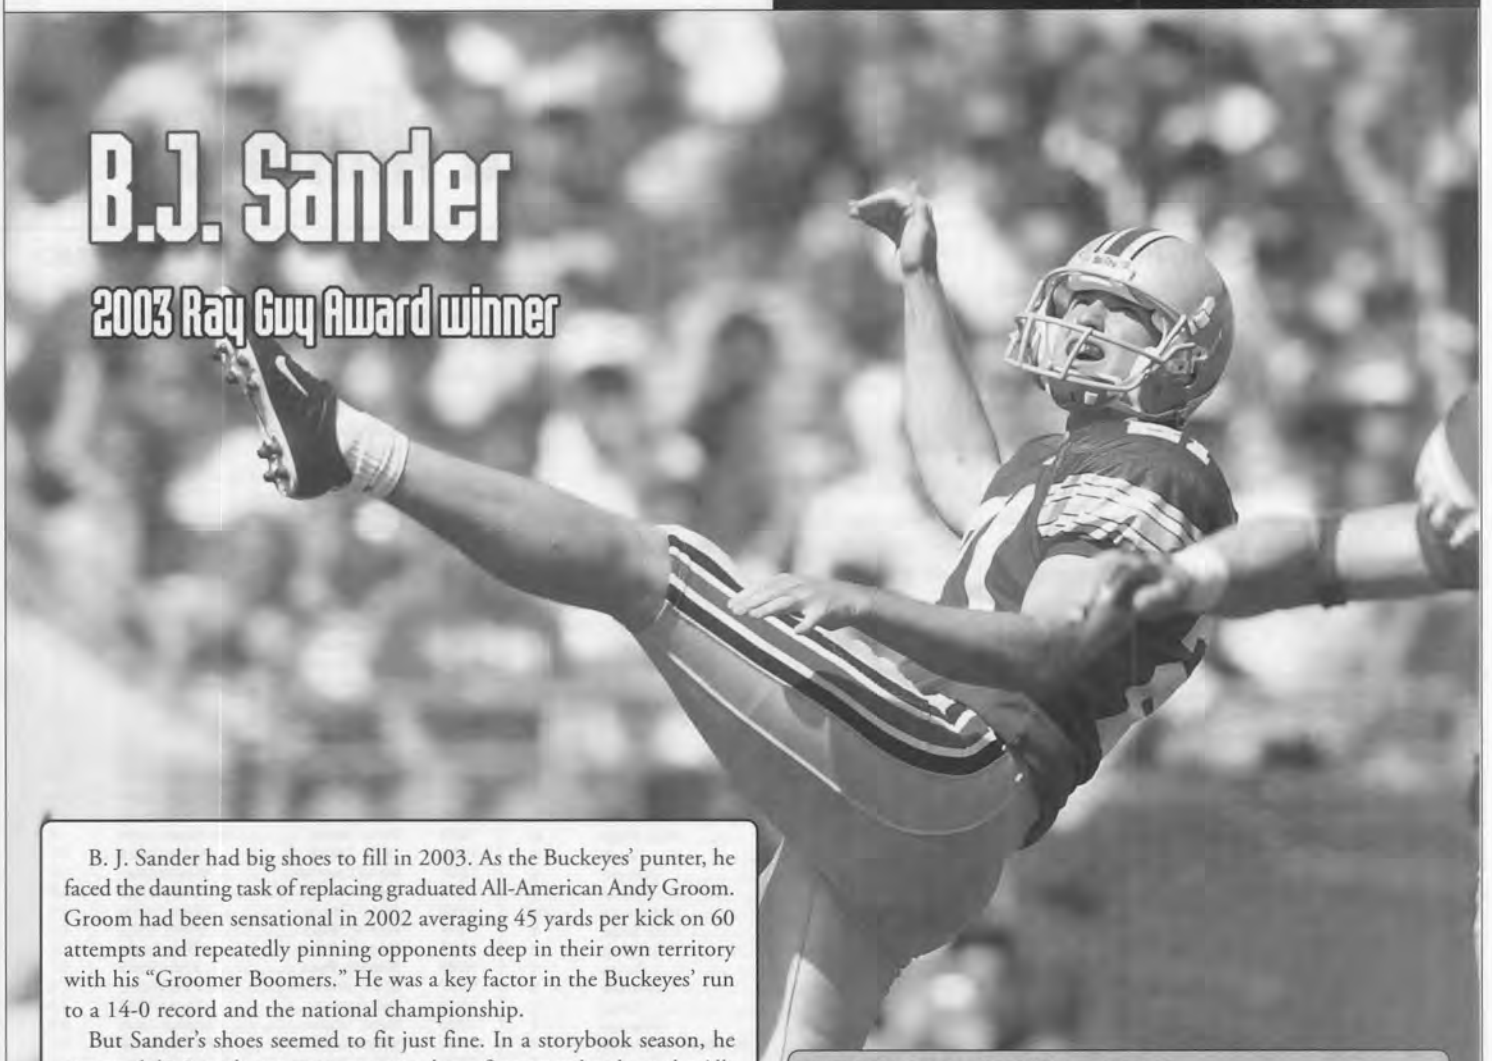
2003 Ray Guy Award winner



B. J. Sander had big shoes to fill in 2003. As the Buckeyes' punter, he faced the daunting task of replacing graduated All-American Andy Groom. Groom had been sensational in 2002 averaging 45 yards per kick on 60 attempts and repeatedly pinning opponents deep in their own territory with his "Groomer Boomers." He was a key factor in the Buckeyes' run to a 14-0 record and the national championship.

But Sander's shoes seemed to fit just fine. In a storybook season, he averaged 43.3 yards per punt, was voted to a first-team berth on the All-Big Ten team and became the first Buckeye to win the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best collegiate punter.

From a pure numbers point, Sanders was magical. Of his 82 kicks, a phenomenal 39 were downed inside the opposing 20-yard line. That figure led the nation. Additionally, 16 of his punts were fair caught, meaning just 31 of his punts were even returned.

Sander led the Big Ten and was fourth nationally in net punting. Like Groom, he was a master at giving the Buckeyes good field position and allowing the Ohio State defense to dominate a game.

Two of his best efforts came late in the year. Against Purdue in Ohio State's final home game of the season, he punted 10 times, downing seven of those inside the 20 and five inside the 10. At Michigan, where Ohio State athletes establish their legacies, he averaged 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Sanders had five kicks of 60 or more yards, including a career best of 68 yards against San Diego State. But distance told only part of the story.

"What impressed me most about B.J. was his unselfishness," said Ray Guy at the College Football Awards Show in Orlando. "Oh, he can kick it a long way, but when the situation called for him to sacrifice distance for placement, he never hesitated to do what was best for the team. For me, he defines what a punter ought to be."

College Football Major Award Winners

HEISMAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Heisman Memorial Trophy originally was presented in 1935 as the DAC Trophy by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City. It was awarded to the best college player east of the Mississippi River; but, in 1936, that rule was changed to include players from across the country. Also in that year, the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy to honor former outstanding college coach and DAC Director of Athletics John W. Heisman. Heisman died Oct. 3, 1936. The award has since been given annually to the outstanding college football player in the United States.

DAVE RIMINGTON AWARD

Dave Rimington, a former Cincinnati Bengal and All-America football player at Nebraska (1979-82), was tired of seeing more college football awards pop up each year without his position, center, being represented. He came up with a solution: the Dave Rimington Trophy, presented for the first time in 2000. Nebraska's Dominic Raiola, the first winner of the Rimington Trophy, posed for the trophy's design at the request of Rimington.

David Boston

SPLIT END 1996-98

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His 13 school records also includes most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what may separate him from other receivers in school history is the way he shined in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown in one of the most thrilling games in OSU history. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10-receptions for 231-yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl.

Cris Carter

SPLIT END 1984-86

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, Carter set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1986, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards. He left OSU to become the school's first All-American wide receiver as the all-time leader in career receptions, touchdown receptions and reception yardage. He is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history.

Keith Byars

TAILBACK 1982-85

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a foot injury, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards.

Tom Cousineau

LINEBACKER 1975-78

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the top defensive player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. Cousineau became OSUs first No.1 overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills.

Buckeye Greats

Mike Doss

STRONG SAFETY 1999-2002

Mike Doss is the first free safety to be included in this section of the Ohio State football media guide. But his inclusion should come as a surprise to no one. For him not to be would be a grave injustice.

Doss was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. In each of those years – his sophomore, junior and senior seasons – Mike won first-team All-America honors. In doing so, he became just the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State football history.

Doss was an inspiration both on and off the field. At the beginning of his senior year, he was chosen as one of the team's two co-captains. At the end of his senior year, in his final game as a Buckeye, he was chosen as Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where Ohio State captured its first consensus national championship since 1968 with a thrilling 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami.

During his career with the Buckeyes, Mike Doss played in 50 games, starting 40 of those contests and collecting a combined total of 331 tackles. At the end of the 2002 season, he was the eighth leading tackler in Ohio State annals.

Doss started the last two games of his freshman year. From that point on he was a regular. As a sophomore, he finished the season with a team-best 94 tackles and was named to a first-team berth on The Sporting News All-America team.

He also led the team in tackles as a junior with 87 total stops and was again named to a first-team spot on The Sporting News team, as well as the Walter Camp squad.

As a senior, Doss collected a personal high 107 tackles and was named to first-team All-America berths on the Associated Press, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Walter Camp teams.

A three-time All-Big Ten pick, Doss was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. In each of his last two years, he was a leading candidate for the Thorpe Award as the best defensive back in college football.

At the end of his junior year, Doss elected to stay in school and pursue his dream of winning the national championship. In January of 2003, that dream became a reality for the former all-state player from Canton, Ohio.

Wesley Fesler

END 1928-30

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-American, winning first-team recogniton at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior. He also was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930.

Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won All-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Princeton and Penn. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl.

John Frank

TIGHT END 1980-83

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranks fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. The receptions and yardage totals are the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June of 1992.

Buckeye Greats

Joe Germaine

QUARTERBACK 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a school-record tying 10-consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a 5-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons.

Chic Harley

RUNNING BACK 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built."

Randy Gradishar

LINEBACKER 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Bobby Hoying

QUARTERBACK 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team All-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. Additionally, his 57 career TD passes is a school record, as are the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) rank second in OSU annals. Hoying also was an exceptional student. In 1995, he won the National Football Foundations's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football.

Buckeye Greats

Rex Kern

QUARTERBACK 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 National Championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game of the year in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word.

Pete Johnson

FULLBACK 1973-76

Pete Johnson was the Buckeyes' starting fullback for three years, leading the way for tailback Archie Griffin in 1974 and 1975 and for Ron Springs and Jeff Logan in 1976. But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 and 348 career points are still school records.

Pepper Johnson

LINEBACKER 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named All-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Craig Krenzel

Craig Krenzel was a two-year starter at quarter for the Buckeye. Taking over the offensive reins with almost no experience at the start of the 2002 season, the 6-4 signal caller led the Buckeyes to a share of the Big Ten title, the school's first consensus national championship since 1968 and a perfect 14-0 record. At the end of the season, Krenzel was selected by his teammates as co-MVP. A little less than a month later he was named as the Offensive MVP in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he guided the Buckeyes to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime win over top-ranked Miami in the national championship game. The leading rusher in the game, Krenzel's fourth-and-14 completion to Michael Jenkins in the first overtime kept OSU's title hopes alive. In 2003, Krenzel directed OSU to an 11-2 record and a second consecutive win in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. After throwing four touchdown passes against Kansas State in the latter, he was again selected as the game's Offensive MVP. Krenzel completed his career with a 24-3 mark as a starter, including a 2-1 record against Michigan. The fiery Krenzel will go down in Ohio State annals as a player who somehow just found a way to win.

Buckeye Greats

Jim Lachey

OFFENSIVE GUARD 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named to a first team All-America berth. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars. Byars led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards) that year. In 1995, the San Diego Chargers selected Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen.

Shawn Springs

CORNERBACK 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the first-team Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time All-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft. He already has been selected to the Pro Bowl.

Tom Skladany

KICKER 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany, was a punter and kicker between 1973 and 1976 and he was the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the only specialist ever chosen as a captain.

Jack Tatum

DEFENSIVE BACK 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three years as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 National Championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl Championship team.

Buckeye Greats

Steve Tovar

LINEBACKER 1989-92

Steve Tovar is another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he has the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three-consecutive seasons between 1990-92, one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat (Marcus Marek, 1980-82, is the other). In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time All-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranks fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio native was a third round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft.

Dan Wilkinson

DEFENSIVE TACKLE 1991-93

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won All-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles-for-loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive linemen in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles-for-loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won All-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April of 1994.

Mike Vrabel

DEFENSIVE END 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owns every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards also are Buckeye standards. Vrabel also finished his career as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles-for-loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team All-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native was a third round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

Bill Willis

LINEMAN 1942-44

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis, has the unique distinction of belonging to the Ohio High School, the College and the Professional Football halls of fame. He also is a member of The Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense. A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming Ohio State's first African-American All-American. He went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns following college. A native of Columbus, he is generally considered the first African-American starter in professional football. After his pro career ended, he returned home and served as director of the Ohio Youth Commission.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND HALL OF FAME SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the Top 13 seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Over the years, Ohio State has produced 19 recipients. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award to the top senior in the group. Buckeyes Bobby Hoying (1995) and Craig Krenzel (2003) are the only Big Ten players to win that award.

Academic Excellence

Craig Krenzel

Craig Krenzel will long be remembered for his role as the starting quarterback on Ohio State's 2002 national championship team. Time-and-again during the championship season, Krenzel rallied his teammates from the brink of defeat and led them to victory. When the season was over, the Buckeyes were 14-0 and had claimed the ultimate prize – the National Championship. But Krenzel was perhaps even more accomplished in the classroom than he was on the football field. A molecular genetics major, he was named winner of the Socrates Award as a junior. The latter is presented by Sporting News Radio to the outstanding student-athlete in the nation. As a senior, Krenzel was named to a first-team berth on the Academic All-America Team and singled out as the Academic All-America of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America. Additionally, he was selected as one of 13 football seniors nationwide to receive a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship. At the NFFHF awards dinner in New York in December, he was again singled out, this time receiving the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award, which is awarded annually to one of the scholarship winners. Finally, he capped off a brilliant year by being named as one of the recipients of the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and community involvement.

Bobby Hoying

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying was the first Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement.

Mike Lanese

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named as Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy. He currently owns his own business.

Ohio State Bowl History

1921 Rose Bowl

California	28
Ohio State	0

PASADENA, Calif. – California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

Oregon 7
Ohio State 10

PASADENA, Calif. – Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern California 16
Ohio State 27

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

1971 Rose Bowl

Ohio State 17
Stanford 27

PASADENA, Calif. – Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

Ohio State Bowl History

1973 Rose Bowl

Ohio State 17
Southern California 42

PASADENA, Calif. – Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining by dashing 47 yards over right tackle.

1975 Rose Bowl

Ohio State 17
Southern California 18

PASADENA, Calif. – Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Ohio State Bowl History

1976 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	10
UCLA	23

PASADENA, Calif. – All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

1977 Orange Bowl

Colorado	10
Ohio State	27

MIAMI, Fla. – After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing.

1978 Sugar Bowl

Ohio State	6
Alabama	35

NEW ORLEANS, La. – In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

1978 Gator Bowl

Ohio State	15
Clemson	17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

1980 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	16
Southern California	17

PASADENA, Calif. – Unranked in the preseason polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record, but thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the 1 for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

1980 Fiesta Bowl

Penn State	31

TEMPE, Ariz. – A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

1981 Liberty Bowl

Ohio State	31

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	17
Ohio State	47

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

1984 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh	23
Ohio State	28

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

Ohio State Bowl History

1985 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Southern California	20

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

1986 Citrus Bowl

Brigham Young	7
Ohio State	10

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

1987 Cotton Bowl

Ohio State	28

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

1990 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	14
Auburn	31

TAMPA, Fla. – Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Buckeyes jumped to a 5-0 lead on a safety and field goal, but the Falcons scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters to build a 13-5 lead. After OSU cut the margin to 13-11 early in the fourth quarter on Robert Smith's brilliant 29-yard run, Air Force sealed the win with a field goal and TD on an interception return. The Buckeyes gained just 214 total yards, including 80 on the ground. The Air Force wishbone attack gained 254 rushing yards.

1992 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	17
Syracuse	24

TAMPA, Fla. – The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

Ohio State Bowl History

1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

Ohio State	14
Georgia	21

ORLANDO, Fla. – Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

1993 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	21
Ohio State	28

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU teritory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

ORLANDO, Fla. – A 50-yard scoring pass from Jay Barker to Sherman Williams with 42 seconds left broke a 17-all tie and lifted Alabama to a seven-point victory over Ohio State in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Although the Crimson Tide dominated statistically, the game went back and forth all day. Alabama had a 521-276 lead in total yards and a 28-15 advantage in first downs, but OSU helped itslef with three fumble recoveries, a blocked punt, a blocked field goal attempt and 12 tackles-for-loss.

Ohio State	14
Tennessee	20

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

1997 Rose Bowl

Arizona State	17
Ohio State	20

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the grandaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. ASU scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. The Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score, the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner.

Ohio State	24

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

South Carolina	24
Ohio State	7

TAMPA, Fla. – In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

2002 Outback Bowl

South Carolina	31

TAMPA, Fla. – With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the OSU comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. Bellisari ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever.

Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unlikely, unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win. The Buckeyes, nearly 12-point underdogs, ended the Hurricanes' bid for a second straight title and their winning streak at 34.

Just like it had all year long, Ohio State was forced to make big plays when it had to. On the last play of the game, on 4th-and-goal at the 1, Cie Grant blitzed and forced Dorsey to heave a desperation pass that safety Donnie Nickey batted to the ground.

The Buckeyes' punishing defense had rattled and pounded Miami quarterback Ken Dorsey all night.

A few plays earlier, linebacker Matt Wilhelm hit Dorsey with such force it sent the quarterback to the sideline for one play. He came back in, but the Buckeyes would not be denied against a team trying to secure its place in history as one of college football's great dynasties.

While Miami coach Larry Coker lost for the first time in 25 games, Ohio State's Jim Tressel added a major college title to the four he won in Division I-AA at Youngstown State.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble, who was being covered by Glenn Sharpe.

A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference.

Three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT.

By then, it already was a classic – the first national championship game to go into overtime, in a matchup of the nation's last two undefeated teams.

In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first from the 25 and Clarett capped off a five-play drive with his spinning, slithering cutback through the Miami defense.

Ohio State led 14-7 at the half, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on McGahee's 9-yard scoring run with 2:11 left in the third quarter. And that set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick as time expired in regulation play, leaving the Sun Devil Stadium crowd of 77,502 breathless.

The Buckeyes' ferocious defense had Dorsey in trouble from the opening series with two sacks. Although Ohio State fell behind 7-0, the constant pressure paid huge dividends in the second quarter as the Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State found itself back in the dessert or more specifically Sun Devil Stadium, the same venue where it won its seventh national championship in a thrilling double-overtime victory against the Miami Hurricanes. This year though, the stakes were not as high in the school's first-ever meeting against Kansas State, the champion of the Big 12 Conference.

Craig Krenzel improved to an amazing 24-3 in his career as a starter for Ohio State as the Buckeyes claimed a 35-28 victory in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl against the Wildcats in front of 73,425 fans. Krenzel overcame two first quarter interceptions to complete 11-of-24 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns, finding both Michael Jenkins and Santonio Holmes for two scoring strikes each. He earned his second straight Fiesta Bowl Offensive MVP honor.

The Buckeyes stormed out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, but could not get into the end zone until a huge play on special teams. The defense forced Kansas State to punt for the third time of the game. Harlen Jacobs blocked Jared Brite's punt and John Hollins scooped it up and ran 7 yards to give the Buckeyes a 7-0 lead with 6:41 to play in the first quarter.

The defense held strong again on the next Wildcat possession, keeping them inside their own 10-yard line. Ohio State took control in Kansas State territory following its fourth punt of the game and marched 43 yards on six plays to take a 14-0 lead when Krenzel hit a streaking Holmes who was running from left to right across the back of the end zone with 2:49 to play in the opening quarter.

The third Buckeye score was set up by the Buckeye defense, which blitzed on the first play of Kansas State's second possession of the second quarter. Chris Gamble picked off Wildcat quarterback El Roberson at the KSU 17-yard line and on the first next play Jenkins caught a touchdown pass from Krenzel to put the Buckeyes up 21-0 with 6:49 to play in the first half. The lead was the first time Ohio State had lead 21-0 in a bowl game and tied for the largest lead in a bowl game.

Kansas State moved 70 yards in 11 plays to post its first points of the game. Darren Sproles took the option pitch 6 yards to cap the scoring drive that made the score 21-7. That was the score at the half. Ohio State out-gained the Wildcats 168 yards to 96, getting 94 yards through the air and another 74 yards on the ground.

After forcing Ohio State to punt after it first possession staled at the OSU 28, Kansas State put together another 70-yard march that pulled the Wildcats within a 21-14 score with 8:59 to play in the third quarter. Roberson provided the score, faking a handoff up the middle and then running around the left side for a 14-yard score.

With Kansas State right back in the game, Krenzel and Jenkins teamed up to again extend the Buckeye lead. Krenzel hit Jenkins for 64 yards on a 74-yard scoring drive, including a 37-yard reception that moved Jenkins ahead of David Boston to the top of the career passing yardage list at Ohio State. Jenkins hauled in an 8-yard touchdown in the right corner of the end zone to go up 28-14 with 4:53 to play in the third quarter.

The defense held the Wildcats to 3-and-out on its next possession and after a punt gave the ball back to the Buckeyes, which moved the ball down the field rush after rush before surprising Kansas State on 1st-and-10 with a 31-yard touchdown pass down the middle of the field to Holmes, who managed to drag both feet in the back of the end zone to give the Buckeyes a 35-14 lead with 37 seconds to play in the third.

Maurice Mack returned the ensuing kickoff 37 yards to the OSU 46 and then eight plays later, Ayo Saba carried three yards for the Kansas State's third score of the game to pull within two touchdowns, 35-21 with 13:25 to play in the game.

The Wildcats drove to the OSU 13-yard line on their next possession, but a 2-yard loss followed by a 15-yard personal foul moved them back to the 28-yard line. Joe Rheem attempted a 45-yard field goal but it hit the left upright and gave the ball back to Ohio State. The Buckeyes though went 3-and-out and punted the ball back to Kansas State.

Roberson led the attack, passing for all but one of the 74 yards of the scoring drive. He held onto the ball himself for a 1-yard score that pulled them within a touchdown, 35-28 with 2:47 to play. Kansas State went for the on-side kick and recovered the ball on the OSU 49-yard line, but the Wildcats were flagged for being off side, forcing them to kick again. This time though, Bobby Carpenter ran up on the ball and smothered it giving possession to Ohio State.

Ohio State took a delay-of-game penalty after reaching the KSU 35-yard line and B.J. Sander's punt pinned the Wildcats at their 10-yard line with 1:12 to play. Roberson connected on passes for 21 and 26 yards to moved down to the OSU 48 and then he picked up another yard on a 1-yard run. He spiked the ball with nine seconds to play and then with five seconds heaved a Hail Mary pass toward Devin Dennis near the end zone, where it was batted down by Buckeye safety Nate Salley.

Jenkins finished with five receptions for 96 yards, including two touchdowns, to finish with 2,898 career receiving yards. Holmes caught two passes for 37 yards and two touchdowns. Bam Childress and Lydell Ross also had two grabs. Ross was the game's top ball carrier, running for 82 yards on 20 carries. Brandon Joe added 46 yards, while Krenzel ran for 21 yards. Sproles was the leading rusher for Kansas State, getting 38 yards on 13 carries with one touchdown, while Roberson had 32 yards and two TDs. Dennis had seven catches for 113 yards.

Kansas State out-gained Ohio State 378-337 in total yards, but the Buckeye defense, No. 1 against the run, held the Wildcats to 84 yards rushing, giving up 294 yards through the air. The Scarlet and Gray ran for 148 yards to go with 189 passing yards. Defensively, Robert Reynolds and A.J. Hawk, the Fiesta Bowl Defensive MVP, each had 10 tackles to pace the Buckeyes. Carpenter had 2.5 tackles for loss including two sacks totaling 17 yards.

In picking up a win for the 25th time in 27 games, the Buckeyes finished 11-2 and improved the team to 3-0 in BCS games. Ohio State finished No. 4 in both national polls. Ohio State also improved to 16-19 all-time in bowl games.

The Rose Bowl

The Rose Bowl enters its sixth season as part of college football's Bowl Championship Series. (BCS). Because of its membership in the BCS, the Rose Bowl may not feature the champion of the Big Ten and/or the Pac-10 Conferences in a given year. If either of these two conference champions are ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final regular season BCS rankings, then the team will participate in the designated national championship game. Along with the Rose Bowl, the Orange, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls make up the rotation for BCS national title games. The Rose Bowl took its turn at hosting the BCS national championship title game on January 3, 2002.

"The Rose Bowl tradition remains central to the Big Ten and college football culture," Big Ten Commissioner James E. Delany said. "The Big Ten is proud of its relationship with the Rose Bowl and the Tournament of Roses Association, and pleased that we worked together with the other conferences to develop a playoff system that is good for the Big Ten, good for college football and good for the bowls."

Like most long-standing traditions, the Rose Bowl has come full circle.

•Since the pact was initiated in 1946, the Big Ten and Pac-10 have nearly established parity in the Rose Bowl win-loss columns. The Big Ten holds a narrow 29-28 record.

•There have been six different Big Ten teams in the Rose Bowl in the last seven games.

ROSE BOWL HISTORY

The Pacific Coast (now the Pacific-10) and Western Conferences (Big Ten), along with the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, agreed on November 19, 1946, to an exclusive Rose Bowl game contract.

Both conference commissioners commented that they "expect this five-year contract to be a forerunner of a long-time agreement. This present agreement is just a starter." The passing of time has shown us they were right on both accounts. It remains the oldest college football agreement between two of the nation's top conferences.

Though the contact was often referred to as a "shotgun marriage," officials had been in negotiation with the Tournament for eight years. The contact was effective immediately, voted on by faculty representatives from the two conferences. Both sides agreed that watch conference could designate its own representative, regardless of season records.

Illinois (7-2) and UCLA (10-0) were selected to play in the inaugural game under the pact.

Prior to 1947, the Rose Bowl game drew five sellout crowd. Every game since then has been a sellout.

The 1963 game was the first No. 1 against No. 2 showdown, matching undefeated USC (10-0) with the 8-1 Wisconsin Badgers.

The '70s were for the big Ten like the '50s were for the PCC (then the Pac-8) when playing in Pasadena. The Conference emerged victorious once, when Ohio State beat USC 41-21 in 1974. It was the second of three straight USC-Ohio State match-ups.

The Pac-10 continued to prosper in the '80s, taking home the Rose Bowl trophy seven times to the Big Ten's three.

The '90s were characterized by continued parity as the Pac-10 won three Rose Bowls and the Big Ten claimed seven.

The record for most appearances goes to USC (19) in the Pac-10 and Michigan (16) in the Big Ten.

In its 85 years, the Rose Bowl had maintained its tradition-rich standard of excellence, living up to the nickname "Granddaddy of all Bowl Games."

METHOD OF DETERMINING THE ROSE BOWL PARTICIPANT

In the event the Big Ten Conference regular season football champion is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS regular season ranking, then that team will play in the designated BCS national title game. If the Big Ten regular season champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2, then the following methods will be used to determine the Conference's Rose Bowl participant.

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games.
B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.
C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between those teams shall represent the Conference.
D. If the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
F. If more than two teams tie for the championship, the same selection procedures shall be followed with these exceptions:
   1. If three teams are tied and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams both defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
   4. If three teams are tied and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   5. If three teams are tied and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
   1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the Conference representative.
   2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   4. If two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
   5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   6. If all four teams have the same winning percentage for all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie-breaking procedure.

JACK RYDER

Compiled a 22-22-2 overall record as head coach from 1892-1895 and again in 1898 ... Ryder faced legendary college football figure and then Oberlin head coach John Heisman in the 1892 opener ... led high-scoring OSU offense to more than 200 total points in first two seasons, including 460-to-144 advantage in 1892 ... high offensive numbers were direct results of the "Ryder Wedge" offensive scheme ... Ohio State recorded its first winning season with a 5-3 record in 1892 ... led Buckeyes to second-most wins in a season prior to 1900 with a 6-5 record in 1894, including a 20-4 win in the Thanksgiving Day series vs. Kenyon to end the season ... in 1895, Ryder led the Buckeyes to an 8-6 win at Kentucky Nov. 15, marking Ohio State's first interstate game ... the next day, Ohio State faced Central Kentucky in the school's only back-to-back scheduled games .. 1895 also saw Ohio State's first games to result in a tie as the Buckeyes played Denison and Ohio Wesleyan to draws in back-to-back weeks ... first Ohio State coach to invoke closed practice sessions to fans.

A.E. HERRNSTEIN

Herrnstein came to Columbus after a one-year stint as head coach at Purdue and a stellar playing career at Michigan ... Herrstein was the first Buckeye leader to incorporate the forward pass on offense when the Buckeyes scored on a 10-yard pass in a 9-0 win over Wooster in Columbus in 1906 ... manned the OSU sidelines for four season, with the finest coming in his first year at 8-1and claiming the Ohio college championship ... the state title was sealed with an 11-8 win over Ohio Medical, which was led by former Buckeye head coach John Eckstrom, on Thanksgiving Day ... ... the 1906 team held opponents to just 14 points and no touchdowns, while posting seven shutouts ... Michigan used a late field goal (then worth four points) and a safety to hand Ohio State its only loss in 1906, 6-0 ... ... helped Ohio State claim seven wins in 1907 and 1909, including six shutout wins in 1909 ... Herrnstein led Ohio State to its 100th win in program history with a 17-6 triumph at Vanderbilt Nov. 14, 1908 ... 1908 also featured Ohio State's first All-American in honorable mention winner Millard Gibson.

HOWARD JONES

Jones, a native of Excello, Ohio, entered coaching after earning All-American honors as an end at Yale ... he began with one-year stints at Syracuse in 1908 and his alma mater in 1909 before coming to Columbus ... Ohio State suffered just a single loss in its one season under Jones, dropping a 14-10 decision at Case ... among the 6-1-3 record was a 3-3 draw vs. Michigan, which snapped a nine-game losing streak to the Wolverines ... Jones brought the "Yale system" to Ohio State in 1910, focusing mainly on the defensive side of the ball ... the "system" proved successful as the Buckeyes held its opponents to just 27 points in 1910, while scoring 182 ... Jones resigned after the 1910 season and later served as head coach at Iowa ... led the Hawkeyes to consecutive Big Ten titles in 1921 and 1922 ... later he helped USC win five Rose Bowls in 16 years as head coach of the Trojans ... Jones is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

JOHN W. WILCE

Former three-sport student-athlete, all-conference fullback and assistant coach at Wisconsin, Wilce was the first coach to lead the Buckeyes into conference affiliation ... compiled a 78-33-9 (.688) mark in 16 seasons ... 78 wins rank fourth all-time at OSU ... recorded Ohio State's first conference win, a 58-0 victory over Northwestern Nov. 22, 1913 ... led Ohio State to a 1-2 record in its first season in the Western Conference in 1913, 4-2-1 overall ... owner of the most wins in Ohio State history until Woody Hayes claimed the record ... mentor of Ohio State's initial first-team All-America honoree – Boyd Cherry – in 1914 ... the Ohio State fight song "Across the Field" was dedicated to Wilce and performed against Illinois Oct. 16, 1915 ... led OSU to an unblemished 7-0 mark in the Big Ten in 1916, marking Ohio State's first unbeaten and untied season and initial conference title, although the conference did not recognize champions at the time ... also in 1916, Ohio State posted a 128-0 win over Oberlin, which stands as the largest margin of victory – and most points scored – in program history ... the 128-0 win, which featured 1,140 yards of offense for OSU, led to a decisive 258-29 edge in points scored in 1916 season ... led Buckeyes to landmark 14-13 victory over Western Conference power Wisconsin in 1916 ... the Wisconsin win and spectacular play by All-American halfback Chic Harley gained national attention for Ohio State ... the Buckeyes claimed their second straight Western Conference title in 1917 with an 8-0-1 record, outscoring opponents 292-6 ... the 1917 team did not allow a touchdown and recorded seven shutouts ... 1918 season was ravaged by World War I and an influenza epidemic, Ohio State finished 3-3 ... in 1919, Wilce notched Ohio State's first win over Michigan on Oct. 25, in a 13-3 decision at Ann Arbor ... also in 1919, Wilce became the first OSU head coach to face Purdue ... 1920 marked another unbeaten season in the Western Conference and third league crown, leading to an invite to play in its first bowl game, where OSU dropped a 28-0 contest to California in the 1921 Rose Bowl ... 1922 season opened the Ohio Stadium era as Wilce helped Ohio State open the venue with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan on Oct. 7 ... 1924 saw Ohio State's first conference win in Ohio Stadium, a 7-0 blanking of Purdue on Oct.4 ... the 300th game was played at Ohio State on Nov. 1, 1924, a 7-7 with Wooster ... 1925 was highlighted by a win over Eastern power Columbia, 9-0, on Oct. 17 ... the 1927 team recorded a 7-1 record, with its only loss coming against Michigan in front of 90,411 in Ohio Stadium, the largest crowd to witness a college football game ... Wilce's final six seasons saw the Buckeyes fail to finish better than third in the league before Wilce resigned following the 1928 season ... in his time at Ohio State, Wilce coached 16 All-Americans and three conference championship squads ... Wilce initiated one of longest-running traditions at Ohio State in "Senior Tackle", where each senior hits a tackling dummy during his last practice as a Buckeye ... resigned prior to the 1928 season, but coached the team that year to a 5-2-1 record before stepping down to enter the private medical field and continue on at Ohio State in a teaching position ... Wilce is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

JOHN COOPER
(111-43-4, .715 – 1988-2000)

Spent 13 seasons as head coach, the third longest tenure in OSU history ... 111 wins at Ohio State ranks second in program annals behind Woody Hayes ... led Ohio State to three shared Big Ten championships and a berth in the 1997 Rose Bowl ... posted four-straight 10-win seasons from 1995-1998 ... teams finished the regular season ranked in the Top 25 in 12 of his 13 seasons ... three teams finished the season ranked in the Top 5 in the country, including the 1996 squad that completed the campaign at No. 2 after a dramatic come-from-behind win over then-No. 2 Arizona State in the Rose Bowl ... the 1996 win allowed Cooper to become the first head coach to lead both a Big Ten and a PAC-10 team to a Rose Bowl victory (Arizona State defeated Michigan in the Rose Bowl in Cooper's second-to-last season at ASU in 1986) ... earlier in 1996, the Buckeyes convincingly downed No. 4 Notre Dame in South Bend, 29-16, and No. 4 Penn State in Columbus, 38-7, in consecutive weeks ... 1998 team placed No. 2 as well after a 31-16 win in Ohio Stadium over Michigan and a 24-14 triumph over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl ...1998 team spent the first 10 weeks of the season ranked No. 1 in all polls ... other bowl win came at 1993 Holiday Bowl over BYU, 28-21, after team claimed share of Big Ten title with 10-1-1 overall record and 6-1-1 in conference ... 475 points scored by 1995 team stands as an Ohio State record ... 1995 team was one of three teams to top 400 points in a season ... that same season, Cooper mentored tailback Eddie George to Ohio State's sixth Heisman Trophy ... 1995 season also saw Orlando Pace claim the Lombardi Award and Terry Glenn win the Biletnikoff trophy ... Pace repeated as Lombardi winner and added the Outland Trophy in 1996 ... overall, 21 All-Americans played under Cooper ... led Buckeyes to 36-33 upset of then-No. 7 LSU in just third game at Ohio State in 1988 ... led Buckeyes to array of bowl games, including three Citrus Bowls, three Hall of Fame/Outback Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and one Rose Bowl, one Holiday Bowl and a Liberty Bowl ... led Ohio State to its largest comeback victory after trailing 31-0 at Minnesota, Ohio State rallied for a 41-37 win.

The Department of Athletics

Nationally recognized as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics, the Ohio State Department of Athletics offers 36 intercollegiate sports.

Athletics Director Andy Geiger is one of the most respected and visionary leaders in intercollegiate athletics today.

Completely self supporting, The Ohio State Department of Athletics has an operating budget of $80 million.

Few schools can boast the overall history of success the Ohio State Buckeyes have enjoyed over the years. The varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and now is 36 sports strong - 16 for men, 17 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $80 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Andy Geiger. Just the seventh athletics director in Ohio State history, Geiger has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Some of the greatest names in athletics have worn the Scarlet and Gray, most notably four-time Olympic gold medalist Jesse Owens, golf great Jack Nicklaus, two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin and two-time NCAA men's basketball Player of the Year Jerry Lucas.

Other famous Buckeyes include the late Woody Hayes, who coached the football team to a sparkling 205-61-10 record from 1951-78; Stephanie Hightower, the former world and American record holder in the 60-yard hurdles; John Havlicek, who helped lead Ohio State to the 1960 NCAA basketball title before an NBA Hall of Fame career with the Boston Celtics; Jim Jackson, the 1992 National Player of the Year for men's basketball; Tracey Hall, one of the Big Ten's only two-time All-America basketball honorees; Eddie George, the 1995 Heisman Trophy winner; Orlando Pace, the first player to repeat as Lombardi Award winner and the No. 1 pick in the 1997 NFL Draft; and Katie Smith, OSU's first women's basketball representative in the Olympic games and a two-time All-America selection.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 900 student-athletes participated on 36 OSU athletics teams in 2003-04.

Geiger believes the whole of athletics success starts with success of the individual parts. Those individual parts worked, competed and prospered well enough to put

Which colors are burning in your heart?

Ohio State's Jesse Owens set four world records at the 1935 Big Ten meet and won four gold medals at the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, Germany.

Two-time All-American Katie Smith was a freshman on the 1993 Final Four team.

With 21 major championships to his credit, former Buckeye Jack Nicklaus is arguably the greatest golfer to play the game.

Ohio State among the national leaders in the prestigious Director's Cup, given annually to the nation's most successful athletics program. Ohio State enjoyed its best finish (3rd) in 2002-03 and was 4th last year.

Annually among the Top 20 in the standings, Ohio State strives to contend for the award each year.

Teams, individual student-athletes, coaches, staff and administrators regularly claim championships, academic and athletics awards, recognition and praise for their tireless efforts as Ohio State Department of Athletics family members.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with the completion of Bill Davis Baseball Stadium, the Jerome Schottenstein Center, Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and the Ohio Stadium renovation, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

WHAT IS A BUCKEYE?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree.

According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6-foot-4-inch man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

Athletics Excellence

Another Banner Year

The 2003-04 season was another outstanding campaign for Ohio State athletics. The Buckeyes were led by the fencing team, which won its first NCAA title, while the synchronized swimming squad won the national championship for the fifth consecutive year and 24th time overall. Other highlights included the men's and women's golf teams sweeping the Big Ten tournaments, men's hockey winning its first conference tournament title since 1972, men's lacrosse capturing the outright conference crown and wrestling posting a third-place finish at the national championships. In all, 21 teams were represented in NCAA competition and for the first time in the modern era, Columbus and Ohio State played host to the first and second rounds of the men's and women's NCAA basketball championships.

Buckeye Jeremy Wurtzman, a three-time All-Big Ten selection, earned All-America honors in 2004, the first in program history since head coach Ty Tucker in 1991. Wurtzman, a three-time NCAA singles participant, was named the co-ITA/ Farnsworth National Senior Player of the Year.

The 1993 women's basketball squad advanced to the national championship game.

Sophomore fencer Adam Crompton has won two national championships in men's sabre and owns a 49-0 collegiate record.

Melissa Miller became the first freshman to be named All-American in women's soccer.

Mitch Richeson was the 2004 Big Ten Champion in the 3-meter dive and claimed conference diver of the year honors.

The women's tennis team earned an at-large berth into the NCAA tournament the last six seasons. Kristy Dascoli, the OSU all-time leader in career wins, was the Big Ten Player of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

The men's soccer team won the 2000 Big Ten tournament to advance to the NCAA tournament and received an NCAA at-large bid in 2001.

Senior Stacey Gordon was a 2003 first team Asics/ Volleyball Magazine All-American and became OSU's career leader in kills last season.

Tommy Rowlands, Ohio State's only four-time wrestling All-American, led a band of five All-American performances by winning his second NCAA title and helping the Buckeyes to their best finish in program history, third at the 2004 NCAA Championships.

Greg Bice earned 2004 GWLL Co-Player of the Year honors and was named a second team All-American after leading the Buckeyes to the outright league title and a second-consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament.

Jessica Marshall defended her national championships in sport and air pistols as OSU captured the 2004 NRA Intercollegiate Women's Pistol Championship.

The synchronized swimming team claimed its fifth-consecutive (24th overall) national title in 2004.

Dan Taylor completed his career as a two-time national champion, seven-time Big Ten champion, a nine-time All-American and three-time Big Ten Athlete of the Year winner before being named Ohio State's 2004 Male Athlete of the Year.

In 2003, Natalia Diea became the first platform diving national champion in Ohio State history.

Athletics Excellence

The baseball team came up two wins shy of advancing to the 2003 College World Series. The Buckeyes captured their second-consecutive Big Ten tournament title and advanced to their second Super Regional in the last five years. Left-handed pitcher Scott Lewis was named a Louisville Slugger TPX first team All-American and Big Ten pitcher of the year.

The 2003 women's lacrosse team won a school record 14 games, captured the American Lacrosse Conference championship, swept the major ALC postseason awards and received its second-consecutive at-large bid to the NCAA championship, advancing to the quarterfinals.

The Buckeye men's hockey team won the 2004 CCHA Super Six title to claim the first league championship since 1972. The squad won three games in three days en route to the title, with overtime wins in the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds, capped off by a 4-2 victory over top seed and two-time defending champion Michigan in the championship game.

The women's golf team has recorded three-consecutive Top 10 finishes at the NCAA championships, including an eighth-place finish in 2004. The squad had two All-America honorees last season. Both Allison Hanna and Kristen White were honored for the second year in a row.

The rowing team, which won the 2002 Big Ten Championship, has claimed the Central Regional title the last two seasons. The squad qualified for the NCAA championships in each of the last five seasons, including a program-best fourth-place finish in 2001.

In just his second year at the helm, head coach Jim Tressel led the football Buckeyes to a perfect 14-0 record and their first outright national championship since 1968. The Buckeyes laid claim to the title at the Fiesta Bowl with a 31-24 double-overtime win over Miami, in what has has been labeled by many as one of the greatest college football games ever played.

Emma Laaksonen, the 2004 WCHA Student Athlete of the Year, competed for Finland's women's hockey team in the 2002 Winter Olympic Games. She was the only current Buckeye to represent Ohio State in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The men's basketball team advanced to the 1999 Final Four and won its 16th and 17th Big Ten titles in 2000 and 2002.

The field hockey team won the 2001 Big Ten regular season and conference tournament championships.

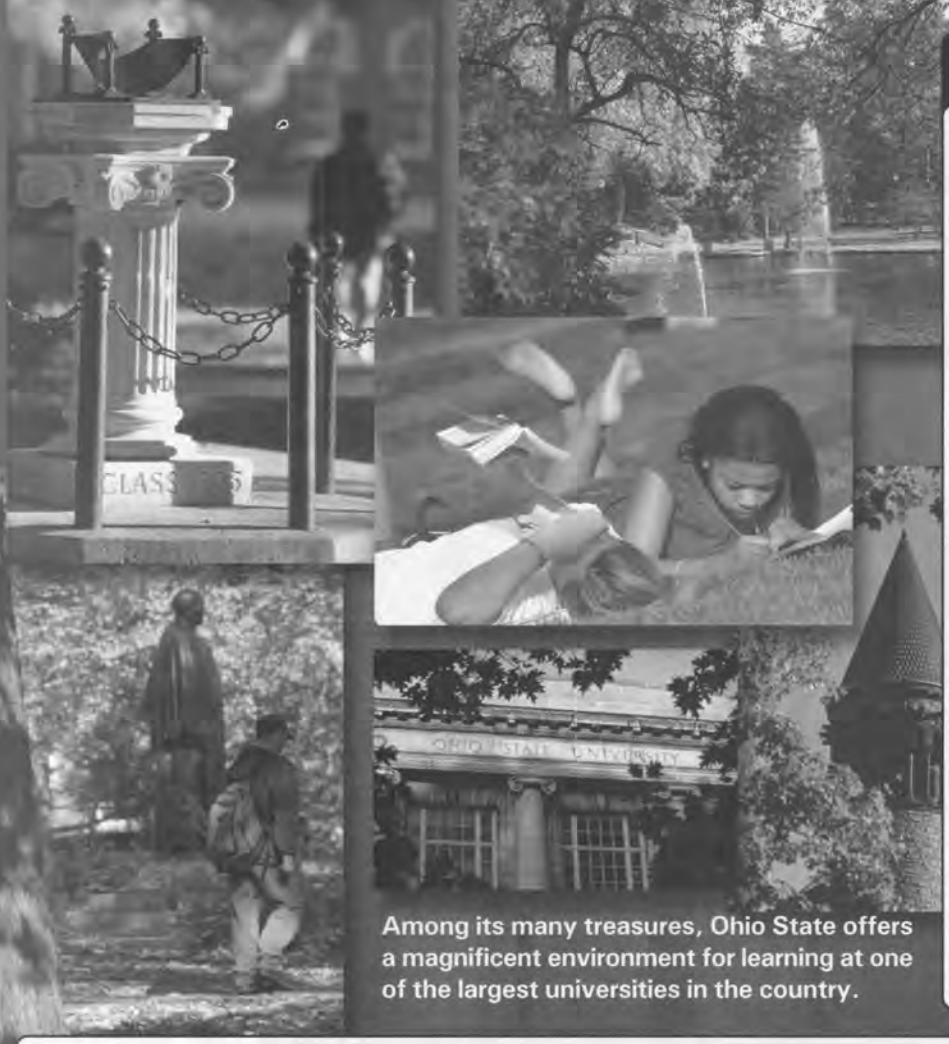
The Ohio State University



Among its many treasures, Ohio State offers a magnificent environment for learning at one of the largest universities in the country.

Points of Pride

- U.S. News and World Report continues to rank Ohio State among the nation's best in its rankings of America's Best Colleges. It is a Top 25 public institution and its graduate programs are rated as the best in Ohio and remain among the very top programs in the country.
- Ohio State's Department of Political Science ranks fourth best in the world, according to a new study done at the London School of Economics and Political Science. Ohio State ranked behind only Columbia, Harvard, and Stanford universities among the world's top political science departments.
- An overwhelming majority of central Ohio physicians included in the national survey of "Best Doctors in America" are faculty members at the Ohio State Medical Center. The list is considered to be one of the more prestigious and credible tools available to consumers for selecting a doctor. Approximately 75 percent of the central Ohio physicians listed as Best Doctors in America are Ohio State faculty members at one or more of the OSU-owned or affiliated hospitals.
- The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education ranks African American MBA student enrollment at the nation's 25 highest-ranked business schools. In the most recent rankings, the Fisher College of Business at Ohio State was the top-ranked program in both percentage of African American students and progress of African American student enrollment.
- Years of studying wetland behavior have paid off for Ohio State Professor Bill Mitsch, who is the co-recipient of the prestigious 2004 Stockholm Water Prize. For water scientists, winning the Stockholm Water Prize is equivalent to winning a Nobel Prize.
- A 30-year quest to understand how insects survive harsh weather has taken Ohio State entomologist David Denlinger to some of the most extreme climates on earth — and has now earned him membership in the National Academy of Sciences. Election to the National Academies is considered one of the highest honors bestowed on a U.S. scientist or engineer.
- Three Ohio State professors have been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a prestigious international learned society and interdisciplinary research institution. The three professors — one each from chemistry, linguistics, and psychology — will join the ranks of world-renowned leaders in scholarship, business, the arts, and public affairs.

The Ohio State University has as its mission the attainment of international distinction in education, scholarship, and public service. As a world-class public research university, Ohio State pursues cutting-edge interdisciplinary research that brings together scholars from diverse disciplines to solve key problems in society.

As the state's leading comprehensive teaching and research university, Ohio State provides accessible, high-quality undergraduate and graduate education that combines a responsibility for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge with a land-grant heritage of public service. It offers an extensive range of academic programs in the liberal arts, the sciences, and the professions.

At Ohio State, we celebrate and learn from our diversity, and we value individual differences. Academic freedom is fostered within an environment of civility, tolerance, and mutual respect.

IN ITS OWN CLASS

Ohio State offers a superior environment for learning. The top-ranked public university in Ohio, Ohio State also consistently ranks among the top national public universities for undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. Ohio State is a student-centered research university that provides a well-rounded experience both inside and outside the classroom. Few universities can match the range of academic offerings at Ohio State, which includes more than 170 undergraduate majors, 200 graduate fields of study, and more than 90 professional programs. Ohio State faculty members are internationally known for their academic credentials, real-world experience, and leading-edge research and are confronting timely and important societal problems, including preventing and treating disease and assessing global climate changes.

The student-to-faculty ratio is 13:1, similar to that found at smaller schools. In fact, 89 percent of first-year classes have fewer than 50 students, and only five percent have more than 100. Staff in hundreds of campus offices provide one-on-one instruction for students, including Student Affairs, Minority Affairs, Disability Services, and the Center for the Study and Teaching of Writing. Outside of the classroom, the residence halls provide academic programs and assistance, including tutoring, study sessions, computer labs, and quiet time.

A DYNAMIC RESEARCH ENVIRONMENT

As a premier research university, Ohio State provides opportunities for students to work with some of the world's leading experts and scholars. More than 1,500 undergraduates work on research projects funded by agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, the U.S. Department of Education, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The university's location in Ohio's capital city and its ties to government, business, and industry provide career, research, and internship opportunities for students. Ohio State's Science and Technology Campus is home to the Ohio MicroMD Laboratory, a world-class bioMEMs facility, and laboratory space for Honda America R&D and fosters collaboration between the university and the business community.

Research grants to the university have increased by 80 percent over the past five years, to $426 million. Ohio State currently ranks 13th in research expenditures among all public universities and 19th among all research universities. The university ranks fifth nationally in industry-sponsored research, and invention disclosures doubled this past year compared with the previous year. We have committed $1 million in seed money for interdisciplinary research projects that have the potential to generate external funding for centers or other initiatives at a significant level. More than $500,000 has been committed for research and scholarship in arts and humanities, and two rounds of funding to projects have already been made.

LIVING-LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

Students can also extend their research and learning—and make lasting friendships—through 32 living-learning communities, including nursing, engineering, Spanish, first-year communities, and Honors communities. These residential programs bring together students with similar career interests and majors, as well as preferred lifestyle and cultural preferences. In addition, first-year students can take part in Ohio State's Scholars Programs, which enable students to attend selected classes together and live in specially designated residence halls. Academically selective, the Scholars Programs offer living-learning environments in health sciences, biology, international affairs, leadership, tomorrow's teachers, arts, communications, and humanities.

EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT CLASS

One of the best indicators of a university's quality is the caliber of its incoming class. The quality of Ohio State's most recently enrolled freshman class is the best in terms of academic profile. Nearly 70 percent of the Class of 2003 comes from the top 25 percent of their high school class, and 34 percent comes from the elite 10 percent.

Our students have been recipients of prestigious recognition. Jenna-Marie Lewis received a Mellon Fellowship in Humanistic Studies; Lindsey Long received a Fulbright Scholarship; and Christopher Dennis, Stewart K. Diemont, Frederick Lah, Lindsey Long, and Amy Thorne received Fulbright grants; while Trevor Birkenholtz, Joshua Guilliland, and Donovan Pavlik were alternate grant recipients. Ohio State was "four for four" as three of our four nominees — David P. Bradway, Michael W. Gribble Jr. and Thomas R. Weisgarber — received Goldwater Scholarships, and the fourth — Lauren C. Walters — was given honorable mention. Nine students received National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowships, while 11 others received NSF honorable mentions.

University Fun Facts

- On Sept. 17, 1873, 24 students met at the old Neil farm just two miles north of Columbus. In 1878 the college's name was changed to The Ohio State University. In that same year the first class of six men graduated, and in 1879, the university graduated its first woman.
- Ohio State rests on the 40th latitude, which measures distance north or south of the Equator. Ohio State is 40 degrees north, the same latitude that passes through Boulder, Colo., Philadelphia and Toledo, Spain.
- Ohio State is believed to be the only major university that still presents actual diplomas to individual graduates at its commencement ceremony.
- Orton Hall is home to the campus chimes (16 bells: 14 in D-flat, 1 in G-sharp, 1 in A-sharp). First played June 15, 1915, they were acclaimed to be the best in the country. Chimes mark each quarter hour and hour and can be heard for three miles.
- An 1893 master plan of campus proposed a grouping of buildings around a central open space, which became today's Oval. The first recorded reference to this space as the Oval came in 1910, with the name becoming official in 1929. The Long Walk is the sidewalk that crosses the Oval.
- An Ohio State tradition says that if you walk the complete length of The Long Walk hand-in-hand with your significant other, the two of you will be together forever.
- The remains of Herbert "Hub" Spencer Atkinson, a former trustee, are located behind a plaque on the second floor of Bricker Hall. A 1913 graduate, Atkinson was a member of the Board of Trustees from 1925-48. Upon his death in 1952, his ashes were placed in the Administration Building, now Bricker Hall, as he requested. Buildings on campus believed to be haunted are: Bricker, Drackett, Hopkins, Orton and Pomerene Halls.

OHIO STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

Ohio State provides resources that are not available at many other universities. The Ohio State University Libraries house the largest collection in Ohio and one of the largest academic library collections in North America, with more than five million print volumes and access to more than 600 million volumes through Ohio LINK and World Cat. Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only freestanding cancer hospital.

Along with the many historic and traditional buildings on campus, there are hundreds of new facilities, as well as many others scheduled for completion in the next few years, including the Biomedical Research Building, Recreation and Physical Activity Center, the World Culture and Media Center, Peter L. and Clara M. Scott Laboratory, and the Knowlton School of Architecture.

DIVERSITY AND OPPORTUNITY

Ohio State prides itself on diversity—from the range of academic opportunities and student organizations to the vibrant makeup of the student body. There is no such thing as a typical Ohio State student. Students come to Ohio State from all over the nation and from more than 100 countries around the world. At Ohio State, diversity and individuality are recognized and valued, and equality of opportunity is a basic commitment. One of the university's missions for the 21st century is to continue to celebrate and build upon the strength of its diversity—from the intellectual enrichment and cultural understanding gained from such diversity to a community outreach philosophy built on a sense of shared destiny and civic responsibility.

Not only does Ohio State promote a university environment that celebrates individual difference, but no other single campus can match the opportunities and resources available here. Undergraduate students can choose from more than 170 major areas of study and nearly 10,500 available courses. Ohio State offers countless opportunities for exposure to a high-profile guest list with campus visits from well-known political leaders, lecturers, and top-name entertainers in the arts, music, and dance. The university offers hundreds of student activities and organizations, the largest intramural and recreational sports department in the country, the excitement of Big Ten athletics, opportunities for community involvement, and a wide range of cultural events.

Exceptional Academics

One-third of the entering freshmen this past fall ranked in the Top 10 percent of their graduating high school class. Two-thirds ranked in the Top 25 percent.

I will give my all for Ohio State every day.

The Best Facilities

One of the most impressive new developments is the Fisher College of Business' six-building mini-campus, which features satellite uplink capabilities, nearly 3,000 computer ports and an investment laboratory.

Ohio State has six regional campuses including the Stone Laboratory on Gibraltar Island at Put-in-Bay, home to the Ohio Sea Grant program. One of 29 under the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the program provides information on critical environmental and resource issues.

Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only freestanding cancer hospital, The James.

College Life...

ISN'T JUST ABOUT GOING TO PRACTICE AND CLASS.

At Ohio State, education extends beyond the classroom and the practice field. Many students enhance their academic and career experiences through the numerous co-op, internship, and more than 100 study abroad opportunities. Many other students get involved in innovative research projects that have a lasting and direct impact on the community. What are you into? Chances are, one of Ohio State's 500 student organizations is right up your alley.

Under the direction of Dr. Kate Riffee, the Student-Athlete Support Services Office's (SASSO) staff of seven academic counselors, academic resource coordinators, life skills coordinators and graduate assistants assist more than 900 student-athletes in all areas of academic support, from career counseling and planning to honors placement, early registration and course selection. Students are provided tutors, access to computers, study tables and instruction in studying and time management to help reach academic goals. Additionally, an academic counselor is assigned specifically to each team to ensure every student-athlete receives individualized attention.

403 SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

After the 2003-04 academic year, 403 student-athletes were honored as Ohio State Scholar-Athletes for their success in maintaining cumulative grade point averages of 3.0 or better. Each year, the outstanding students are recognized at the Ohio State Scholar-Athlete Awards Banquet.

Last year, the department presented The Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor to Ben Hartsock (football) and Jessica Marshall (pistol).

In addition to the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor, outstanding student-athletes in the graduating class are eligible to apply for a number of postgraduate scholarships. Among the scholarships given are the Corwin A. Fergus Memorial Award, the Leann Grimes-Davidge Award, the A.K. and Judith A. Pierce Phoenix Award and the M/I Homes Foundation Award.

AWARDS ABOUND

In addition, Ohio State student-athletes have the opportunity to receive Academic All-Big Ten honors. In the past seven years, the Buckeyes have totaled 1,573 honorees. The Buckeyes had 249 recipients in 2003-04, one shy of the conference-record 250 recipients OSU had in 2002-03.

Outstanding OSU student-athletes also receive All-America and All-District honors each year. During the 2003-04 school year, 17 Buckeyes earned academic all-district honors. The Buckeye honorees included: Cody Caughenbaugh (baseball), Dustin Fox (football), Sjaan Gerth (track and field), Melissa Glaser (ice hockey), Maurice Hall (football), Ben Hartsock (football), Jamey Houle (gymnastics), Blake Kaplan (wrestling), Craig Krenzel (football), Emma Laaksonen (ice hockey), Rob Myers (track and field), Erica Nollen (soccer), Mitch Richeson (diving), David Ridenhour (soccer), Nate Salley (football), Jackie Shirer (soccer) and Kristen White (golf). Krenzel was named the Academic All-America of the Year for football and earned first team Academic All-America honors, while Houle and Richeson went on to earn First Team All-America accolades.

The District IV team is made up of student-athletes from Division I schools in Alabama, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee. To be nominated, student-athletes must be a starter or important reserve and carry a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 or higher. Team members are selected by a vote of members of the College Sports Information Directors of America within the district. All athletes that earn first-team honors move onto the ballot for All-America recognition.

Support Services

The state-of-the-art Younkin Success Center, located on Neil Avenue near the center of campus, provides students and student-athletes alike with the tools for success. It houses career services, counseling and consultation services, the Student-Athlete Support Services Office and the faculty and teaching assistant development office. Services in the building include tutoring, career planning tailored to the needs of each student, counseling services, an 80-station computer lab and time management and test-taking assistance.

This collaboration of learning support programs helps ensure that all students, regardless of their background, interest and talents, find personal and academic success.

The Younkin Success Center was dedicated in Spring 2000. A "one-stop learning mall," it is one of the most unique learning facilities in America.

Becoming Buckeyes

Ohio State attracts high-caliber students

By Karissa Shirley

Topping Randi Wuenger's list of possible universities were some of the best institutions of higher education in the Mid-west. She and her twin sister, Robin, had applied and been accepted to Ohio State, Northwestern, Purdue, the University of Michigan and Michigan State before making the decision to become Buckeyes.

Both Randi and Robin, graduates of Westerville North High School, were who are in the top 3 percent of their high school class and have ACT scores of 29 or higher are named University Scholars. This distinction, given to 1,400 students this year, entitles them to $6,000 over four years, as well as an invitation to increase the value of their scholarship by participating in the Maximus competition.

This year, 1,100 students chose to participate in the competition, which offers 120 higher-level scholarships, including 10 Presidential Scholarships, 30 Medalist Scholarships and 80 Tradition Scholarships (currently valued at $8,274 for four years).

"These students come to Ohio State with strong academic backgrounds and high expectations," Hoppes said. "They are looking

C.H.A.M.P.S.

Ohio State student-athletes are encouraged to become involved in more than just athletics. One of the most innovative and noteworthy initiatives fueling this effort is the C.H.A.M.P.S. (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success) Life Skills Program which affords students the opportunity to grow and develop in the areas of academic and athletic excellence, community service, health and wellness and personal and career development.

The Ohio State C.H.A.M.P.S. program is a leader at the national and conference levels. Ohio State SASSO has been recognized by the Division I-A athletics directors' association as a "Program of Excellence" for implementing innovative and comprehensive support services for student-athletes. An advisory board member with this association, Ohio State also serves as a support and advisory school to other NCAA Life Skills programs. SASSO was recognized by The National Consortium for Academics and Sport with its "Degree Completion Award."

Students have a chance to take a leadership role with the Student Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB). The organization meets monthly, providing team representation to the department of athletics and input on department policy and programming.

Membership consists of representatives from each of Ohio State's 36 varsity sports, who act as liaisons between the SAAB and their team. The Executive Committee consists of a board of officers, the chairpersons of five sub-committees, editorial board of The Buckeye Flash and athletics department advisors.

The major goals of the SAAB are to promote effective communication between the department of athletics administration and the student-athlete population and to provide the student-athletes with an opportunity to have input into the educational/personal development programs which serve their needs. The SAAB promotes academic achievement, health promotion, social responsibility and general awareness of departmental issues.

Ohio State is serious about the role it plays in the lives of its student-athletes and for that reason has systematically designed programs to meet their needs. Upon graduation, students will receive more than just a handshake and diploma. Backed by one of the largest alumni associations in the nation, an OSU degree will be their ticket to career opportunities around the world.

Conference Medal of Honor

The winners of the 2004 Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor were football player Ben Hartsock and pistol competitor Jessica Marshall.

Each member institution in the conference gives the award annually to the male and female athletes in the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in both academics and athletics.

The Big Ten Conference office established the award in 1914 and an additional award for the top female was instituted in 1982. This honor includes a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship for the recipients who would like to pursue a graduate or professional program at Ohio State.

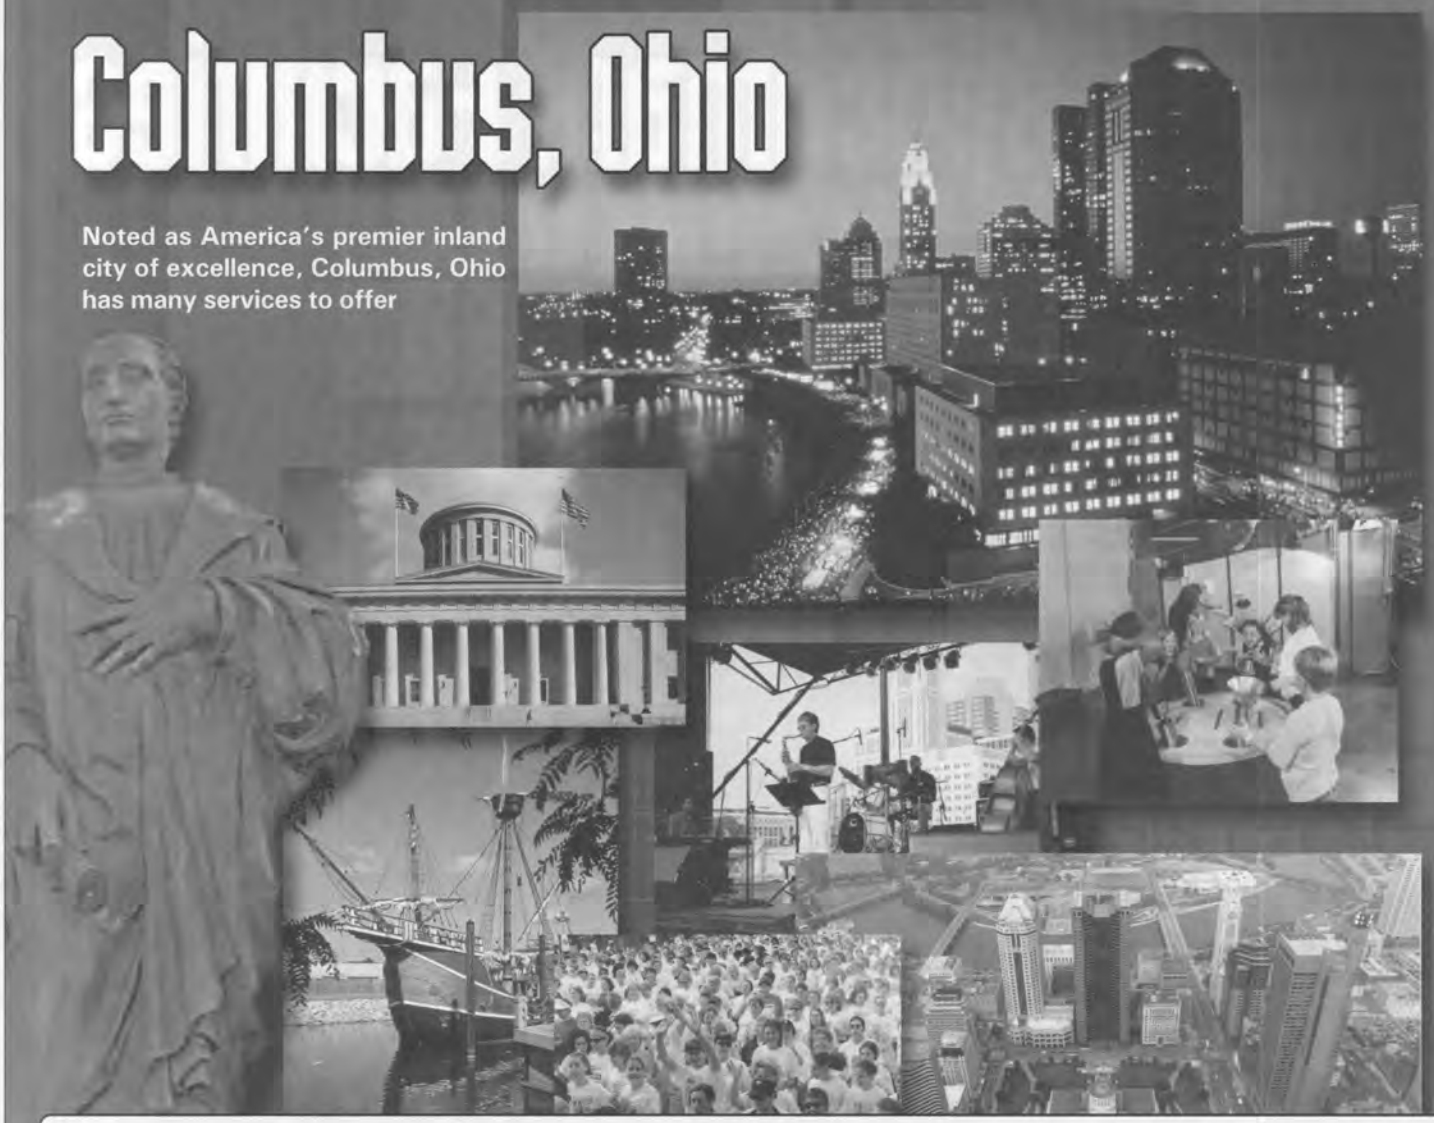
Columbus, Ohio

Noted as America's premier inland city of excellence, Columbus, Ohio has many services to offer



Columbus, the largest city in Ohio, is the 15th largest city in the country. The state capital, Columbus continues to enjoy widespread development. Recent growth includes two state-of-the-art multi-purpose arenas, OSU's Jerome Schottenstein Center and Nationwide Arena, and the relocation of Ohio's Center of Science & Industry to its new home on the Scioto Riverfront.

Mayor Michael B. Coleman

The heart of the city features visual and performing arts and numerous festivals including Red, White & Boom!, the Columbus Arts Festival, the Jazz & Rib Fest and Cruisin' on the Riverfront. The arts festival was named first in the nation for its crafts and fifth in the country in fine arts by Sunshine Artist magazine.

A flood of new entertainment acts and shopping districts, a unique partnership between professional and collegiate sports teams and a major expansion of its convention center make Columbus one of the fastest growing cities in the Midwest. Recently, Nation's Restaurant News named Columbus one of the Top 50 cities across the country that "sizzle."

The area also features a number of unique neighborhoods. German Village, just south of downtown, is the largest privately-restored historical district in the United States. Brick streets are lined with shops and restaurants and are home to the city's annual Oktoberfest celebration.

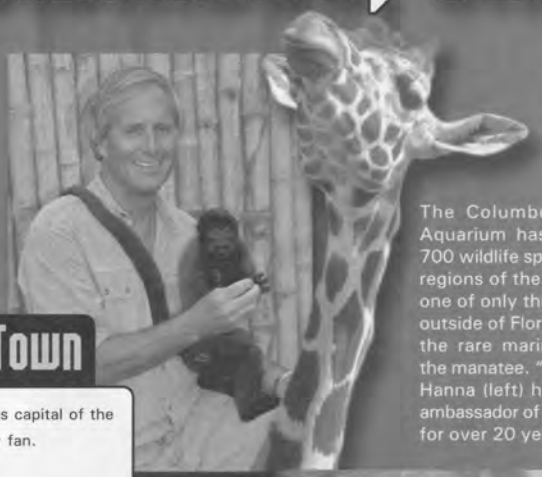
Just north of downtown, the Short North features scores of art galleries, restaurants and boutiques. On the first Saturday of each month, the galleries stay open late for the popular Gallery Hop. The Brewery District, south of downtown, and the Arena District, north of the city's center, continue to grow in popularity. New additions in the Arena District include Promowest Pavilion, an intimate indoor and outdoor concert venue, and the Arena Grand Theatre, a state-of-the-art motion picture theatre that offers moviegoers a whole new experience.

Shopping opportunities abound in and around Columbus. The city was ranked seventh in the nation by the National Research Bureau for the amount of retail space per person, ranking ahead of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami and Boston. Those rankings do not include the newest shopping areas - The North District at Easton Town Center and Polaris Fashion Place.

Easton Town Center on the northeast side features hundreds of shops, restaurants and nightclubs, including the AMC Experience, the Cheesecake Factory and Steven Spielberg's GameWorks. Polaris Fashion Place on the north side includes 50 retailers new to the area, including Lord and Taylor, Saks Fifth Avenue and Kaufmann's. Columbus City Center downtown and the Mall at Tuttle Crossing on the northwest side also feature hundreds of shops and restaurants.

Columbus also features a stable economy with low unemployment and headquarters of major businesses, including Nationwide Insurance, Wendy's International and The Limited. The Greater Columbus area also is home to no fewer than 15 colleges and universities, including OSU, Columbus State Community College, Ohio Dominican College and Capital and Franklin universities.

Columbus, Ohio



The Columbus Zoo and Aquarium has more than 700 wildlife species from all regions of the world and is one of only three locations outside of Florida to exhibit the rare marine mammal, the manatee. "Jungle Jack" Hanna (left) has served as ambassador of the attraction for over 20 years.

A True Sports Town

Columbus is fast becoming a sports capital of the Midwest with something for every fan.

- More than 70 golf courses
- The Memorial Tournament, PGA
- Wendy's Championship for Children at Tartan Fields, LPGA
- Beulah Park and Scioto Downs
- Griggs Reservior

Ohio has 74 state parks that offer a variety of outdoor experiences. Over 25 of these are located within an hour of downtown Columbus. Festivals and attractions are available to residents year round.

One of Columbus' most famous natives was Alice Schille (above), a watercolorist whose circle of friends included the famous painter Pablo Picasso, the sculptor Rodin and many of the leading writers of the 1920s and 1930s.

The Performing Arts

Columbus also is listed as one of the best metro areas for the arts by Places Rated Almanac.

- Columbus Symphony Orchestra
- Six downtown theatres including the Ohio, Palace and Southern
- BalletMet
- Opera/Columbus
- Columbus Association for the Performing Arts
- Broadway Series
- Columbus Museum of Art

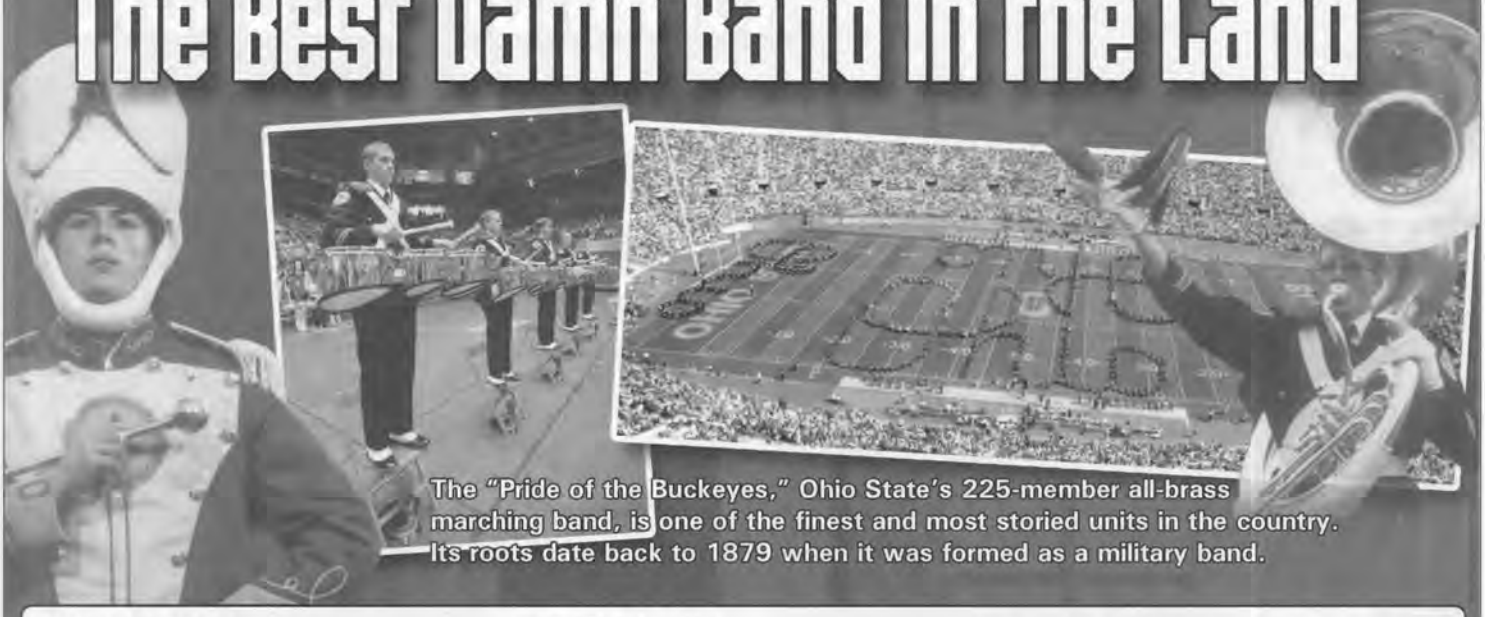
The Best Damn Band in the Land



The "Pride of the Buckeyes," Ohio State's 225-member all-brass marching band, is one of the finest and most storied units in the country. Its roots date back to 1879 when it was formed as a military band.

SKULL SESSION

In 1932 Eugene J. Weigel enhanced the band's performance by having members completely memorize music before the game each week. By doing this bandsmen could concentrate more on the marching maneuvers without sacrificing the music. Weigel then scheduled a final rehearsal of the music before game time so the band could play and think through the show one last time - one last "Skull Session." In the old Rehearsal Hall there was room for a few hundred parents and fans to sit and listen. Eventually, watching this rehearsal became so popular tickets were issued to bandsmen to make sure their parents had seats. After St. John Arena was built in 1957, Jack Evans requested its use for the last rehearsal before game time. Athletics Director Richard Larkins was happy to oblige, as he was eager to show off the new facility. The skull session was changed to a concert/pep rally atmosphere by Dr. Paul Droste which continues today. Skull session starts one and a half hours before kickoff of every home football game. It is a popular concert/pep rally, with over 10,000 fans in attendance. Seats for skull session are in high demand and it is not unusual for dedicated fans to arrive up to two hours before the band.

RAMP ENTRANCE

The Ramp Entrance dates back to 1928, when it was introduced by band members Bill Knepper and Elvin Donaldson. The entire sequence survives today virtually unchanged and is one of the single most defining elements of The Ohio State University Marching Band.

Following their performance at Skull Session, the band forms outside St. John Arena and marches across Woody Hayes Drive in ranks of 12 to drum cadence. The band enters Ohio Stadium and assembles on the ramp which leads to the field.

The percussion section leader stands at the base of the ramp, setting the tempo of 180 beats per minute. At the appointed time, he screams to his section "Drums on the side!" The percussionists then take the field, chanting "O-H-I-O, OHIO, O-H-I-O, OHIO..." Band members take their spots on the ramp as the percussionists leave and the Stadium comes to life as the drums hit their mark. The drums roar to life as the first trumpets emerge, executing a precise arm swing and carrying their instruments at their side, maintaining perfect two step spacing.

THE BACK BEND

Once the ranks fill up, a whistle sounds and the entire band turns and the introduction to "Buckeye Battle Cry" is played.

The drum major struts through the middle of the band and comes to the front of the ranks to execute a back bend. As the major's plume touches the grass, a cheer fills the stadium and the band breaks into two choruses of the fight song while storming toward the South Stands. The drum major reaches the end zone, performs a goal post toss and the band finishes the downfield march, executes an about-face maneuver and stands motionless awaiting the raising of the flag and the performance of the national anthem.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

HISTORY OF THE "I"-DOT

At its first performance, the Script Ohio's "i" was dotted by a trumpet player, John Brungart (1933-36). The march from the top of the "o" to the top of the "i" was just another movement to complete a formation but over 60 years later, the honor of dotting the "i" is known throughout the world.

In the fall of 1937, Glen R. Johnson, a sousaphone player, was ordered to switch places with the trumpet player in the formation.

The familiar kick, turn and bow by the sousaphone player at the top of the "i" was an innovation introduced by Johnson at a game in 1938. "(The turn) was an impulse reaction when drum major Myron McKelvey arrived three or four measures too soon at the top of the "i"," Johnson explained, "so I did a big kick, a turn and a deep bow to use up the music." The crowd roared when this happened, and it became part of the show thereafter.

WHO DOTS THE "I"

To be eligible to dot the "i", a sousaphone player must at least be a fourth-year member. Fifth-year members also are eligible to dot the "i", but only after all fourth-year members have been chosen. At postseason performances (usually double scripts), fourth and fifth-year members compete for the open dots in what is called a "dot-off", in which eligible members perform their routine for the entire sousaphone section. Members watch two rounds of competition and vote for the best two candidates.

HONORARY "I"-DOTTERS

Woody Hayes and Bob Hope are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i." This is considered the greatest honor the band can bestow to any non-band person and is an extremely special (and rare) event.

HOW TO DOT THE "I"

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with the sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot, and the sousaphone player assumes the post of honor, doffs his hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

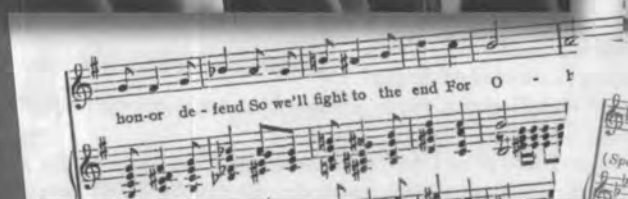
Ohio State Traditions



BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold.
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship O-hi-o.

"Across the Field" was ranked in the Top 10 for most inspiring fight songs in the country in a list compiled in 1990 by Bill Studwell, a librarian at Northern Illinois University (and fight song expert). The pieces were graded on music quality, lyrics and overall tune. The Top 10 were: 1. Notre Dame, 2. Michigan, 3. Wisconsin, 4. Yale, 5. Maine, 6. Navy, 7. Southern California, 8. Georgia Tech, 9. Texas, 10. Ohio State.

Ohio State Traditions

Buckeye Leaves

The tradition of placing Buckeye Leaves on the Ohio State helmets started in 1968 when Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. The new look included names on the back of the jerseys and a wide "Buckeye stripe" on the sleeves of the jersey believed to be the first of its kind in the sport of football.

Victory Bell

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.

Scarlet and Gray

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, Scarlet and Gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

Brutus Buckeye

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened papier mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

Cheerleaders

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the east region in 13 of the last 16 years. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state throughout the year.

Gold Pants

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four-consecutive times, all by shutout.

Ohio State Traditions

Buckeye Grove

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each of Ohio State's All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game. With the renovation of Ohio Stadium in 2001, the Buckeye Grove is now loated at the southwest corner of the stadium.

Senior Tackle

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time. For many years it was held following the last practice prior to the season finale with Michigan. But depending upon the Buckeyes' bowl obligation, it has sometimes been moved to the last home practice before the team departs for its bowl obligation.

Tunnel of Pride

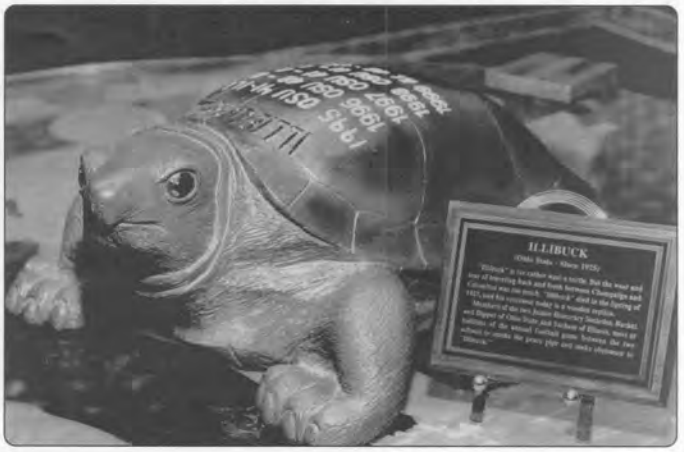
The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and current Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

Captain's Breakfast

Started in 1934, this annual event is held on homecoming weekend. All past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

The IlliBuck Trophy

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.



Ohio State Traditions

The Michigan Game

The annual Ohio State-Michigan football game was No. 1 on a list of the 10 Greatest Rivalries In Sports compiled by the editorial staff at ESPN.com in 1999. There simply is no greater rivalry in college athletics.

Homecoming

First recognized in 1912, Homecoming began as "Ohio State Day." It was initiated by Professor (and later OSU President) George W. Rightmire. Homecoming was designed to bring the alumni back to the university and celebrate.

The celebration has been noted, among other things, for the decorating of Greek chapter facilities and university dormitories.

The parade is another tradition Buckeyes' hold high. The parade did not become a time-honored tradition until it joined the schedule permanently in 1965.

In 1926, student supporters wishing to pull a practical joke on the university, convinced the community that Maudine Ormsby was to be honored as queen. She was so popular on campus, she won the vote. Maudine, pictured at the right, actually turned out to be a cow, the only cow ever elected as homecoming queen.

Block O

An Ohio State University and Ohio Stadium tradition, Block "O" is celebrating its 65th anniversary this year. Known for spreading spirit, starting cheers and performing card stunts, Block "O" was founded in 1938 by Clancy Isaac. After seeing a cheering section at the University of Southern California, Isaac decided that it was something Ohio State needed. Sixty-five years later, Block "O" is Ohio State's largest student organization on campus and has gained local and national recognition.

Ohio State Traditions

Retired Jersey Numbers

Five Ohio State football players – Archie Griffin, Vic Janowicz and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, Les Horvath and Eddie George – have had their numbers officially retired by the Department of Athletics.

Griffin, college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner (1974 and '75), was the first. In a surprise ceremony, his No. 45 was retired on Oct. 30, 1999 at halftime of the Iowa-Ohio State game.

Janowicz and Cassady were honored during the 2000 season. Janowicz, the 1950 Heisman Trophy recipient, had his No. 31 retired posthumously at halftime of the Sept. 23 Penn State game. Cassady, who led the Buckeyes to the 1954 national championship and then won the Heisman the following year, had his No. 40 retired at halftime of the Nov. 18 Michigan game.

Horvath and George were honored during the 2001 season. Horvath's No. 22 was be retired at the Oct. 6 Northwestern game and George's No 27 at halftime of the Nov. 10 Purdue game.

In order to have his number retired, an athlete must have graduated, or in the event of leaving early to pursue a professional career, have been in good academic standing at the time of his departure. He also must have received one of the following awards: The Heisman Trophy, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Award, the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, the Football Writers Player of the Year Award, or the American Football Coaches Player of the Year Award.

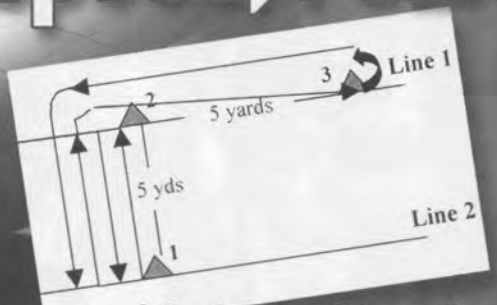
A sixth Ohio State player, Chic Harley—Ohio State' first three-time All-American, will join that group this year. Harley's No. 47 will be retired Oct. 30 at halftime of the Penn State game.

Training Facilities

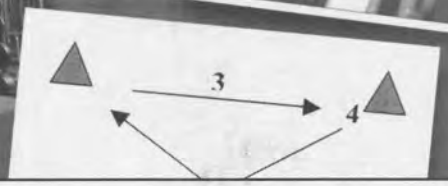
Noted as America's premier inland city of excellence, Columbus, Ohio has many services to offer

The Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most extensive indoor practice facilities of its kind.

Speed, Power, Strength



Our goal is to be the strongest, fastest and best conditioned team in America.



Ohio State Football Strength and Conditioning

- The Ohio State University strength and conditioning program is a comprehensive, systematic, well researched program that uses periodization techniques in strength training. The program places paramount importance on improving athletic movement and flexibility.
- A major component of the Ohio State strength and conditioning program is the pride of working hard each and every day.
- Variety: Ohio State football players will be given great variety in the workouts and will be motivated to achieve personal and team success.
- Motivation is a key component of the Ohio State strength and conditioning program. The coaching staff takes great pride in motivating the football team to reach its upper limits.

The Ohio State goals are:

- Develop the Total Athlete with emphasis in developing: speed, strength, explosion, flexibility and conditioning.
- Develop an attitude of success through hard work in the strength and conditioning program.
- Develop a great mental toughness through strength and conditioning program that transfers over to an attitude of playing 60-minutes of physical football.

Ohio State's Walk-on Tradition

Walk-ons always have played a role in Ohio State's success on the field and in the classroom.

The recent limitation on the number of Division I-A football scholarships by the NCAA has made the role of walk-ons even more important to the Buckeye football program.

While the daily contributions of walk-ons normally go unnoticed on game days, they have never gone unnoticed by the Buckeye coaching staff. It is the walk-ons job in practice to make sure that their teammates are prepared to play on Saturday. Practice also offers the opportunity for walk-ons to earn playing time and scholarships.

Over the years walk-ons have joined the Buckeye football program with nothing more promised to them but an opportunity. Some walk-ons even turned down scholarship offers from other schools to fulfill their lifelong dream to become a Buckeye.

It's no secret that walk-ons have been an integral part of past Buckeye team successes. Many walk-ons earned playing time and were eventually awarded scholarships. Some surpassed all expectations and eventually earned an opportunity to continue playing football in the National Football League.

NCAA Compliance Regulations

The Ohio State University is committed to operating its athletics programs according to the rules and the spirit of both the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference. As a member institution, Ohio State is subject to rules and regulations designated by these bodies, and it is responsible for ensuring all representatives of the University, including faculty, staff, alumni, student-athletes and friends, abide by these rules.

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF OHIO STATE'S ATHLETIC INTERESTS ("BOOSTER")?

An Ohio State booster is anyone who:

- Is or has been a member of a Buckeye athletic booster organization, such as The Buckeye Club, The Diamond Club, or Buckeye Boosters;
- Has made a financial contribution to the Ohio State athletics department or a booster club;
- Is or has been a season ticket holder in any sport;
- Is the parent or legal guardian of a current student-athlete;
- Has provided or arranged employment for prospective or current student-athletes;
- Has contacted a prospective student-athlete to encourage their participation in any of Ohio State's athletic programs (PLEASE NOTE: The NCAA prohibits such contact. Boosters may not participate in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes in any manner. Only NCAA-certified coaches may recruit prospective student-athletes.); or
- Has provided benefits to a prospective or current student-athlete or that student-athlete's relatives or friends (PLEASE NOTE: It is impermissible to provide recruiting inducements to prospective student-athletes or extra benefits to current student-athletes. Doing so may render a student-athlete ineligible.)

Even if someone is not a booster according to the above definition, they can still violate the NCAA regulations if they provide benefits to a prospect, student-athlete, their relatives or friends. If any of the following statements are true, then providing benefits to prospects or student-athletes, their relatives and friends can result in the student-athlete being rendered ineligible and cause the individual providing the benefit to be classified as a booster from that point forward:

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete became a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety due to his or her athletic ability or reputation;
- The pattern of giving increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a skilled athlete.

ONCE A BOOSTER, ALWAYS A BOOSTER

Once a person is identified as a booster, that person retains that identity indefinitely.

A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE IS ...

- Any student who has started ninth grade classes.
- Additionally, a student who has not started ninth grade classes becomes a prospective student-athlete if Ohio State or its boosters provide the prospect, or their relatives or friends, any financial assistance or benefits that it does not provide to prospective students generally.

Boosters may not have contact with prospective student-athletes.

A CONTACT IS:

- Any face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parents, relatives, or legal guardian(s), and a booster during which any dialogue beyond a simple greeting occurs.
- There are several permissible contacts, including:
- A luncheon or dinner sponsored by an alumni group where prospective students (athletes and non-athletes) of that immediate locale are invited;
- Phone conversations, initiated by the prospect, provided no recruiting conversations occur; and
- Viewing a prospect's athletic contests on one's own initiative, provided there is no contact with the prospect, or the prospect's parents, relatives or legal guardian(s).

As a booster, you may not provide extra benefits to current student-athletes or recruiting inducements to prospective student-athletes.

EXAMPLES OF IMPERMISSIBLE INDUCEMENTS AND BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- Cash or loans of money;
- Signing or cosigning a loan;
- Any tangible gifts, including holiday or birthday gifts;
- Free or discounted meals, goods (e.g., clothing) or services (e.g., dry cleaning, haircuts, cell phones, long distance calls);
- Free or discounted entertainment (e.g., movie tickets, professional sports tickets);
- Assistance in paying bills (e.g., utility bills, rent payments, telephone or cell phone bills);
- Transportation or the use of an automobile;
- Hospitality in your home, other than for an occasional home meal for a student-athlete (e.g., birthday, holiday). Occasional home meals are never permitted for a prospective student-athlete;
- Arranging employment for a prospective or current student-athlete's relatives or friends; or
- Any other special arrangements by a booster to provide a benefit not specifically authorized by the NCAA.

The above information provides a brief overview of boosters and their interactions with prospective and current student-athletes. It is not an exhaustive discussion. If you have any questions about this overview or any NCAA rules, please feel free to contact:

Karen A. Holbrook

President, The Ohio State University

Karen A. Holbrook became the 13th president of The Ohio State University on October 1, 2002. She is committed to helping Ohio State realize its vision as a truly great research and teaching university.

Dr. Holbrook came to Columbus from The University of Georgia, where since 1998 she served as senior vice president for academic affairs and provost – as well as professor of cell biology and adjunct professor of anatomy and cell biology and medicine at the Medical College of Georgia. At Georgia, she helped create the Biomedical and Health Sciences Institute, two new colleges, the New Media Institute, and played a key role in developing the University's Strategic Plan, which among other things includes a strong commitment to diversity and ambitious diversity goals. She strongly supported the efforts of faculty and research leaders to successfully expand Georgia's federal research funding.

Dr. Holbrook was an instructor and later assistant professor, associate professor, associate chairman, and professor of biological structure and medicine at the University of Washington School of Medicine, where she gained a national reputation for her expertise in dermatology. Showing the leadership skills that characterize her career, she also served as associate dean for scientific affairs.

In 1993, Dr. Holbrook moved to the University of Florida at Gainesville, where she served as vice president for research and dean of the Graduate School as well as professor of anatomy and cell biology and medicine (dermatology). While there, she organized and chaired a meeting co-sponsored by the Governor's Office, the University System, private enterprise, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) called, "The Future of Science and Technology in Florida: High Tech Florida Means Business."

Her honors and awards include the Kung Sun Oh Memorial Prize, Yonsei Medical College of Seoul, Korea; Fellow, AAAS; the Distinguished Contribution to Research Administration Award from the Society of Research Administrators International; 34th Annual Marion Spencer Fay National Board Award of the Medical College of Pennsylvania to the Distinguished Woman Physician/Scientist in 1996; and The Women's Center Leadership Award from the Washington, DC-based Women's Center.

Throughout her career, she has held leadership roles and participated extensively in the activities of professional and honorary societies, including the AAAS, where she is a member of the board of directors and Fellow; the American Association of Universities; the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges; and the Association of American Medical Colleges. She is on the Board of Directors of ACT, the American Council on Education, and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Her editorial and publication activities are extensive, and her service on faculty committees, economic development groups, search committees and the like are impressive. She has been deeply involved in national and regional efforts to strengthen graduate education in America and has been active in economic development partnerships at the community and state levels.

In Ohio, Dr. Holbrook was appointed by Governor Taft as a member of the Commission on Higher Education and the Economy and the steering committee for the Third Frontier Bond Initiative Campaign. She also chairs the Science and Technology Campus Corporation Board and serves on the boards of directors of Huntington Bancshares, Reservoir Venture Partners, Columbus Technology Council, The Columbus Partnership, Center of Science and Industry, Columbus Downtown Development Corporation, Central Ohio United Negro College Fund, United Way of Central Ohio, Greater Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, CEO's for Cities, and the Columbus School for Girls. She serves as managing trustee of the Capitol South Urban Redevelopment Corporation.

Born in Des Moines, Iowa, Karen Holbrook earned her B.S. and M.S. degrees in zoology at the University of Wisconsin in Madison in 1963 and 1966, respectively. After teaching biology at Ripon College for three years, she earned a Ph.D. in biological structure from the University of Washington School of Medicine in 1972 and pursued postdoctoral training in the Department of Dermatology.

She is married to Jim Holbrook, a retired oceanographer and past deputy director of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Pacific Marine Environmental Research Laboratory in Seattle. She and her husband have one son, James.

Tami Longaberger, chair of the board, was appointed to the board of trustees in 1996 by Governor George Voinovich. She is president and CEO of The Longaberger Company, which she joined in January 1984 after receiving a bachelor of science degree in business administration from The Ohio State University. The Longaberger Company is the premier U.S. maker of handcrafted baskets and offers other items for the home, all of which reach customers through independent home consultants.

A respected leader and active participant in international, national, and statewide affairs, Tami was appointed in 2004 by President George W. Bush to the U.S. delegation to the United Nations' 60th Session of the Commission on Human Rights, held in Geneva. She was chair of the U.S. executive committee for the 2002 Helsinki Women Business Leaders Summit, led by Bonnie McElveen-Hunter, U.S. Ambassador to Finland. Tami is a member of the board of directors of The John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy; past chairman of the board of the national Direct Selling Association; member of the Ohio Business Roundtable; and member of the board of Battelle for Kids. She is a member of the board of the National Audubon Society and the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, based in Washington, D.C

Daniel M. Slane, vice chair, was appointed to the board in 1997. He is the founder and co-owner of The Slane Company, Ltd., which develops, owns and operates 88 shopping centers and commercial developments in 12 states. The company owns and operates electrical power generating stations in Europe, with headquarters in Birmingham, England. Mr. Slane is part owner of Slane Telcom, a telecommunications company, which builds communications towers for government and private cellular use.

Mr. Slane earned a bachelor of science in business administration degree from The Ohio State University in 1964 and his J.D. degree in 1967. He served two years as a captain in the U.S. Army before receiving his M.A. degree in international law in 1970 from the University of Amsterdam in the Netherlands.

He served one year as an assistant prosecuting attorney for Franklin County and two years as a White House staff assistant to President Gerald R. Ford.

From 1990 until 1998, Mr. Slane served as vice chairman and chairman of the Ohio Building Authority, which finances, constructs, and manages state buildings. From 1991 until 1999, he chaired the State Board of Building Appeals, which grants variances to the Ohio Basic Building Code. He also sits on the board of directors of Ohio Capital Corporation, which has developed over a half billion dollars of government-subsidized housing projects in Ohio.

In addition, Mr. Slane served on the board of trustees of Hiram College from 1996 to 2001.

Robert M. Duncan, of Columbus, is a native of Urbana, Ohio, and was appointed to the board in 1988. He is a former Judge of the Franklin County Municipal Court, Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, and Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. He is a retired partner of the law firm Jones, Day, Reavis, and Pogue. He also served as vice president, general counsel, and secretary of the board of trustees of The Ohio State University.

Judge Duncan serves on the board of directors of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Newark and the board of trustees of Gartmore Mutual Funds.

He earned both his bachelor of science and juris doctor degrees from The Ohio State University. He received the honorary degree, Doctor of Laws, from his alma mater in 1979.

Judge Duncan and his wife, Shirley, and two of his grown children live in Columbus. His youngest daughter resides in New York City.

Karen L. Hendricks, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was appointed to the board of trustees in 1999 by Governor Bob Taft. She is a leadership development consultant and executive coach with Lee Hecht Harrison and is the former chair of the board, chief executive officer, and president of the Baldwin Piano & Organ Company.

Prior to joining Baldwin, she was executive vice president and general manager of the Skin Care Division at The Dial Corporation in Phoenix, Arizona. Ms. Hendricks spent almost 21 years at the Procter & Gamble Company, beginning in product development after graduating from The Ohio State University in chemical engineering. In her last two years at Procter & Gamble, she was manager of Worldwide Strategic Planning for the company's expanding global hair care business.

Ms. Hendricks serves on the board of directors of Corn Products International Inc., and the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. She is also a board member of the Greater Cincinnati Chapter of The American Red Cross, a member of the Commercial Club in Cincinnati, and recipient of the YWCA Women of Achievement Award in Cincinnati in 1997.

Previously, her affiliations include board membership of ACNielsen Corporation and the Columbia Energy Group; trusteeship of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce; and membership on the Cincinnati Business Committee and the Ohio Business Roundtable.

Ms. Hendricks a native of Shelby, Ohio, and her husband, Milt, live in Cincinnati, and have four grown children, one of whom is a student at Ohio State.

Dimon R. McFerson, of Powell, Ohio, was appointed to the board in 2000, the same year he retired as chairman and CEO of Nationwide, based in Columbus, Ohio. He was elected president of Nationwide Property/Casualty companies in 1988, and promoted to CEO in 1992.

A Los Angeles native, Mr. McFerson is a 1959 graduate of UCLA and earned a master's degree from the University of Southern California in 1972. He is a certified public accountant (CPA) and holds a chartered life underwriter (CLU) professional designation. He was awarded honorary doctorates from Capital University, Ohio Dominican College, Otterbein College, and Franklin University.

He is past chairman of the United Way of America Board of Governors and past first vice chair of the American Red Cross Board of Governors. In the local community, he is past board chair of the Center of Science and Industry (COSI) and past vice chairman of The Columbus Foundation. He served two years (1998-2000) as chair of the Greater Columbus Chamber of Commerce. He currently serves on the board of education at Olentangy Local Schools.

Mr. McFerson and his wife, Darlene, have lived in Ohio for 25 years and have seven children and 22 grandchildren, all living in Powell, Ohio, near Columbus.

Jo Ann Davidson was appointed as a member of the OSU board of trustees in 2001. No stranger to public service, Davidson is former Speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives. Serving ten terms in the Ohio House of Representatives representing a portion of Franklin County, Davidson was the first woman Speaker of the Ohio House, serving in that position from 1995 through 2000.

Davidson currently has her own consulting firm, JAD and Associates, in Columbus. In 2001, she served as interim director of the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services. Her public service career also included a 10-year stint as a member of City Council in Reynoldsburg, a suburb of Columbus, from 1968-1977.

Mrs. Davidson has received a number of honors for her service including induction into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in 1991, the YWCA Women of Achievement Award in 1992, the Good Housekeeping Award for Women in Government, and Governing Magazine's Public Official of the Year in 1999.

Davidson holds honorary degrees from Ohio University, Capital University, the University of Findlay, and The Ohio State University.

In addition to The Ohio State University board of trustees, Davidson serves on the boards of the University of Findlay and Franklin University. She also serves as a member of the board of directors of The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, Western-Southern Life Assurance Company, and the Center of Science and Industry (COSI).

Mrs. Davidson, who resides in Reynoldsburg, has two daughters, Julie and Jenifer, and four grandchildren.

Douglas G. Borror was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Bob Taft in 2002. Mr. Borror is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Dominion

Homes, Inc., a Columbus based homebuilder and developer of communities in Ohio and Kentucky. In 2003, Dominion Homes completed and sold over 3,070 homes and currently ranks in the top 30 homebuilders in the United States. This year, Dominion Homes was named to the Forbes 200 Best Small Companies list for the third time, and tenth in the Cleveland Plain Dealer's Top 100 Ohio Companies.

Doug has led the growth of the business from sales of $30 million dollars in 1987 to over $550 million in 2003. As C.E.O., Doug oversees the strategic direction of the company.

Doug is very active in the business and charitable arenas of the Columbus community. He serves on the board of directors of the Huntington National Bank, Columbia Gas of Ohio and Command Alkon Corporation. He is currently a board member of Capital South Redevelopment Corporation and is on the Board of Directors for The Wellington School, Recreation Unlimited and the Advisory Board of Goodwill Industries. He is past chairman of the East Central Region of The Young Presidents' Organization, and recently completed a two-year term on their International Board of Directors. Additionally, he is a licensed real estate broker and a member of the Columbus Board of Realtors.

A lifelong Central Ohio resident, Doug graduated from Upper Arlington High School and earned a bachelor of arts degree in history from The Ohio State University. He resides in Dublin, Ohio with his wife, Kim, and his two children, Danielle and Donald.

Walden W. O'Dell, of North Canton, Ohio, was appointed by Governor Taft in 2003. He is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Diebold, Incorporated, a leading global provider of integrated financial self-service delivery systems, security and services. Diebold employs more than 13,000 associates with representation in more than 88 countries worldwide and is headquartered in Canton, Ohio, USA. Diebold reported revenue of $2.1 billion in 2003 and is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'DBD.'

Prior to joining Diebold, O'Dell held a series of high-level positions with Emerson Electric Co. He most recently served as president of Emerson's Ridge Tool division in Elyria, Ohio, while also serving as group vice president of the tool group of Emerson. During his 33-year career at Emerson, he ran operations on five continents including the manufacturing, distribution and sales of a variety of electronic equipment and service businesses. He has had experience in places as diverse as China, Malaysia, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa.

He was president of the Liebert Corporation, a subsidiary of Emerson in Columbus, Ohio, where he led the transformation of the company from a $400 million domestic hardware producer to a $1.1 billion global leader in network computers and telecom support equipment and services.

O'Dell serves on the boards of Federal Signal Corporation of Oak Brook, Ill., and Lennox International Inc. of Richardson, Texas. He is a member of the board of directors of the Columbus Association of Performing Arts (CAPA) and the Canton Cultural Center for the Arts. He serves as a member of the board of the United Way of Greater Stark County and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges (OFIC), a member of the Ohio Business Roundtable and is a national trustee of Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He is a member of The Ohio State University Advocates and is a lifetime associate alumni of The Ohio State University. He is committed to excellence in education and is an active supporter of the University.

A native of St. Louis, O'Dell earned a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from St. Louis University, where he finished first in his class in his senior year. He earned a master's degree in electrical engineering from St. Louis University with a 4.0 GPA, before earning another master's degree in business administration from Stanford University, where he finished in the top 10 percent of his class and majored in finance and international business.

Mr. O'Dell's wife, Patricia, graduated from St. Louis University with a bachelor of arts in sociology. She is on the board of Opera Columbus. Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell are actively involved in several Ohio charitable organizations. The O'Dell's have four children ranging in age from 23 to 33.

Brian K. Hicks was appointed to the board of trustees by Governor Bob Taft in 2004. He is president and CEO of Hicks Partners, LLC, a public affairs firm with offices in Columbus and Washington, D.C.

Prior to forming Hicks Partners, LLC, Hicks served as chief of staff for Ohio Governor Bob Taft. Hicks previously served as chairman of Taft's transition committee, Ohio deputy secretary of state, and as senior legislative assistant to Congressman Michael G. Oxley.

Hicks has played key roles in a number of statewide candidate, judicial and issue campaigns, including Taft's 1994 campaign for Secretary of State, his 1998 and 2002 gubernatorial campaigns, and the successful Ohio Bush-Cheney 2000 campaign.

Widely considered Ohio's "most powerful unelected official" (according to the Associated Press, Cleveland Plain Dealer and Columbus Dispatch), Hicks was involved in virtually every aspect of managing the State of Ohio for nearly five years. He was responsible for significant policy, management and legislative issues including development of Ohio's operating and capital budgets.

Hicks is a member of the board of the Ohio Water Development Authority. He is a 1987 graduate of The Ohio State University, where he served as president of the Undergraduate Student Government.

Hicks resides in Hilliard, Ohio, with his wife, Kathlene, and their two children, Hannah and Jacob.

Emily M. Quick was appointed to the board of trustees by Governor Taft in 2003 for a two-year term. She is a fourth-year business major with a specialization in marketing. Ms. Quick serves on the Government Relations Advisory Council and the Academic and Student Affairs Committee.

Ms. Quick has been a member of the OSU Marching Band since the fall of 2000, and is currently the head squad leader for her row. She is part of the Honors Cohort program for the Fisher College of Business, as well as a Pace Setter Inductee. Ms. Quick serves as a University Ambassador and is a member of Ohio Staters, Inc., a unique service organization on campus. She spent the summer of 2004 working as an intern for Congresswoman Deborah Pryce and she plans to attend law school upon the completion of her bachelor's degree.

Emily is the daughter of Thomas and Alayne Quick of Reynoldsburg, Ohio. Her sister, Sarah reviews claims for the Ohio MRDD board.

Chad A. Endsley, from Coshocton, was appointed by Governor Taft as the graduate/professional student trustee to The Ohio State University Board of Trustees in 2004 for a two-year term. He is a second year law student at the Moritz College of Law at The Ohio State University. Chad serves on the Academic and Student Affairs Committee, Facility planning Committee, and Agricultural Affairs Committee of the board.

Chad received his bachelor of science in agriculture degree from OSU, majoring in agribusiness and applied economics, with a minor in political science. Chad was recognized as one of the top twenty seniors in the university and was a recipient of the Trustees' Student Recognition Award. He was a member of the SPHINX Senior Class Honorary, Gamma Sigma Delta Agricultural Honorary, and Alpha Gamma Sigma Professional Fraternity. His university service included chairing the Edward S. "Beanie" Drake Student Leader Endowment Fund, chairing the Senior Class Gift Committee for his college, and serving as a board member of College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences Library Committee. Chad also served a two-year term on the Ohio State Fair Junior Fair Board.

Chad currently serves on the Long Range Planning Committee at the Moritz College of Law and is a member of the Business Law Society. His affiliations include membership of the American, Ohio State, and Student Bar Associations. Chad is the owner of Chad A. Endsley Real Estate.

Chad is the son of Larry and Debbie Endsley of Coshocton, Ohio. His sister, Jocelyn, is an assistant to the senior pastor at Northwest Bible Church, and his brother, Todd, is an undergraduate student at Ohio State.

Andy Geiger

Director of Athletics, The Ohio State University

Andy Geiger is completing his 11th year as Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University. His time at Ohio State has been a "Golden Era" for Buckeye athletics, resulting in new facilities, national championships, fiscal stability and academic excellence.

Geiger is one of college athletics most respected leaders. In June of 2004, he was honored as the Division I-A Northeast Region Athletics Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2003, he received the John L. Toner Award, which is presented annually to the college athletics director of the year, and the Sports Business Journal Award as director of the year.

At Ohio State, Geiger oversees a program with 36 varsity sports, more than 900 student-athletes and an annual operating budget that exceeds $80 million. Under his direction, the Buckeyes, who are completely self-supporting financially, have done nothing but prosper.

At a time when many schools are dropping sports because of budget constraints, Geiger has added three women's sports – hockey, lacrosse and rowing. He also has assembled one of the premiere coaching staffs in America and successfully spearheaded a drive to upgrade the Buckeyes' aging facilities.

The result has been unparalleled success for the Buckeyes, who have finished third and fourth, respectively, the past two years in the Directors' Cup, which recognizes the best overall program in the country.

Under Geiger's watchful eye, Ohio State's men's and women's teams now qualify for NCAA postseason play on a regular basis. They also have done well in the classroom, where this past year 403 student-athletes attended the annual Scholar-Athlete Awards Banquet, which requires a grade point average of 3.00 or better. In each of the past two years, Ohio State has had more student-athletes named to the Big Ten All-Academic team than any other school.

Geiger came to Ohio State from the University of Maryland in 1994. One of his first priorities was to oversee the development of a departmental mission statement that would define the department's objectives and guide it into the future. He also moved quickly to bolster a number of important areas within the department including student-athlete support services, compliance and marketing.

Next, he turned his attention to improving the facilities

The first phase of that upgrade was the 4,450-seat Bill Davis Stadium, now considered the best baseball stadium in the Midwest. Since opening in the spring of 1997, Bill Davis Stadium has twice served as host for the NCAA Super Regional.

Next came the 19,200-seat Jerome Schottenstein Center, which opened in late fall of 1998 as the home of men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey. A magnificent venue for concerts, the Schottenstein Center has been acclaimed nationally as the finest on-campus multi-purpose facility in the country.

Geiger then turned his attention to the remodeling and renovation of Ohio Stadium, which had served as the home of Ohio State football since 1922 and was badly in need of repair. That project began following the 1998 season and was completed in time for the start of the 2001 season. There is no finer football facility anywhere, at any level.

In conjunction with the Ohio Stadium project, the Buckeyes also built the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, a 10,000-seat facility that houses the men's and women's track, soccer and lacrosse teams.

Additionally, the Younkin Success Center, which houses the Student-Athlete Support Services Office and serves as a laboratory and resource center for Ohio State's student-athletes, opened its doors in the spring of 2000.

Other improvements in the physical plant include lights for the softball field, which were added in the spring of 2003. Additionally, a new aquatics center that will house the men's and women's swimming and diving and synchronized swimming teams will open in 2005. An indoor tennis center is on the drawing board.

Because of Geiger's commitment, Ohio State student-athletes and fans enjoy some of the finest facilities in all of college athletics. Those facilities allow Ohio State to now host Big Ten, regional and national championship competition, bringing notoriety to the university, the city of Columbus and the state of Ohio.

A "hands-on" administrator, Geiger attends as many practices and games as his busy schedule will permit. He enjoys spending time with the student-athletes and coaches of all the sports and is a favorite of the student-athletes because of his genuine concern for their well being, both in the classroom and on the athletic field. He believes strongly in a quality experience for all student-athletes.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., Geiger graduated from Syracuse University in 1961 and was a member of the crew team as an undergraduate. He also was a member of the U.S. squad that captured a gold medal in the 1959 Pan Am Games. Geiger calls those years some of the most meaningful of his life.

Geiger began his career in intercollegiate athletics in 1961 as the freshman rowing coach at Dartmouth College. He ventured into administration in 1964, returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director. He left Syracuse in 1970 to become assistant commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

In 1971, at age 32, Geiger become athletics director at Brown University. He held that position until 1975, when he moved to the University of Pennsylvania in a similar capacity.

Geiger's next move was to Stanford. He began an extremely successful tenure there in 1979. During his 11-year stay at the Pac-10 school, the Cardinal won a total of 27 national championships and Stanford was considered one of the elite programs in intercollegiate athletics.

In 1990, Geiger left Stanford to take over a Maryland program that was on NCAA probation. When he left the Terrapins a little more than three years later, the athletics department once again was on solid ground.

Geiger was named Ohio State's seventh director of athletics April 29, 1994. He officially took over May 16, 1994.

Geiger, who was born March 23, 1939, and his wife, Eleanor, have two sons: Phillip and Gregory. During their stay in Maryland, Eleanor, also a Syracuse graduate, worked as a research assistant in mathematics education and specialized in the development of a new curriculum for middle school mathematics. Since arriving in Columbus, she has become involved in several community projects, including serving on the Board of Trustees of Opera Columbus.

Geiger's hobbies include golf and all music, especially jazz. He also enjoys fly-fishing, model trains (he has a garden railroad in his back yard) and spending time with his family.

A past member of the Columbus Jazz-Arts Board, Geiger hosts a two-hour weekly radio show called "Classic Jazz Masters." He also serves on the board of trustees of Easter Seals of Central and Southeast Ohio (President 2001-2003) and the Central Ohio Transit Authority (2002-present). He recently was elected chair of the Greater Columbus Sports Commission.

Riffee directs Ohio State's CHAMPS Program, which services 35 varsity sports. She serves on several OSU committees and task forces. Nationally, Riffee is equally involved, serving on the NCAA's Life Skills Advisory Committee, as well as past membership on the Division I-A Athletics Director Association's CHAMPS Life Skills Advisory Team.

Riffee and Ohio State's CHAMPS Program have received national recognition. In June of 1997, Riffee was honored with the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics prestigious "Lan Hewlett Award," presented for outstanding academic advising. In December of 1997, Ohio State's CHAMPS Program earned an inaugural Division I-A Athletic Directors Association "Program of Excellence" award, recognizing Ohio State's commitment to the development of each student-athlete in the areas of academics, athletics, personal, career, and community service. She is also a recent inductee into her High School Hall of Fame.

Riffee and her husband, Mike, a middle school teacher and coach, have two children, daughter Megan and son Patrick.

RICHELLE SIMONSON

Richelle Simonson was promoted to associate athletics director in March of 2000. She had been an assistant athletics director for Ticketing and Event Management.

Simonson's duties are multi-faceted. She manages athletics event management, ticketing for athletic and all special events held at Ohio State, merchandising, and the Sodexho concessions contract. Simonson coordinates all Big Ten and NCAA Championships hosted by The Ohio State University. Additionally, in 2004, Simonson was appointed administrator of Ohio State's Men's and Women's Golf teams.

She joined the OSU staff in 1991 as Ticket Director. Under her guidance, the ticketing system has received multiple technological enhancements. She has successfully integrated the concert and special event ticketing for the Jerome Schottenstein Center into the culture of Athletic Event Ticketing. In addition to overseeing all of ticket operations, Simonson is responsible for game management, including crowd control and game day timing of football and men's and women's basketball. Athletics merchandising and concessions contracts also are in her administrative areas.

Simonson is from southern Minnesota. She graduated with a bachelor's in Business Administration from Minnesota State University in 1988 and received her master's from Ohio State in 1990. In 1990, Simonson was named assistant ticket director at the University of Michigan. Simonson spent one year in Michigan before returning to the Buckeyes in 1991.

STEVE SNAPP

Steve Snapp serves as associate athletics director for communications. In that capacity, he is responsible for all aspects of public relations for athletics and serves as the departmental spokesperson on matters of public interest.

Additionally, Snapp, who is in his 31st year at Ohio State, oversees the Athletics Communications and Publications offices as well as the Video Department and Scoreboard Operations. Other areas of responsibility include radio and television contracts, and oversight of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. He also serves as departmental liaison with the Men's Varsity "O" Association and coordinates all press functions, including operation of the football press box on game days. He is the chair of the department's public affairs task force.

Snapp was a member of the committee that designed the current logo that is used by the Department of Athletics and he chaired the committee that designed and implemented the Athletics Hall of Fame that is now housed in the Jerome Schottenstein Center. He played a leading role, too, in developing the criteria that now permits Ohio State athletes to have their numbers retired, a tradition that began in 2000.

Snapp graduated from Ohio State in June of 1973 with a B.A. in journalism and joined the Department of Athletics a little less than a month later as assistant sports information director. He was promoted to associate sports information director in 1978, a position he held until 1988, when he succeeded Marv Homan as sports information director.

In 1998, Snapp was named director of external programs. He resumed his duties as director of athletics communication in March of 2000 and was named assistant athletics director the following fall. He was promoted to associate director in 2003.

Several of Snapp's publications have won national awards. His historical feature on the 1968 Ohio State football team, which appeared in the 1994 football media guide, was judged "Best In The Nation" by a panel of his peers. He was awarded an Honorary Varsity "O" in 2001.

Snapp has been the media coordinator for numerous Big Ten and NCAA tournaments hosted by the Buckeyes, including the NCAA's 2004 Men's First & Second Round Basketball Championships. From 1992 to 1995, he was a member of the NCAA's Media Accreditation Committee at the Men's Final Four.

He as worked, too, at 28 bowl games, including the 2002 National Championship Game won by the Buckeyes.

During his stay with the Buckeyes, he has worked for five of the school's seven directors of athletics: Ed Weaver, Hugh Hindman, Rick Bay, Jim Jones and Andy Geiger.

Snapp, a native of Sidney, Ohio, is a Marine Corps and Vietnam veteran. He is an avid reader, skier and golfer and enjoys watching all sports. Snapp and his wife, Elaine, live in Worthington.

MIECHELLE WILLIS

Miechelle Willis is in her tenth year at The Ohio State University. Named associate athletics director in 1994, she oversees 12 varsity sports, including men's and women's basketball. She also serves as Ohio State's senior woman administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Prior to joining the staff at Ohio State, Willis spent seven years at Temple University in Philadelphia. At Temple, she was the primary administrator for 11 women's varsity sports and was responsible for compliance, drug and alcohol education and student-athlete services.

Her professional experience also includes stints at Montclair State College (1978-87) as the women's track and cross country coach and she also served as a member of the 69AES United States Air Force Reserves as an aeromedical evacuation technician (1983-89).

As a student-athlete, Willis was a standout pentathlete at Grambling State University, where she graduated cum laude in 1976 with a degree in health and physical education. Willis earned her master's degree in sports administration from her alma mater in 1978 and had been pursuing her doctorate at Temple prior to her departure.

Willis serves as the administrative liaison to the Big Ten Conference men's swimming and diving coaches group and is a member of the NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship Committee.

Willis is also the athletic department's liaison for the Larkins Hall Replacement Project. The 600,000 square foot Recreation and Physical Activity Center will house the Bill and Mae McCorkle Aquatics Pavilion, a state of the arts aquatic facility that will serve as the home of Ohio State's aquatic sports beginning in 2005.

The Big Ten Conference

Only the Big Ten's fifth commissioner since its founding in 1896, James E. Delany enters his 15th year in that role. He has led the Big Ten through significant periods of change and growth that have helped the Conference maintain its preeminent position as one of the nation's leaders in providing quality athletic and academic experiences for young people.

ABOUT THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Big Ten universities provide in excess of $76 million in athletic scholarship aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women. In 2003-04, the Big Ten distributed over $115 million in revenues to its 11 member institutions. Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams.

- Big Ten Universities members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- Big Ten Universities host more than 70 Nobel laureates as faculty, students or researchers.
- Big Ten Universities enroll students of whom over 41 percent have graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class, while 74 percent graduated in the top quarter of their class.
- Big Ten Universities have more than 3,500,000 living alumni and over 320,000 undergraduate students attending Big Ten universities.
- Big Ten Universities typically receive more than 8,000 employers each year who conduct recruitment visits on Big Ten campuses.
- Big Ten Universities house on their campuses eight of the nation's 20 largest academic libraries. All of the Conference libraries are interconnected through an online library system (the Virtual Electronic Library).
- Since 1992, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams.
- Throughout the conference, the Big Ten had more than 8,500 student-athletes playing on over 270 teams in 2002-03. Those student-athletes received in excess of $76 million in direct financial aid.
- Big Ten student-athletes graduate at a rate of 10 percent higher than all Division I student-athletes.
- The Big Ten recognized 1,894 Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the 2003-04 academic year, the highest total in the last decade. Over the past five years, the Conference has annually acknowledged more than 1,500 student-athletes as Academic All-Conference honorees.
- In the past 10 years (1994-95 through 2003-04), the Big Ten claimed 41 NCAA team championships including 25 since 1998-99.
- Big Ten athletic programs have won more than 185 team national championships and 1,100 individual NCAA titles. In 1999–00, the Conference celebrated six NCAA team titles (men's soccer, women's volleyball, wrestling, men's basketball, fencing, men's gymnastics), the most for the Big Ten in the last 10 years.
- Athletic programs in the Big Ten were all ranked among the top 29 in the country, including a No. 1 honor for Penn State, in a first-of-its-kind analysis by The Sporting News (September 1999) of all 112 Division I-A athletic programs (that play football and men's basketball).
- The Big Ten showcases more than 250 events that are televised nationally, regionally and locally last year, representing over 550 hours of programming.
- The Big Ten Conference schools are among the national attendance leaders in football, men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball. During 2003–04, more than 8.3 million fans attended Big Ten home contests in those sports.

BIG TEN 9-11 SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Following the national tragedy on September 11, 2001, the Big Ten Conference, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The Big Ten made a presentation to Lumina Foundation for Education and the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of America™ (CSFA) to provide undergraduate and graduate degree scholarships at Big Ten Conference member institutions. The Conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund." The $1 million contribution will be drawn from Conference reserves, which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular season television opportunities.
